V. COBURN HALL

Coburn Hall, erected in 1872, was named in acknowledgment of benefactions of Hon. Abner Coburn. The building consists of the departments of Geology and Biology. It is of rough quarried stone with granite trimmings.

The first floor is devoted to the Geological Department. The laboratory is provided with collections to illustrate the lectures in Physical Geography, Geology, Mineralogy, and Paleontology. In the Geological Cabinet are included Rosenbusch's set of 490 massive rocks, 100 European crystalline schists and the U. S. Geological Survey educational series of 150 specimens of typical American rocks.

The Biological laboratory occupies the second floor. It is provided with illustrative material for laboratory and lecture uses.

STUNT NIGHT GREAT SUCCESS

Chapel Filled

Fraternity Stunt Night was a great success, according to the large number of college people who attended. It was the first event of its kind for many years. The object was to raise part of the balance of the Des Moines Convention fund of the Colby Y. M. C. A., and financially it was better than was expected.

The Dekes opened the program with a mock trial of a Chinese laundryman, impersonated by Pollock, '21. Barnes, '20, Craig, '20, and Knowlton, '21, were amusing in their parts.

This was followed by a brief and noisy minstrel show by four Hedman Hall wits, Mayo, '22, Gale, '22, Azzara, '23, and Kleinholz, '23.

Leonard, '21, and Brush, '20, acted in a parody on the ghost scene in "Hamlet," Leonard playing the part of the scholar harassed by the ghost of mid-years, played by Brush.

Song, '21, and Sun, '20, did some clever Chinese stunts in some foot-juggling games. Sun played a solo on his Chinese flute. These two men represented Pi Delta Phi.

A faculty meeting, impersonated by the Phi Deltas, was the prize-winning stunt of the evening. Well-known members of the faculty were ably imitated by Esters, '21, Wilkins, '20, and Baxter, '23.

The Alpha Tau Omegas presented an amusing mock trial of Cook, '22, for attending classes too regularly. Leonard, '21, and Grace, '20, scored as the judge and the clerk, respectively.

The applause of the members of the woman's division who were present caused the prize, a large bag of peanuts, to be awarded to the Phi Deltas. The evening closed with the singing of "On To Victory."

RELAY TIME TRIALS

The final "time" trials of candidates for the relay team that will represent Colby at the B. A. A. games on February 7 were held Monday afternoon. Every man has shown a marked improvement during his few weeks of track work.

Coach Ryan plans to keep from six to eight of the speediest men at work for the next few days. From this number a final team of four will be chosen.

MUSICAL CLUBS READY

The College Musical Clubs will give their first concert next Friday evening at Fairfield. Rehearsals have been going along well and about 30 men have been reporting for practice every day. Of these 20 or 25 men will be chosen to make the various trips that are planned. There are about 12 men out for the Mandolin Club, which is under the direction of Robert E. Wilkins, '20. The orchestra is being directed by Ransom Pratt, '21, and the Glee Club by J. Foster Choate, '20. There is every promise for a good program this year. Instrumental selections will be given by a trio made up of Messrs. Hois, Pratt, and Barnum, and vocal selections by the quartette consisting of J. Foster Choate, '20, Evan J. Shearman, '22, Clifton Lord, '23, and Harold E. Baldwin, '21. Neil Leonard, '21, will be the reader for the clubs this year. Violin solos will be given by J. Gleason Perry, '20, manager of the Clubs, and vocal solos by J. Foster Choate, '20.

Ransom Pratt, '21, has been busy arranging a schedule for the concerts to come within the next few weeks. A concert will be given in Oakland on the tenth of February. The clubs will probably take a trip through Aroostook county during the April vacation and negotiations are now under way for a concert to be given in Portland, possibly during the week of March 1. The usual concert will probably be given in Augusta and there will be the annual concert in Waterville, although the date has not yet been decided upon.

INTERNATIONALS ELECT OFFICERS

The second meeting of the International Relations Club was held last Friday evening in the chapel. The nominating committee which was appointed from among the members at the first gathering two weeks ago, made its report. The following officers were elected for this year: President, J. Foster Choate, '20, of Cambridge, Mass.; vice-president, W. J. Pollock, '21, of Waterville; secretary, Harold E. Brakewood, '20, of Gallup Falls, Vt.; librarian, Clifford Peaslee, '21, of Pittsfield, Mass.; assistant librarians, Harold M. Sachs of New York City, and Donald M. Shaw of Clinton, Me.; faculty advisor, Dr. MacDonald of the economics department.

Professor Nelson conducted chapel exercises on Tuesday.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF THE COLBY CHAPTER OF DELTA UPSILON.

The Colby chapter of Delta Upsilon held its sixty-eighth annual banquet at the Elmwood hotel on Saturday evening with a large attendance of out-of-town visitors.

The following post-prandial program was carried out, with Ralph A. Bramhall, '15, as toastmaster and Arthur R. Mills, '21, as choragus: "The Active Chapter," Thaddeus F. Tilton, '20; Selection by the Quartette; "Principia," Addison B. Lorimer, '88; "For the Alumni Board," Dr. Percy S. Merrill, '99; "The Bowdoin Chapter," Roland Peacock, '20; "The Neophytes," Kenneth C. Emery, '23.

Impromptu speeches were for from the following: Professor Lester F. Weeks, '15, Donald G. Jacobs, '20, Hugh A. Smith, '20, J. F. Larrabee, '87, A. W. Allen, '16, and Curtis H. R. Hatch, '20.

The initiates in whose honor the banquet was given are as follows: George A. Costley, '21, of Waterville; Andrew M. Bacigalupo, '20, of Lawrence, Mass.; Bert L. Merrill, '20, of Waterville; Ivan L. Dow, '23, of Waterville; Kenneth H. Emery, '23, of Charlestown; Waldo C. Hoit, '23, of Liberty; Chilton L. Kemp, '23, of Deblois; John B. Lanpher, '23, of Pittsfield; John E. LaRoe, '23, of Plainfield, N. J.; Clifton E. Lord, '23, of Blue Hill; Floyd T. McIntire, '23, of Perham; John P. Tilton, '23, of Portland, and Elledge John T. Howard, '23, of North Brookfield, Mass.

The committee in charge of the banquet consisted of T. F. Tilton, '20, A. E. Greenlaw, '21, and R. C. Bradley, '20.

PHILOSOPHERS CONVERSE

In a room clouded with the aromatic fumes of tobacco, a dozen men with furrowed brows were sitting at ease. All eyes were directed toward the corner where sat a tall, thin man, who seemed to be expounding a theory, and steering the course of argument. The subject was "Determinism versus Free Will," but deviations from the topic were long and frequent; indeed, it seemed as if there was little in the realm of philosophy that was not mentioned or discussed, however briefly.

It was the first meeting of the Philosophical club at the Phi Delta House, Tuesday night, January 27. Professor W. R. Wells suggested the meeting, and was assisted in calling the men together by some of the students in his classes in Philosophy. It was decided not to have a hard and fast organization, with regular meetings, but merely to call an occasional gathering of men who are interested. The subject for the next discussion will be "Mysticism."

BASEBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Manager H. L. Bell has announced the following baseball schedule for the coming spring. It has been ratified by the athletic association and by the faculty:

April 19	University of Maine at Waterville (Exhibition)
April 21	Holy Cross at Worcester.
April 22	Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst.
April 23	St. Anselm's at Manchester, N. H.
May 1	Bowdoin at Brunswick.
May 6	St. Anselm's at Waterville.
May 8	Bates at Waterville.
May 12	University of Maine at Orono.
May 17	Boston College at Newton.
May 18	Brown University at Providence.
May 19	Tufts College at Medford.
May 20	Lowell Textile School at Lowell.
May 22	Bowdoin at Waterville.
May 28	Bates at Lewiston.
June 5	University of Maine at Waterville.

Manager Bell will attempt to arrange a game with a prominent team, for the benefit of the commencement visitors. Otherwise this schedule is complete.

DR. GROVER DISCUSSES "RAYMOND."

Sir Oliver Lodge's book, "Raymond," was discussed in chapel Monday morning by Dr. F. W. Grover, Professor of Physics. "The question of psychic phenomena is not for the physicist to attempt to study or explain," said Dr. Grover. "It is rather for the psychologist."

"Lodge has a good style of writing, and his reputation as a scientist warrants a respectful hearing for whatever he may propose. The third part of the book, in which he discusses the evidence, although not in a controversial manner, is dignified, devout, and almost pathetic. Sir Oliver's theories are in no way opposed to the Christian religion; they should be welcomed, for there is nothing but comfort to be derived from such theories. We cannot prove everything in a common-sense material way; there is much in our religious creeds that we choose to take on faith. If Lodge's evidence will strengthen the doctrine of immortality, what harm can it do?"

However, the scientific evidence in the case is by no means conclusive.

This is, in brief, a paraphrase of some of the salient points in Dr. Grover's discourse.

A. T. O. LEADS

Altho the A. T. O's 1,000 per cent average was ruined by losing one point to the Dekes Tuesday afternoon, they still have a substantial lead over the Phi Delts who are second in the league. A new three string record of 321 was established by Farley, of the Phi Delts last Thursday afternoon and the single string record of 128 previously held by Tyler of the A. T. O's was tied by Ware of the Dekes Tuesday afternoon.

CAMPUS CHAT

Prof. C. J. Webber of the English Department entertained the faculty and their wives at the home of Prof. H. W. Brown, on Winter Street, last Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Libby read a paper concerning Sir Oliver Lodge and his message, and was followed by Dr. Wells, who spoke on a kindred topic. Several members of the Women's Division served tea.

It is rumored that a bald-headed club has been organized, to add to the long list of societies already existing and in the making.

Dr. Libby has been ill at his home on Pleasant street.

COACH RYAN ON THE JOB

Coach Ryan's mission to form a branch of the American Amateur Athletic Union in the State of Maine was given great impetus last week by the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Ryan, in a lengthy address, outlined a plan of organization, and enumerated the many benefits which the city of Waterville and Colby College would receive by becoming a member of the A. A. U.

The business men adopted the plan unanimously in this city.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from this life the grandfather of our beloved brother, E. Stanley Kitchin, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Colby Chapter of Pi Delta Phi Fraternity, extend to his bereaved family our condolence and sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of our chapter, and that a copy be printed in the Colby Echo.

"We wonder how Colby will fare this year in her alliance with Clark and Tufts, our old opponents. Certain it is that Colby will have no walk-over."—Bates Student.

MOI AUSSI

(From an actual incident)

A gallant soldier of the host
That fought till Hindenburg was through,
Has double glory for his boast;
A Gallic maid he conquered, too.

She loved him, but her love was shy;
He pressed: "O will you marry me?
I love you, chérie,—hope to die"—
She answered "No," and sad was he.

One day the order came to pack;
The private worried what to do;
Said to the maid: "I'm going back."
His chérie answered "I go, too."

COLBY For COLBY MEN For COLBY

Loyalty: being true to a trust. Students of Colby, a most sacred and enduring trust is incumbent upon you—loyalty to Colby. It is no ordinary trust, but one which you should cherish the more as the years go by. It is not a trivial matter, nor is it something which can easily be laid aside. Loyalty does not consist merely in shouting for victorious athletic teams. Nor does loyalty to Colby mean that you must berate any other college.

Loyalty—Colby loyalty—is something infinitely greater and better than all this. True loyalty to Colby means a keener appreciation of Colby, of her traditions; of her present; of her future; of her family. Remember that you are an integral part of this select group. Remember that every Colby graduate is one of the far-reaching brotherhood that you are ultimately to join. Think upon the high ideals of the college and always remember that you are a representative of Colby—that your life reflects upon Colby. It's easy to take what Colby offers. Are you planning to repay her? It's easy to belittle a vanquished team. It requires no effort to remain passive in your college career. Students of Colby, be true to your trust; think Colby, act Colby, talk Colby, and be worthy of Colby. R. H. S.

Cold weather this! When night comes and the midnight oil runs low, our blankets prove themselves congenial friends. Then the man draws the covers tight about his neck, tucks his knees under his chin, and puffs his steaming breath into the freezing atmosphere. And, oh, the agony when rising time comes—almost makes one's knees freeze together on one's way to breakfast.

"When icicles hang by the wall,
And Dick the shepherd blows his nail
And Tom bears logs into the hall,
And milk comes frozen home in the pail.

When all aloud the wind doth blow
And coughing drowns the parson's saw.

And Marian's nose looks red and raw.
When roasted crabs hiss in the bowl
Then nightly sings the staring owl,

Tu-whit,
Tu-who, a merry note,
While greasy Joan doth keel the pot."

The second report of the delegates to the Des Moines conference was given Tuesday, the chapel hour being divided among them. Grace Foster spoke first on China and the situation confronting us there. Betty Whipple spoke next, South America being her subject, while Gladys Dow spoke last upon India.

On Wednesday Gladys Dow spoke the entire chapel hour taking "The Mountain Peaks of Vision" as her subject. The special feature of this meeting was a solo upon a Chinese flute, a soft-toned reed instrument, played by Mr. Dzen.

On Thursday, Betty Whipple was the chapel speaker, talking on "Why Non-Christian Religions Failed." She gave a very clear idea of the basic foundations of the non-Christian religions,—a non-personal God and a religion for men being the chief points of difference from Christianity.

On Friday the last chapel address was given by Grace Foster on "The Challenge of the Present Generation."

On Thursday evening, Gladys Dow, Grace Foster, and Betty Whipple spoke in the Y. W. C. A. meeting on the smaller, more cozy informal talks given at various breakfasts and lunches which they attended at Des Moines.

The Literary society program for January 30 was as follows:

Town and County Government . . . . .

Helen Raymond and Avis Barton entertained the

PT2 Club at a breakfast Sunday morning, February

1, in honor of Edna Fish, ex-'22, now teaching in

Garland High School. As part of an elaborate menu was being served, a gentle knock was heard, and upon the summons, "Come in, you're out!"

Dean Holmes entered to see from whence came such shrieks as rent the air from time to time. These present were Edna, Gladys, and Velma Briggs, Sybil Williams, Lorena Scott, Vina Parent, the guest of honor Edna Fish, and the hostesses Avis Barton and Helen Raymond.

Betty Whipple, Grace Foster, and Gladys Dow, spoke at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

E. K.

Mary Harthorn, '23, took part in the American Legion play, "College Chums," Tuesday evening.

Alice Clark, '21, spent the week-end with Lillian Dyer, '20, at her home in Oakland.

Margaret Rice, '21, passed the week-end at her home in Oakland.

A. A. H.

Alpha Delta chapter of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority held its fifth annual initiation banquet at the Elmwood hotel, Saturday evening. The tables were decorated with violets, the sorority flower. The place-cards were paper dolls dressed in old-fashioned costumes of blue and white, the sorority colors, with the sorority letters on their caps. The menu covers were diamond-shaped with the sorority coat-of-arms done in gold in the center.

The initiates were: Marjorie Hornung, '21, Mary Brier, '22, Marion Bibber, Thelma Powers, Avis Cox, Elizabeth Griffin, Doris Ozier, Edith Porter, Thelma Ryder, Gladys Walker, Vera Collins, Addarena Lightbody, Arlene Harris, Edith and Gertrude Weller, '23.

The guests were: Mrs. Clarence Pierce of Bangor, Ruth Ostrom of Rumford, Edna Fish of Dexter, Nellie Lightbody and Ruth Harlow of Waterville.

Alice Hanson, '20, acted as toastmistress and Ruth Harlow, ex-'21, as choragus. The toasts were as follows: Welcome, Velma Briggs, '22; response, Thelma Ryder, '23; The Violet, Catherine Tuttle, '21; The Blue and White, Ruth Mosher, '21; Friendship Hand, Elizabeth Carey, '21; The Star, Alice Page, '21; Character, Mildred Barrows, '20; Alumnae letters were, followed by impromptu toasts.

Marion Conant entertained Mrs. Clarence Pierce of Bangor (Alberta Getchell, ex-'19) over the week-end.

Velma Briggs had, as a week-end guest, Edna Fish ex-'22 of Dexter.

Ruth Ostrom, ex-'21, of Rumford is visiting Ruth Mosher for a few days.

Mary Brier, '22, is ill at her home in Oakland.

Mr. E. M. Weller is visiting his daughters, Gertrude and Edith, for a few days.

P. M.

Grace Lermond, '19, who has been attending the Convention of Principals and Superintendents of Secondary Schools in Augusta, visited the chapter on Friday and Saturday.

Dorothy Chaplin, '23, and Feneda Hawksley, '23, are ill with the grippe.

Leonette Warburton, '23, and Gertrude Fletcher, '23, entertained Ruth Wills, '20, and Eleanor Burdick, '20, at breakfast Sunday morning.

Valentine Curtis returned Friday from a ten weeks' visit to Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md.

On Thursday evening Linna Weidlich, '21, entertained Eleanor Burdick, '20, Ruth Wills, '20, Virginia Bean, '23, Ida Jones, '23, Louise Steele, '23, Louise Tilley, '23, and Elizabeth Kellett, '23, at a feed in Mary Low Hall.

"Bates should not try to measure up to the standard of Colby or any other Maine college. If Colby can not find good enough material to send a relay team to the B. A. A. is that any reason why Bates should abandon an attempt to train men for that meet?"—Bates Student.

The House of Kuppenheimer

YOU CAN DEPEND ON US FOR ANYTHING YOU WANT IN GOOD CLOTHES AND YOU CAN REST ASSURED THEY WILL BE WORTH EVERY CENT YOU PAY. YOU ARE DOING US A FAVOR WHEN YOU RETURN ANYTHING UNSATISFACTORY.

Those Good Old College Days

Are here again with their stirring meets, keen rivalries, jolly week-ends, and delightful formal and informal parties. It's a life despite the so called "hard grind"—and a life, by the way, in which good clothes are very important. We've prepared a big showing of exclusive Fall

Kuppenheimer Suits and Overcoats

They are ready now—stylish suits and overcoats that will represent you well, designed especially for well dressed young men who appreciate newer and more distinctive styling and tailoring refinements that express elegance and luxuriousness in every line.

Give us a visit.
