Colby 3; Bates 5

On Saturday, May 29, the Colby nine was defeated on the Garcelon Field, Lewiston, with the score of 5 to 3. The game up to the seventh inning was a pitchers' duel with a score of 1 to 0 in favor of Colby. In the seventh Bates made four runs and added one more in the eighth. "Spike" Williams circled the bases in a home-run clout in Colby's half of the eighth. Colby had a ninth inning rally and threatened to tie the score but only managed to put one run over. One of the prettiest running catches seen this year was made by "Joe" Taylor while Good and Fraas played a clean steady game of ball in the infield. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Colby	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	1	3	4	6
Bates	0	0	0	0	0	0	4	1	0	6	7	3

Runs made by Donahue, 2; Langley, Burns, Eben-er, Fraas, Greenlaw, Williams. Tw base hit, Lang-ley. Three base hit, Donahue. Home run, Wil-iams. Stolen bases, Faras, Good. Bases on balls by Johnston. Struck out by Johnston, 7; by Buck-nam, 3. Double plays, Donahue, Dillon, and Burns; Good and Wills. Wild pitch Johnston. Time 1.50. Umpire, Wilison, Bowdoin.

MAINE BLANKS COLBY

Lacking the ability to hit in the pinches, the Colby nine was defeated on Memorial day by the Maine team with a score of 3 to 0. Both sides played fast clean baseball and the result was al-ways in doubt. At no timew as the game unintex-esting and each nine showed its gameness to the fin-ish. One of the largest crowds to witness a ball game on Alumni field was present and no one went away dissatisfied with the brand of ball played by the Colby team.

For the visitors Waterman was clearly the star, getting three hits and playing errorless ball. Capt. Bucknam hit best for Colby and pulled off a clever catch in the field. Good at third played a fine game of ball while Taylor and Williams in the field ac-cepted difficult chances, the former figuring in one of the prettiest doubles ever seen on Alumni field. Colby's battery, Klain and Lampher, played an en-tirely commendable brand of ball. The summary is as follows:

All money and subscriptions to the new Colby Song Book should be turned in at once.

TRACK MEET

Colby sent three men to the track meet held at Franklin Field in Philadelphia last week under the auspices of the I. C. A. A. A. They were Haines, Cook and Mayo. While Colby's representatives failed to qualify in their events, they showed marked improvement over the showing they made in practice. Cook threw the hammer 123 feet. Mayo entered for the mile, and ran well. Haines came third in his trial heat of the one hundred. Thompson of Dartmouth broke the world's record for the high hurdles and set a new one of 14 2-5 seconds. The meet went to the University of Pennsylvania, with 36 1-2 points. Princeton and Dartmouth were close second and third.

THE CHAPEL SING

Under the leadership of Rex Dodge, '06, an inspiring "sing" was held in the chapel on Thursday evening. A large number of students from both divisions were present. After a half hour of rousing songs, Mr. Dodge, who is assisting in editing the new Colby Song Book, explaining the contents of the book and appointed a committee to secure subscriptions. The book is to have an attractive cover (a reproduction of the "Willows") and will include, in addition to about thirty Colby songs, a number of the most popular college songs. Finished with board cover it will cost 1.50, with paper, $1.00.

The enthusiasm and spirit of the meeting reached the climax in the "long way" and to the singing of "On to Victory" and "Alma Mater," led by The Weas."

MIKE MAY BE OLYMPIC COACH

On account of the exceptionally large number of athletes—estimated at about three hundred—who will make up the American Olympic team, a Board of Coaches is to be chosen from among the college coaches throughout the country. Many prominent sportsmen have mentioned Coach Ryan for the board, because of his many years experience, both as an athlete and as a coach.

Coach Ryan holds all the Marathon records in the United States and Canada, and has been a member of three Olympic teams. He has also competed in meets held at the Stadium in Antwerp, where the Olympic games are scheduled for this year. Colby should feel honored if Mike is chosen for the Olympic Board of Coaches, and should be willing to do her part in bringing it about.

MEMORIAL DAY CONTROVERSY

The advisability of the game played with Maine on Memorial Day was discussed pro and con at chapel, Tuesday morning. President Roberts, before introducing the principal speaker of the morning, Dr. Towne, said:—

"I must assume entire responsibility for the game that was played yesterday."

The president stated that however unfortunate the incident, Colby was not alone in playing upon Memorial Day: Bowdoin played Bates, scores of other college nines played, while American Legion posts played in Massachusetts.

Dr. Towne was the second speaker. He said that on Sunday he sent a special messenger, protesting the Maine game.

"I am ashamed of Colby college," said Dr. Towne, referring to the Memorial Day game. He then referred to the Colby dead in the World War, and asked what they would think of such "a prostitution of Memorial Day."

Capt. Adams, of the G. A. R., then spoke upon the "desecration of Memorial Day." The Civil War veteran gave his speech with much feeling, painting graphic pictures of his own participation in some of the battles of the war.

All the speakers were heartily applauded.

START INTER-CLASS SERIES

On Monday, May 24, the first of the series of inter-class baseball games was called on Alumni Field. The Sophomores and Freshman teams opposed each other for five innings when the game was called on account of darkness. The Freshmen got four runs the first inning and the Sophomores made two in the second. In the last inning the Freshmen got three more and the thrilling and humorous game closed with the score standing, Freshmen, 7; Sophomores, 2.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

In accordance with Article X of the Echo Association Constitution, we are printing herewith a proposed amendment to Article XI of the Constitution. The amendment is "The annual subscription fee shall be increased to one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50)." This will be voted upon at a date to be announced later.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

COLBY For COLBY MEN For COLBY

With the current issue of the ECHO the board for 1920-21 assumes office. In doing so, it is not unmindful of the great privilege that has been bestowed upon it. The sincere desire of every member of the board is to do justice to his part in publishing a paper that will be worthy of Colby. For the rest of the year, the ECHO must continue essentially in its present form, inasmuch as any radical change in its make-up now would necessitate too great a financial burden. Next fall, however, the ECHO will have a substantial increase in size. Of this we are certain. But no bombastic predictions need be made about the future. "What the future may hold, the gods alone know."

For the present, we seek only your friendly cooperation and your criticism. Editors have all the failings that other human beings have,—perhaps a few more besides. This should be borne in mind when any criticisms, whatever their nature, are offered.

That the Student Endowment Fund campaign should fail now would be lamentable. Yet the time remaining to complete the subscriptions is limited. Some of the college organizations are lagging behind in this work. It is imperative that the money be raised AT ONCE. Let's go!

"Argumentum ad hominem" doesn't go with a group of college students—especially Colby men.

All material intended for publication in the ECHO should be in by Monday night. Everything must be in by noon, Tuesday.

BATES-MAINE RALLY

The chapel was packed last Friday night for the combined rally before the Bates and Maine games. Incidentally, everyone wanted to see the "big surprise" that had been advertised on the bulletin board. They saw. "It" was none other than Martin, the comedian, who was with the "Hoyt Revue" at the Haines. Martin gave several stories in French dialect style, which were well received. Then "Baggy" Allen gave a short, snappy talk, urging everyone to show the same "pep" that had been shown thus far this year. Professor Brown was next called upon. He aroused great enthusiasm by declaring that altho Maine was his Alma Mater, he would be heart-broken if Colby didn't trim her Monday. Colby was given "the long way," "On to Victory" was sung, and then more cheers were given. The rally closed with the singing of "Alma Mater." Needless to say, "The Weas" was in charge.

A. T. O. HOP

New Elks Hall was the scene of a very pretty dancing party, given by the Colby chapter of Alpha Tau Omega, on Tuesday evening, May 25. The hall was appropriately decorated in blue and gold, the fraternity colors, and with fraternity and sorority banners.

Novelty dances added much merriment to the occasion. Music was furnished by the college orchestra. Refreshments were served at intermission by Spears.

President and Mrs. Arthur J. Roberts, Dr. and Mrs. Homer P. Little, Dr. and Mrs. J. William Black, Dr. Phillip W. Harry, Prof. Carl J. Weber, and Dean Alice M. Holmes were the patrons and patronesses.

JUNIOR CLASS PARTS ELECTED

At a meeting of the Junior class in the chapel on Saturday, the names of the men who were nominated for the junior parts for Junior Class Day were ratified. The following is a list of the men chosen: class chaplain, Charles A. Mitchell; class orator, Donald A. Shaw; class historian, Phil T. Somerville; presentation of gifts, Thomas G. Grace.

A committee to arrange for the programs for class day was also appointed, as follows: Stephen H. Ayer, Robert D. Conary.

HAMLIN PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST

The annual Hamlin Prize Speaking Contest for the men's division was held in the college chapel on Wednesday afternoon. A first prize of ten dollars was awarded to Floyd T. McIntire of Houlton and a second prize of five dollars was divided between Samuel Pinonsky of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Donald D. Raymond of Waterville. Professors Herbert C. Libby, Henry W. Brown and Cecil A. Rollins acted as judges. The contestants were chosen on a basis of excellency in public speaking, a course required of all the men in the freshman class. The preliminary contest was held a few weeks ago and the following men were chosen to compete in the finals; Basil Ames of Norridgewock; Stanley Estes, Palermo; John Hedman, Jemmland; Samuel Pinonsky, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Donald Raymond, Waterville; Clifton Lord, Waterville; William Wallace, Penacook, N. H.; Donald Sprague, Boothbay Harbor; Floyd McIntire, Houlton; Frank Kleinholz, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Arthur Berry, Providence, R. I.; John Dunstan, Richmond; Chauncey Leighton, Milbridge; Norman Lenville, West Springfield, Mass.; Russell Gow, Live Oak, Fla.; Wayne Dixon, Somersworth, N. H.; Elon Kitchen, Palermo; and Charles Smith of Fairfield.

Alec Thomson, Bowdoin '21, was at the Deke House, Saturday.

It's a great life if you don't week-end.

ARMENIAN RELIEF SPEAKER

Dr. Milton S. Littlefield, secretary of the Near East Relief, spoke at Men's Chapel last Friday morning. Dr. Littlefield was an impressive speaker. In a forceful and convincing manner, he depicted the plight of Armenia. He stated that the Armenians had lost half their race, and that 10,000 had been killed within the last sixty days. He remarked upon the heroism of Myrtle Shane, a relief worker, who has volunteered to remain at one of the most dangerous posts in Armenia. In conclusion, Dr. Littlefield urged all to think seriously of Armenia's condition, and to endeavor to aid, in a substantial manner, some of the Armenian orphans.

Thursday evening Professors Webber, Harry, Rollins, and Wells were guests of Dean Holmes and the senior class at dinner. Following dinner the freshman tennis tournament was played off for their benefit.

Friday evening the Junior play was given for the underclassmen. This was done to reserve the Saturday night performance for the Seniors, the faculty, and guests.

The Ivy Day program opened Saturday afternoon with a welcome by the seniors. Dancing groups then entered and danced, and retired, while the procession in order of classes formed to plant the ivy as the last of the afternoon events. The second presentation of "The Tempest" took place in the evening. The finals in the interclass tennis tournament of both singles and doubles were other features of the day.

The results of the interclass tennis tournament were:—

Senior champion, Seymour from Tooker
-4; 6-2.

Junior champion, Dow from Rounds
6-1; 6-3.

Sophomore champion, Larrabee from Chamberlain 6-4, 6-3.

Freshman champion, Beaman from Freeman 6-1; 7-9; 6-2.

Interclass champion, Beaman from Seymour 6-2; 6-2.

Class championship (doubles), Freshmen from Seniors 6-2; 6-3.

The senior team was composed of Alice Mathews and Eliza Gurganus, while the freshman team consisted of Eloise Beaman and Helen Freeman.

The engagement of Pauline T. Pulsifer, '22, to Charles M. Bailey, '20, was announced Tuesday evening, at a delightful dinner party given at her home on Pleasant street. Entering the World Electrical

THE graduate of today enters a world electrical.

Gathered from the distant waterfalls or generated by the steam turbine, electric power is transmitted to the busiest city or the smallest country place.

Through the co-ordination of inventive genius with engineering and manufacturing resources, the General Electric Company has fostered and developed to a high state of perfection these and numerous other applications.

And so electricity, scarcely older than the graduate of today, appears in a practical, well developed service on every hand.

Recognize its power, study its applications to your life's work, and utilize it to the utmost for the benefit of all mankind.
