

GALA TIME AT D. K. E. BALL

Dekes Hold Elaborate Dance and Week-end House Party.

Deke colors, Deke banners, Deke pennants, Deke flyers and Deke pins were only a few of the representations of Xi chapter of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity exhibited at the house and Elks hall on Thursday and Friday when the 37th biennial house party and formal ball was carried out in a manner which made it one of the most successful social functions in the history of the Colby chapter. It is generally conceded among the 180 persons, present at the ball, that the occasion was one of the most elaborate held in college circles this year.

The festivities began Thursday afternoon when the fraternity house was opened to the many visitors. Tasty and original decorations, as a result of the active members' labors under the charge of Richard A. Harlow, '12, of Portland, combined with typical appearing college-boy rooms, brought forth many a sincere compliment.

Light in the music room poured forth in a soft glow from the azure, gules and other streamers dangling from the globes. An archway made in similar style, with the Deke colors likewise, and surmounted with two college seals was an added attraction. The stairways and parlor presented a refreshing effect with their well chosen decorations of evergreen. In every nook and corner some manner of a Deke symbol presented itself.

At 9:30 o'clock in the evening nearly one hundred couples formed in line at the Elks Hall for the reception. Red, blue and yellow streamers dangling from each window and mingled with the effect of scores of Deke pennants hanging from the lights, gave the atmosphere a decided touch of fraternal feeling. From the orchestra's balcony there hung an immense Deke pin throwing its gleams over the jovial gathering.

The grand march followed the earlier formalities of the evening with James A. Wilson, '24, and Miss Dorothy Mitchell leading to the strains of the Deke Lion March played by the Black and White orchestra of Bowdoin college.

As midnight approached a break was made in the program of 20 dances to allow the serving of refreshments. The ice cream which was served in brick form was colored in three squares with the Deke colors, blue, red and gold. Imprinted on each brick in bold red letters was the word Xi. The hour of two came much too soon for the happy gathering.

In the receiving line at the hall were Dr. and Mrs. J. William Black, Dean Nettie M. Runnals, Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Parmenter and Prof. Antonios P. Savides.

Tea Dance.

The following afternoon, Friday, the program continued with a tea dance at the fraternity house. Music was furnished by the Maine Coast orchestra which is composed entirely of Colby college students. Tea, sandwiches and cookies were served by Mrs. George F. Parmenter, Mrs. G. W. Bartlett, assisted by Mrs. Harry O'Neill. The chaperones were Dean Nettie M. Runnals, Miss Corinne B. Van Norman and Prof. Euclid Hollo.

An unique number in the afternoon's entertainment was an exhibition dance by Sybil Wolman of Waterville. The same proved highly pleasing to the many present as was signified by the generous round of applause.

At the conclusion of the tea dance the Dekes with their lady guests repaired to the Elmwood where dinner was served at six. The hour was much enlivened by the singing of Deke songs and frivolities in general.

Sleigh Ride.

At 8 o'clock three double-horse punts loaded with a happy and carefree crowd of Dekes and guests embarked on a real "old fashioned straw ride." The winter eve was an ideal one with cold crisp air and a full moon. After two hours or more of this sport the gathering returned to the Deke house where the two days' festivities were concluded with dancing until midnight.

The carnival at Augusta offered a source of diversion and sport for many of the couples the following day.

COLBY MAN SECRETARY OF THE AMERICAN YOUTH LEAGUE.

One of Colby's former students, Everett B. Price, of the class of 1921 was recently appointed secretary of the newly founded American Youth League. Mr. Price is of Worcester and Upton, Mass., and was, up to a short time ago, employed as assistant to the general manager and employment superintendent at the William Knowles Plant, Upton. He resigned to carry out some survey work in New York in connection with the new league, and his work was so successful that his appointment as national executive followed. Mr. Price was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity at Waterville, and in 1918, after enlisting, was stationed here as an officer in the training corps.

Y. W. CONDUCTS STUDY GROUPS

Many Vital Problems Are Topics of Discussions.

Much interest is being shown by the Colby women in the discussion groups which are being held under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., every Sunday beginning February 17, until the Easter vacation. These groups meet by classes on Sunday afternoon and very beneficial discussions arise concerning inter-racial relations. America's attitude to foreigners and to immigration, national and international problems. The question of what should be our attitude and relations toward the Negro, which was considered by some groups at the first meeting, aroused widespread interest among the girls and has since been a popular topic of conversation.

Each class group is conducted by a leader and an assistant. They have been appointed as follows: Senior, Mary E. Gordon and Carolyn L. Hodgdon; Junior, Viola F. Jodrey and Ethel A. Childs; Sophomore, Margaret L. Smith and Irma V. Davis; Freshmen, Barbara M. Whitney and Ardelle J. Chase.

These meetings are in charge of the Bible Study and World Fellowship committees combined, under the direction of Eva L. Alley, '25, and Leota E. Schoff, '25.

WOMEN PLAN WINTER CARNIVAL

A Winter Carnival is to be held this week by the members of the women's division under the auspices of the newly-formed Outing Club. Owing to the condition of the skating rink the skating contests will have to be omitted. There will be snowshoe races, skiing contests and obstacle races of various kinds. The carnival will end with a snow battle when the Seniors and Sophomores will try to rout the Juniors and Freshmen.

posed of Grenville E. Vale, '24, Ellisworth W. Millett, '25, and Donald E. Sprague, '26, are deserving of no small amount of credit for the excellent manner in which they carried out the extended program. With the assistance of the other active members of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, they made possible the biggest and best "Deke Ball" in the history of Xi chapter.

Among the guests were: The Misses Marguerite Chase, Augusta; Helen Smith, Skowhegan; Muriel E. Robinson, Boston; Lenora Hall, Bangor; Helene Hadman Hall, Waterville; Helen H. Pratt, Corning, N. Y.; Dorothy M. Berry, Houlton; Doris A. Dewar, Augusta; Mary Drisko, Columbia Falls; Ruth A. Allen, Portland; Marjorie Sterling, Augusta; Marjorie Woods, Waterville; Helen Mitchell, Houlton; Helen Stone, Lawrence; Peggy Smith, Waterville; Agnes MacDonald, Waterville; Gwendolyn R. Dodge, Norton, Mass.; Hazel P. Berry, Island Falls; Margery Pierce, Oakland; Muriel G. Hartsgrove, Kents Hill, showed good form in the shot put. Seiderman, Colby, '27, who placed third could put the shot for distance but fouled the first two trials which handicapped him.

The summary:

SEVERAL NEW STUDENTS.

Several students are in attendance now who were not present before mid-years. Among these are two who have come back this semester to finish their courses and graduate. They are John T. Howard and Bert L. Merrill of the Delta Upsilon fraternity. F. O. Dolloff of Oakland has returned to complete his Sophomore year. Ross H. Whittier and Wilfred C. Dunn of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity are here to make up the remainder of their Freshman year. Ernest J. Abbott and L. A. Kanter are also back to finish up their first year. The new men to enter this semester are Irving J. Harris and George E. Kaplan of Brooklyn, N. Y., and also Te Haa Tong of Shanghai, China, who entered just before mid-years.

A. K. FOSTER TO COME FEB. 29

Will Make Many Addresses and Conduct Open Forum

Allan K. Foster of Chicago, student secretary of the Northern Baptist Convention, is to be at Colby from February 29 to March 4. During his stay at the college Mr. Foster will address the students in classes as well as meetings of the Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A. He will lead all chapel services of both the men's and women's divisions. On Friday and Saturday Mr. Foster will visit various classes while in session and address them during the class hour.

On Sunday he will speak at the First Baptist church of this city. One of the main features of the coming of Mr. Foster will be an Open Forum in which all kinds of questions may be asked by any member of the student body or faculty. The date of this open forum will be announced later.

J. R. GOW VISITS COLBY.

John Russell Gow, '28, was a welcome guest at the Deke house during the recent party. While at Colby, "Daddy" as he was known to the boys, was famous not only for his number thirteen but for his ability to wield a tennis racket. He was state tennis champion, editor of the 1923 Oracle and is a member of a Phi Beta Kappa key. Mr. Gow has a position with Lockwood & Greene, a well known firm of contracting engineers of Boston. Recently he had the pleasure of making a trip to the South in connection with his business.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM FOR SHERWOOD EDDY.

Sherwood Eddy will arrive at Colby on March 14. During his stay here, he will address the students in three mass meetings, two of which will be held during eleven o'clock class hours on Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15. The third mass meeting will be held in the college chapel on Sunday, March 16, at 10.30 o'clock. On Sunday evening Mr. Eddy will address students and townspeople in the Opera House. Much is expected of Mr. Eddy in awakening the student body to consideration of higher ideals.

TO DEBATE U. OF M. AND N. H. STATE

Dual Debates Scheduled On World Court Question.

The Colby debating teams are preparing for their dual meets with the University of Maine and New Hampshire. The two debates which Colby has with each of these colleges take place on the same date. The debates with the University of Maine will be held on February 29, on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should enter the World Court under the plan as outlined by former President Harding."

The team debating the negative side of the proposition will go to Orono, while the affirmative team will defend its side of the question at Waterville. On the negative team are Russell M. Squire, '25, Kenneth E. Shaw, '25, and Donald A. Sprague, '26. On the affirmative team are Coburn H. Ayer, '25, Willard A. Seamans, '24, and Clarence Roddy, '26.

The debates with the New Hampshire University will take place early in March, on the same question as used in the debates with the University of Maine. The affirmative team, represented by Manley O. Chase, '24, Ivan M. Richardson, '24, and Robert M. Waugh, '25, will probably go to Durham to debate the question there, while the negative team, represented by Elmer E. Taylor, '25, Howard B. Tuggey, '25, and Clair E. Wood, '26, will uphold their side of the contest at Waterville.

DEAN RUNNALS IN CHICAGO.

Dean Nettie M. Runnals is in Chicago this week to attend a meeting of the National Association of Deans of Women. She goes as a member of the advisory board of the Baptist association.

NEW BOOK BY SHERWOOD EDDY

Mr. Sherwood Eddy, who will visit Colby in early March, has just published a new book entitled "The New World of Labor." Men all over the world, black men, brown men, yellow men, and white men—all are among the forces of protest against the present scheme of things. Insurgent hewers of wood and drawers of water are rising to assert themselves as human beings; they demand justice and fellowship. It is this movement that Mr. Eddy undertakes to sketch, and he does it in his usual graphic, incisive fashion.

The aim is frankly "to win sympathy for the toiling masses in the new world of labor." This new order exists the world over; it is capable of being spiritualized, but is capable also of destructive materialism. In China, Japan, India, as well as in Europe and America, new forces are rising to attack the present economic bases of society. The account of conditions in the Far East is, in some respects, the most illuminating; for here Mr. Eddy is traveling over almost untrodden paths.

Germany and the Ruhr, France, England, Russia, Italy, and America are dealt with in chapters full of condensed facts and succinct generalizations. The discussion is based upon personal observation made during 1922-23 on a world tour and upon data furnished the author by experts in the various countries.

It is a book that every thinking Colby man and woman should read.

HOCKEY TEAM LOSES TO BATES BUT TIES BOWDOIN AGAIN

Whirlwind Exhibition Game At Augusta Pleases Crowd. Soft Ice Makes Bowdoin Game A Farce.

Colby 1—Bowdoin 1.

The Colby and Bowdoin ice-birds battled to a one and one tie, at the Colby rink, on Monday afternoon of this week. Owing to the condition of the rink, which was very soft, the game was a real thriller to watch. Time after time the players fell and there was hardly a minute without some one taking a slide on the ice.

The first two periods were scoreless, both teams fighting hard but neither scoring. Colby kept the puck in Bowdoin's territory the greater part of the time giving Vale and McGowan repeated chances to score, only the badly cut up ice preventing. Millett also did a good bit of work, carrying the puck through Bowdoin's defense with ease.

In the final period after ten minutes of rough and tumble play Cutter made a long shot by Fagerstrom for Bowdoin's only tally. After this goal Colby staged a spectacular comeback and with one and one-half minutes to play Captain Vale carried the puck the length of the rink, and passed it to McGowan who made a pretty goal which tied the score.

Captain Vale wished to play off the tie but Capt. Miguel refused as the Bowdoin team had no more than time to catch the 6.28 train for Brunswick.

The summary:

Colby	Bowdoin
Muir, rw	rw, Cronin
Vale, c	c, Cutter
McGowan, lw	lw, Preble
Pike, ld	ld, Miguel
Millett, rd	rd, Widen
Fagerstrom, g	g, Berry

Substitutions, Bowdoin, Littlefield for Preble, Cale for Cronin, Cronin for Cale, Preble for Littlefield. Colby, McBay for Pike. Goals made by Cutter and McGowan.

Bates 3—Colby 1.

The Bates Hockey team won over the Colby sextet at the Augusta Carnival, Saturday afternoon, by the close margin of a three to one score. Both teams were determined to win this game, so it proved to be one of the cleverest exhibitions of the sport this season.

Bates' superior team work kept the puck in Colby's territory the greater part of the time during the first period, but due to the strong defensive work of the Blue and Gray, Bates didn't score until after twelve minutes of play, when R. Stanley caged the puck.

Colby staged a strong comeback in the second period with Vale and McGowan working together perfectly. After five minutes of clever passing Vale shot the puck by Wyllie tying the score. In the final period Bates again kept the puck in Colby's territory much of the time uncovering some classy passing for repeated shots at the Colby goal. Luck smiled on Cogan when he hooked the puck in from behind Colby's goal but just as the final whistle blew he made a pretty shot by Fagerstrom for the third tally.

The game was fast and fair, only two penalties being inflicted, one on Vale and the other on McBay.

CARNIVAL SEASON ENDS AT AUGUSTA

Colby Team Ties Maine While Bates Wins Cup.

The Bates ski and snowshoe teams won the Maine Intercollegiate meet at the Augusta Carnival on Saturday, February 23, with a total of twenty-three points. This win gives them the Governor Baxter cup which Maine has won for the past two years.

The ski relay, ski jumping, snowshoe dash and snowshoe cross country race were run off in the morning at Ganeston Park. Bates won the ski relay with Bowdoin second and Colby third. J. Barnes tied with Patton of Maine in the trials of the snowshoe dash, but in the finals, tripped in the soft snow of the outside lane and lost his chances of placing. Laughton furnished the big surprise of the meet when he won the three mile cross country snowshoe race over Patton of Maine who has never been beaten in this event before.

The ski jumping was full of thrills on account of the high wind and this perhaps accounts in part for the fact that the light Jordan brothers did not do better. A. Jordan took third place in this event however.

At two-thirty in the afternoon the five mile cross country ski race was started. The Bates men were well in the lead at the end of the first mile and this lead was never shortened. G. Barnes finished fourth with Spear of Bowdoin a close fifth. This race finished the intercollegiate competition giving Bates twenty-three points, Bowdoin eight, Colby and Maine tying with seven points each.

Much credit is due the Augusta Community Service for the promptness with which the different events were run off and the splendid entertainment and attention given the contestants from the Maine colleges.

Summary of events:

	Bs	Bn	C	M
880-yd Ski Relay	5	3	1	0
150-yd Snowshoe	0	5	0	4
Three mile Snowshoe	1	0	5	3
Five mile Ski race	9	0	0	0
Ski Jumping	8	0	1	6
Total	23	8	7	7

Maine College Ski Jumping—1. Matsunaga, (Bates) average on form and distance 89.4; best jump, 34 ft. 2. Baker (Bates) average 84.1; best jump 34 feet; 3. A. Jordan (Colby), average 83.8; best jump 34 feet; 4. Nelson (Bowdoin) average 81.5; best jump 34 feet; 5. C. Jordan (Colby) average 67.7; best jump 34 ft.; 6. Merrill (U. of M.) average 66; best jump 36 feet; 7. Sargent (U. of M.) average 48.6; best jump 31 feet.

Review of Season.

Summary of the points won in the three carnivals:

	Bs	M	C	Bn
U. of M.	21	12	5	7
Auburn	12	15	6	3
Augusta	23	8	7	7
Total	56	35	18	17

Colby points were scored as follows: Laughton won two points at Auburn placing third in the snowshoe cross country race and third in the snowshoe dash, he also won five points at Augusta, taking first in the snowshoe cross country race. This makes him the high individual point winner. A. Jordan is second with six points to his credit five won at the U. of M. with first place in the ski jump and one at Augusta with third place in the jump. J. Barnes has three points to his credit, won at Auburn with second place in the snowshoe dash. The ski relay team won the other two points placing third at Auburn and Augusta.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE URGES BETTER CHAPEL ATTENDANCE.

Last week the Executive Committee issued a notice to the students requesting a more pronounced chapel attendance. A copy of this was sent to each fraternity. The committee has made a special effort to provide an interesting program and speaker daily. As a result of these measures a much better attendance has been noted this week.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1924.

The Journalism Class issue seems to have met with approval. It was technically of a high quality. It was a bit amusing, however, to see the whole class bustling and worrying about the work that the regular staff grinds out week after week without any fuss. The news writers have rather a thankless job. Give them credit!

COLLEGE READING.

One of the theoretical advantages of a college education is that it gives a person time to do a great deal of worth while reading. The disillusioning fact, however, is that the great majority of us read scarcely a book that is not required by our courses. Our idea of reading for pleasure is to fritter away a couple of hours with magazine stories. They kill time pleasantly enough, but cloy one's taste for the greater satisfaction to be found in books that leave ideas in the mind which may influence one's whole life.

A good book is not necessarily dry. In fact, there are few really worth while books that are not extremely absorbing. There is no need of making a burden out of constructive reading when there are so many delightful works which do more than pass the time.

Are there any special books that are particularly suited for college reading? That is an interesting question. We should like to hear from our readers what they consider to be the five best books for college reading. It certainly is a pertinent question and the diversity of individual tastes ought to be interesting. Let us hear what your choices are.

Just to start the ball rolling, we submit the following five books as being well worth reading by Colby students:

STOVER AT YALE by Owen Johnson; because it is a rattling good yarn of football and college life, and because it opens up fundamental questions about the democracy or snobbishness of the fraternity system.

HOW TO USE YOUR MIND by Dr. H. D. Kitson; because it is full of valuable hints about the technique of study. It will add materially to one's efficiency, and result in higher rank and greater satisfaction.

THE FIVE GREAT PHILOSOPHIES OF LIFE by W. D. Hyde; because it introduces you to the greatest minds of the ages and offers for your approval what is, up to date, the most successful guide of life.

THE AMERICANIZATION OF EDWARD BOK by Edward Bok; because it shows how unessential a college education is to success, because it presents a certain aspect of American idealism, and because it is a surprisingly readable book.

EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY by Paul; because it was written to a youth of college age by a grizzled-headed old warrior, and contains a wealth of sound advice based on the melodramatic experiences of his life, written in a compact, trenchant, journalistic style.

You don't agree with our choice? Very well, what would you choose? We shall watch the mails with interest.

IN FULL SWING.

The hockey and snow teams have just finished their seasons. Interfraternity basketball is drawing to a close. Winter track is in swing. Baseball candidates will shortly begin practice. The musical clubs are rehearsing for their spring trip. The "Y" is conducting its customary round of activities. Debaters are boning over their briefs. The Oracle board is hard at work assembling material. The White Mulers are combing the college for humor. The ECHO staff scribbles off eight or nine thousand words every week. The movies are crowded. The dances are popular. Colby college may be said to be functioning normally.

And, O yes, there may be someone who is studying too.

"JIM" PERRY—A COLBY MARTYR.

Perhaps some students have noticed in the library a volume entitled "Constantinople To-Day." Perhaps they even read the dedication in the book to:

James Perry
A lover of truth
Killed in Asia Minor Between Aintab and Aleppo by bandits
While on an errand of mercy
February 1, 1920.

But probably few realize that James Perry was one of those men who have carried out to the highest degree Colby's ideals of sacrifice.

The best account of James Perry's service is found in an appreciation written after his death by Arthur F. Newell, Y. M. C. A. Secretary for Western Europe. It is in part as follows:

Jim graduated from Colby College in 1911, and received a second degree from Hartford Theological Seminary in 1915. He had become interested in Turkey, and Mrs. Perry and he agreed to settle down in Stamboul, the old Turkish and Byzantine section of Constantinople, there to establish a modern Y. M. C. A. Then came the great war and made the trip impossible.

But there was no holding them. Soon they went to Switzerland to study French, the only common language in polyglot Constantinople. When the war showed no signs of abating, they pressed for active service. First Perry served prisoners of war. Then he organized the first hut for American soldiers in Bordeaux. Later still his magnificent experience and expert knowledge of French people and their language caused him to be selected as one of the directors of the great work of the Association in the French army.

The signing of the armistice fanned into a white heat the old desire to get on to Constantinople. Negotiations were soon completed and he sailed for his destination early in 1919. There he began the process of adapting both the war and peace time services of the Y. M. C. A. to the destitute Armenians and Greeks of Constantinople and Asia Minor. He gathered around him a small group of associates in whom he inspired a splendid spirit of self-sacrifice. In less than a year a work of astounding breadth was developed in Constantinople, Smyrna, Adana and Aleppo. A most unique service was the organization of Camp Wilson, where 540 ragged, starving, and depraved Armenian orphans were brought back to radiant life.

Mr. Perry had been asked by the native leaders and the missionaries to extend the work of the Young Men's Christian Association to a dozen or fifteen centers. It was on this mission that he lost his life. On January 16, 1920, he started on a tour to the interior. He visited Konia where his brother George (Colby, '14) was beginning an excellent work. He reached Aleppo safely. From there he started with his associate, Frank Johnson, to go to Aintab, perhaps the most important mission station and Armenian center in Asia Minor. They never reached their destination. Early in the morning of February 1, they and their convoy of Near East Relief supplies were attacked by a large force of brigands

MEMORIAL TABLET
at Hartford Seminary

and both Perry and Johnson, as well as two Syrian Christians who were with them in their automobile, were killed.

All of them had looked upon James Perry as one of the coming leaders in the regeneration of the Near East. We cannot help mourning his death and feeling deeply his loss. We are secure in the faith that his glorious life will be used of God to raise up many others to complete the tasks which James Perry had so wonderfully begun.

Books

BY Colby Authors
RHYMES OF A HOMESTEADER.

By Elliott C. Lincoln, '06.

The average man will read these poems of Mr. Lincoln with appreciation and enjoyment. That is not to say that they are not good poetry. It simply means that they are intensely human, touched with humor, and smuck of the open. The author has avoided the morbid, sordid, cynical stuff that passes for realism with so many of our younger writers of verse, and has given us vivid pen pictures of human nature and the outdoor world as a normal, healthy man sees them. Many of the forty-four poems in the book were first published in such magazines as Overland, Sunset, and Adventure. There are a wide range of subjects and a variety of verse forms in the volume, as well as a real poetic feeling and a keen sense of color and rhythm.

The first poem in the book is called "The Sunflower Road" and has a swinging melody which fits the theme, as the opening stanza will show:

"There's a land of opal mountains, singing crooks, and springing fountains.

A land of magic distances in haze, lazy light.

Where the pastel greens, and yellows, amber browns, and purple
shadows,

Make a glory of the daytime, and it's dusty blue at night."

Very different is the serene calm of "Montana Night":

"Montana night. The velvet of the sky
Is powdered thick with silver dust.
Below

A realm of half-lights, where black shadows flow

To Stygian lakes, that spread and multiply.

Far to the east the Moosassins rise high

In jagged silhouette. Now, faint and low,

A night bird sounds his call. Soft breezes blow,

Cool with the dampness of a stream hard by.

Dim, ghostly shapes of cattle grazing

INTER-COLLEGIATE ITEMS.

Harvard and Yale have decided to send their tennis teams to England soon after the close of the college year. The teams expect to meet both the Oxford and Cambridge teams of that country.

The sociology department of the University of Kansas sent out "Qualifications of an Acceptable Husband." Twenty-two checked as a first requisite pecuniary qualifications. Needless to say that heretofore "forward" young men, Mr. David Cupid, brought up the rear.

ONE SEMESTER RULE ADOPTED

Athletic Council Bar Freshmen From Varsity Sports One Semester. To have Freshman Coach.

By a unanimous vote of the faculty last Thursday Colby adopted the one semester athletic rule. The passage of this ruling has been a moot question in college for some time. At a meeting of the Maine college presidents during the Christmas vacation it was the expression of this body that the one semester rule would be beneficial to the colleges of Maine. The U. of M. had already accepted this rule but the other three colleges have been slower to come to a decision upon the matter.

Proponents of the scheme declare that the one semester rule can only result in the raising of the standards at colleges. With two separate organized teams, varsity and freshmen, more first year men will be encouraged to compete in athletics.

Plans are being made by the Executive Committee of the faculty to obtain a special coach who will have charge of the freshman squad exclusively. Freshmen will then be prohibited from participating in any varsity sport until they have successfully completed the first semester of their college course.

The new freshman team will have a complete schedule which will include some of the best prep schools in New England, but will not compete in any contest with the freshman teams of the other colleges in this state.

The student body is highly in favor of this plan as was expressed by the vote of the athletic council which brought the matter to the attention of the faculty.

The first game of the seventh round of the interfraternity basketball league, Tuesday afternoon was played between the Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta teams.

The game was too one-sided to produce any great amount of interest except in the second half when it looked for a few minutes as if the Deltas would stage a comeback, but due to the superior playing of the Phi Delta quintet and the spectacular shooting of Holcomb, Haines and Shoemaker, they were victorious, with a final score of 41 to 16.

The summary:
Phi Delta (41) (16) Deltas
Holcomb, lf .....rf, Macomber

The games last Wednesday, Delta Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega teams resulted in a victory for the A. T. O. aggregation. The game was featured by the stellar playing of D. Nickerson and Schmiedel, Nickerson having eighteen points to his credit, while Schmiedel succeeded in caging fourteen.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS ARE VERY BRIGHT

Wealth of Material Available For Colby Diamond Squad

With Winter showing signs of leaving, baseball is beginning to creep in as a topic of college interest. The Colby team which was in the fore in 1923, looks forward to sole possession of the championship bunting this spring. The team of last year is here for this season practically intact. Two positions only present serious problems, the pitching box and third base. Johnny Lanpher, last year's captain will be greatly missed, but Shanahan demonstrated last year that he can ably take care of the catching.

It is in the pitching department that most difficulty will be found. Odion and Callaghan, the mainstays of the 1923 season have graduated, leaving of former varsity pitchers Howard, Porter and Muir. Of these, Johnny Howard, when going good is invincible. In past years the side-arm slasher has been bothered with a bad arm. But it is reported that this year the trouble has been overcome and Howard should be able to pilot the Colby ship into the port of Victory many times.

Frankie Porter, the former Everett high school star, was for two years Colby's most dependable slasher, but last year seemed to be lacking in effectiveness. If Porter has his stuff with him this season it will make the going a lot easier.

Harry Muir is the only southpaw left over from last year. The former Oak Grove boy has a load of stuff and this season, with one year of college experience and coaching tucked under his belt, he should be able to stand them all on their heads.

Eckholm, Pratt, and Burke of last year's second team are expected to come through with their share as is Weymouth who rested last year while teaching school. The freshman prospects are unknown quantities. Mason, Schmiedel, Mathers, and Saucier are all well known for their work in preparatory school.

The third base position is an enigma. Daddy Royal, the 1923 home run king of the state, graduated last June and his shoes will be hard to fill. A number of freshmen are reported to have their eyes on the place and a hot battle is expected for the position.

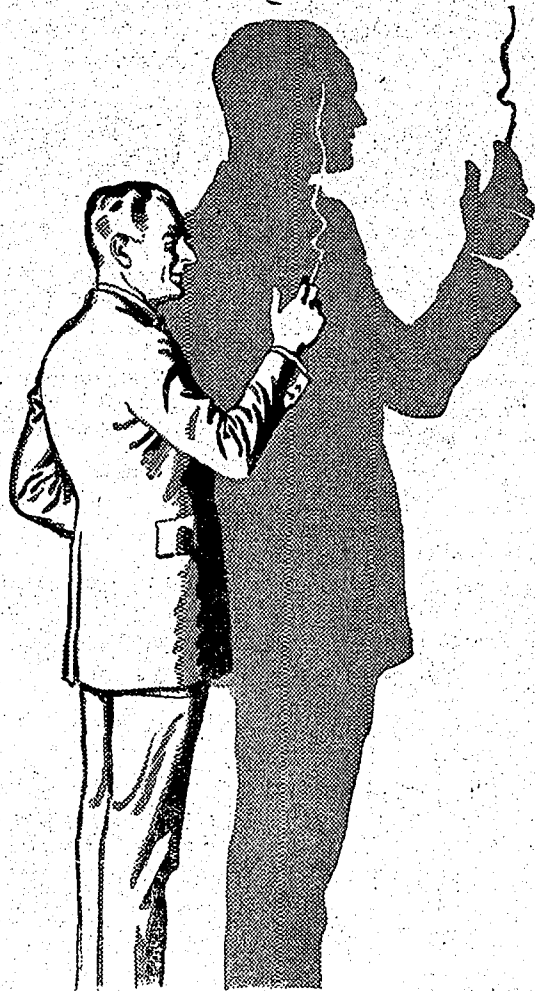

Shortstop will be taken care of by Captain Bobby Fransen, who under the tutelage of Coach Parent has developed into the premier infielder of the state. Fransen has a very capable understudy in Anderson.

Peabody, the Aroostook flash who was ineligible last year, is expected to settle down at second base for the season. Nothing can go by him either in the field or at the plate, and when he comes to bat the opposing outfielders move back to the fences. Jack McGowan, who came to Colby from Cambridge Latin by the way of Westbrook Seminary, will this year, as he did last year, show how first base is and should be played. Jack is another man at whose appearance the outfielders retreat and his batting average looks like the enumeration of New York's society elite.

Converting in the outfield will be Tug Wilson, Brad Outler, Swede Fagerstrom and Cass Haines, with Artie Snow crowding them to their best efforts. Wilson is faster than he looks and is the terror of opposing pitchers. Outler is the fastest and surest fielder in Maine and can always be depended on to come through with a hit when it will do the most good. Fagerstrom is a steady man both at bat and in the field. Haines was ineligible last year but is expected to show his wares this spring. He has been called the most natural ball player in the New England colleges.

The list of candidates this year will be long and Colby is to be represented by a well organized second team. Coach Parent has done wonders at Colby since he came here two years ago, and with a veteran machine he should swing Colby into line to bring home the championship of the state.

The way to get the finest shave

The Hinge-Cap is a sure way of identifying Williams Shaving Cream. And Williams, besides giving you the convenient Hinge-Cap, will improve your shave in three ways:

First, the lather is heavier and holds the moisture in against the beard. Quicker and more thorough softening of the beard results. Second, the razor glides more easily through the Williams-softened beard because Williams lather lubricates the skin. Lastly, an ingredient in Williams keeps the skin in good condition no matter how heavy your beard nor how frequently you shave. In addition, you'll enjoy Williams because it is a pure, natural white cream without coloring matter of any kind. Ask for it.

The Best Business Career

IS what every ambitious senior is thinking about at the present time. Life insurance is one of the best, one of the most desirable, and one of the most satisfactory as a permanent calling.

In assets and volume of business, life insurance is one of the three leading businesses of this country, yet the field is comparatively underdeveloped. Only 7 per cent of the economic value of human life in the United States is covered by insurance. This gives an idea of the big field still to be worked, especially business insurance for firms and corporations.

As to remuneration: Reports of college graduates who have entered business indicate that life insurance is at the very top as a source of income. Now is the time for you to consider what you are going to do after graduation. If you are ambitious and willing to work hard and are interested to know about life insurance, address Philadelphia, will interest the friends of Raymond I. Haskell, Colby, 1914.

"Penn Charter has always been proud of her teaching staff, made up as it is of men of experience, scholarship and character. When any one of these men advances his standing in the field of recognized scholarship it is an occasion for special congratulation." Raymond I. Haskell has been awarded his doctor's degree by the University of Pennsylvania in Educational Administration and French.

Mr. Haskell is a native of Bethlehem, N. H., and graduated from Colby College in 1914 with the degree of Bachelor of Science. From his Alma Mater he received his degree of Master of Arts in 1917 and again from Pennsylvania in 1921, pro merito, in Education and French.

"The Penn Charter school and Staff, thru the magazine, congratulates Dr. Haskell on this signal honor in scholarship which has come to him most deservedly."

VACATION COURSES IN HISTORY FOR ADVANCED STUDENTS AT OXFORD.

The University of Oxford will offer this year Vacation Courses for advanced students in history. The purpose of these courses is to offer to college and university teachers and advanced students in the United States who would normally find it impossible to go to Oxford during the academic year an opportunity to make the acquaintance of English scholars in their subject, to become familiar with English methods of work, and to receive individual help in their own research problems.

The courses for 1924 will be in Mediaeval History, including Economic and Ecclesiastical History and Mediaeval and Political Theory. In other years it is planned to have the courses deal with other subjects, such as English Literature, Classics, Philosophy, and so on.
