

COUNCIL ACTS ON ELECTIONS

New Rules for Class Elections Are Adopted.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Student Council Monday evening a very important step was taken providing for all class elections in the future. It has long been recognized that there has been a need for authoritative and standard provisions concerning the election of class officers. The step of the Council was taken only after very careful consideration of the whole problem. The new rules will go into effect immediately. It was resolved as follows:

1. That election of all class officers shall be held the week previous to final examinations in the spring term, the officers elected at that time to take office at the opening of college the following September.
2. That a quorum at all class elections shall be 75% of the total membership of the class as registered in the catalog. All elections held in violation of this rule shall be null and void.
3. That notice of class meetings shall be posted on the bulletin boards in Chemical Hall and in front of the Zeta Psi House at least seventy-two hours before the meeting and shall be announced in chapel on the day of the meeting.

The coach sets no definite time when the first cut will be made in the squad except that it will not take place until after vacation when the team is out doors and the men have a better chance to show what they can really do.

PHI BETA KAPPA HOLDS BANQUET

Eleven New Members Are Initiated. Enjoyable Affair at The Elmwood.

The initiation banquet of the Colby chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa society was held at the Elmwood hotel last Friday evening, following the initiation ceremonies in the college chapel.

The exercises at the chapel were brief. They consisted of the formal election of new members who were presented to the society by the secretary, Prof. Carl J. Weber, and the awarding of the gold keys to new members by the president, Dean Nettie M. Runnals. The initiates from the class of 1925 were Robert C. Brown, Ralph M. Larrabee, Malcolm E. Bennett, Edward H. Merrill, Alfred K. Chapman, Elsie I. Bishop, Doris W. Hardy, Eva L. Alley, Nellie E. Pottle, Grace F. McDonald, Marjorie A. Everingham.

The program at the Elmwood was divided into two parts, "Order of Attack," which was the banquet, and "Order of Retreat," which was the speeches following. Prof. Ernest C. Marriner, '13, acted as toastmaster. The first speaker was Dean Runnals who welcomed the new members. Rev. Mr. Alexander Henderson brought greetings from the Bowdoin chapter and Prof. George M. Chase from the Bates chapter.

Prof. Florence E. Dunn gave an extremely witty and entertaining speech entitled "Sibyls and Sages." Miss Dunn closed with the following poem:

A guide to life! My lips would burn
Right I call Sappho from her urn,
Or bid Aspasia's spirit speak
In accents of mellifluous Greek.
Rapt singer, lady of renown—
No key they wore; theirs was the crown

Of poet and of civic pride—
Passionate beauty and the tide
Of great affairs. They had their part
In making Greece a magic mart
For poets and for statesmen—all
Who prize high truth, hear beauty call.

Hence in this newer world of days,
Where workers still must toil for praise,
Must make a shrine for art and song,
And drive the laggard world along
To purer laws and nobler ends,
Have we not warranty, my friends,
In these, our famous sister Greeks,
For things the modern woman seeks,
For keeping a bold heart, a fire
To light the path of high desire?

Edward H. Merrill spoke for the undergraduates of the men's division and Nellie E. Pottle for the women's division. Both gave an able explanation of the viewpoint of the undergraduate toward scholarship.

The meeting closed with an address by Prof. Weber, entitled "Stand and Unfold Yourself" in which he urged the part the scholar should play in present day affairs. He compared the scholar of today with a sleeping sentinel, and urged the importance of scholars playing a more active and leading part in the important affairs of the time.

WHITE MULE TO BE ISSUED TOMORROW

The Colby White Mule, down but not out, will make its second bid for fame during the college year on Thursday, March 12. This edition is without doubt the best that has ever been produced. Every member on the board of editors is in the position to which he is best adapted and the editors have worked conscientiously to issue a comic magazine of which every Colby student may be proud.

Many new and interesting features have been added to the magazine and many undesirable features have been eradicated.

This issue is jestingly called the "Ivory Soap" number, 99 1/4-100% pure. However, the pureness has in no way detracted from the excellence of the magazine and the White Mule will be in a unique position being the cleanest publication of its kind in any of the colleges.

It is hoped that the "Mule" will surpass all previous records in subscriptions among the students for the policy of the magazine from now on is "the Colby White Mule, edited by Colby students, for Colby supporters."

BRUSH CALLED TO NEW HAVEN

Graduate of '20 Formerly
Pastor in Portland.

A Colby man who is doing things in the world is Rev. John W. Brush. Since his graduation in 1920 he attended the Newton Theological seminary and was very active in religious work in Portland, after completing his course there. At Portland, he was pastor of Glenwood chapel and also of the Stroudwater Baptist church.

Mr. Brush has been offered a position as pastor of the First Baptist church at New Haven, Conn., which, according to latest announcements, he will accept, leaving behind a general expression of regret in Portland religious circles where his ability and promise had easily been recognized and appreciated.

While at Colby Mr. Brush was very popular, being the only man to win the Condon medal, an emblem awarded by the senior class to the student who exceeds his classmates both in scholastic ability and good fellowship. His debating ability was a prominent feature during his career at Colby and he took part in a great many intercollegiate contests. He was never too busy to give his earnest efforts to religious work and met all the difficulties of life in a wholehearted, care-free manner. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa society and of the Colby chapter of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

YEARLY BANQUET OF CHI OMEGA

Best Banquet of Many Years
Held on March 7.

The annual banquet of Beta Chapter of Chi Omega was held at the Elmwood hotel on Saturday evening, March 7. Preceding this, in the afternoon a tea was held at the Fraternity rooms. The affair was in charge of Miss Marian Morriam, and the Misses Phyllis Bowman and Doris Tozier were hostesses.

The banquet, in the evening, was one of the best in many years. Miss Hazel G. Dyer, '22, of Portland was toastmistress and Dorothy Hannaford, choragus. After a very attractive menu, toasts were given by the following: Grace Morrison, '28; Elizabeth Kingsley, '25; Leonora Hall, '27; Edith Groason, '26; Elsie Bishop, '25; Mira Dolley, '10; Nella Morrill, Esther Thompson, Edith O'Connor, and Leone Dakin. Several impromptu speeches were given by guests and alumnae.

The favors given to each guest were boxes of Chi Omega stationery. The initiates wore the Misses Coppelia Adair, Brownville; Junction; Mildred Fox, Skowhegan; Olive M. Richardson, Waterville; Claire J. Richardson, Waterville; Irma G. Sawyer, Canton; Emma F. Tozier, Fairfield; Mildred V. Alley, Waterville; Harriet D. "Y" DEPUTATION IN PORTLAND

Colby Team Conducts Services at Central Square Baptist Church.

At the Central Square Baptist church in Portland, last Sunday, all the services were in charge of a Colby deputation team sent out by the Y. M. C. A.

Raymond Grant, '25, was in charge of the morning service. At the Sunday school exercises C. Barnard Chapman, '25, gave an address. He also led the singing at all services.

The whole team took part in the Christian Endeavor meeting at 6.30 and at the evening service following this, Professor H. L. Newman was the speaker.

Excellent attendance was in evidence at all meetings and the members of the church were highly delighted with the work of the Colby men.

The deputation department of the Y. M. C. A. is very active at this time. This is the third successive week that teams have been sent out. Two weeks ago a team of six visited Dover-Foxcroft over the week-end, while last week there was a team in charge at Oakland. Many other teams have been sent out during the year.

YOUNG ADDRESSES STUDENT FELLOWSHIP

Religious Education Leader
Tells of Opportunities in Work.

Dr. Thomas Young, leader of Work-Day Religious Education for the Baptist Convention and Daily Vacation Bible School, was the speaker at the Christian Fellowship meeting in the chapel Monday evening.

Dr. Young gave a very interesting talk on the religious education of the younger generation and the opportunities for college people for service in this line. He began by showing that one should receive religious education in his early youth, for that is the time when he forms the most of his habits and makes decisions that will affect his whole life. Then, too, he will be of more service to humanity if properly trained when a youth. The future of the world depends on the way our boys are brought up, for "as goes America, so goes the world—as goes the child, so goes the nation."

The speaker ended by enumerating the positions as directors of religious education waiting to be filled by properly trained young men and women who are eager to serve mankind and the nation.

BRENNAN IS PROMOTED.

Alfred T. Brennan was appointed to an assistant editorship of the Echo at a meeting of the board held in the Old Library, Monday afternoon. Brennan fills the vacancy made by B. Morton Hovey who has left college for the time being.

Brennan is a member of the freshman class but he has done excellent work on the staff all this year. Many of his athletic stories have enjoyed of real professionalism. This is not surprising, however, for he has had considerable experience in news writing. Before coming to Colby he served as a reporter on one of the Brockton, Mass., papers. Brennan assumes his new duties with this issue of the Echo.

Oxford; Margery B. Flord, Oakland; Alice J. Wood, Winthrop.

The following out-of-town guests were present: The Misses Rosalind Jewett, Dalphing; Fish, Hazel Dyer, Grace Johnson, Mira Dolley, Marguerite Starbuck, Edna Briggs, Mrs. Sadie Reed, Mrs. Nan Lunadon, Mrs. Phyllis Switzer and the Misses Dow, O'Connor, Dakin and Thompson from the University of Maine.

TWO-MAN TRACK TEAM GATHERS EIGHT POINTS IN NATIONALS

Wentworth First Colby Man Ever to Win
National Intercollegiate Championship.—
Mittelsdorf Captures Third Place in 70-
Yard Dash.

Colby college's two man track team made a name for itself at the National Intercollegiate A. A. A. A. Championships which were held in New York, Saturday night, and when the meet was over the blue and gray track athletes had amassed eight points. This was quite an accomplishment considering the fact that such large colleges and universities as Harvard, Yale, Georgetown, Dartmouth, Cornell and the like were represented.

Wentworth, the best weight man in the state, won his event which was the 35 pound weight throw. The best fair throw made by Wentworth lacked 3 1/2 inches of the existing record. His nearest opponents were Taylor of Pennsylvania and Bowen of Cornell. Bowen recently won this event at the Harvard, Cornell and Dartmouth triangular meet, held at Boston, but the best he could do at New York was third place. Taylor won second place and his throw was over a foot behind the mark of the blue and gray weight man.

Wentworth performed like a real champion and deserves much credit for his work. It was just a week ago that he won the New England championship in this event and, by winning Saturday, he is now the National intercollegiate champion.

This is the first time in the athletic history of Colby college that a wearer of the blue and gray has been a national title holder and Wentworth is the second man to bring honor to the state in the weight events within two years, the other being Fred Tootell of Bowdoin. Wentworth is following Tootell's footsteps and it would not be surprising to see him surpass the records of the former Bowdoin giant. He will throw the hammer and put the shot in the state meet this spring and he should give a good account of himself.

Mittelsdorf, the other performer who went to New York, also did good work and won third place in the 70 yard dash. The blue and gray speed king won his heat with ease, but in the final heat of the event he was beaten to the tape by Miller of Harvard and Hill of Pennsylvania. Hill won second place by a nose and there was some dispute as to who had really won this position. It was finally awarded to the Pennsylvania man. Mittelsdorf has done very good work this year at the various meets in which he participated and will undoubtedly give a good account of himself at the state meet held in Waterville this spring.

The final standing of the colleges in the meet was: Georgetown, 27; Harvard 21, University of Pennsylvania 20, Princeton 13, Cornell 10, Boston College 9, Colby 8, Penn State 7, Columbia 7, Yale 5, Holy Cross 5, Dartmouth 3.

LAMBDA CHIS AND A. T. O.'S WIN

Are Victorious Over Dekes and Non-Frats.

LEAGUE STANDING.

Last week saw the Phi Delta basketball team strengthen its already firm hold on the top rung of the interfraternity basketball league by trimming the Alphas decisively on Saturday night.

The A. T. O. team, runner-up in the league race, copied two victories last week, which boosted their percentage to .889.

The other teams shifted around somewhat although no decisive spurts were accomplished.

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Phi Deltas	6	0	1.000
A. T. O.	5	1	.833
D. U.	4	2	.666
L. C. A.	3	4	.428
Non-Frats	3	4	.428
Dekes	2	3	.400
Lancers	1	3	.250
Zetas	1	4	.200
Alphas	1	6	.166

Two good games were the portion of the interfraternity league fans who gathered in the Colby gym Tuesday afternoon.

The Lambda Chi Alphas took over the Dekes' 26 to 17 in a sizzling contest in which the winners upset the proverbial dope bucket.

In the second tilt of the afternoon the fast Alpha Tau Omega five walked away with the Non-Frat quintette with a 62 to 7 count.

The opening struggle was well worth watching. The Lambda Chi's unleashed some hitherto dormant prowess, which, together with some accurate shooting proved the undoing of the Dekes' aggregation.

Hannifan, Wiley and Wortman were the three that featured in the Lambda Chi conquest. Their classy floorwork and deadly shooting paved the way for their team's victory.

The Dekes proved the main spring of the attack. Ave. Cooke was every-

A SOLUTION FOR COLBY'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROBLEM.

When a line of action becomes tedious and arouses a sense of boredom in the individual, a problem is presented which calls for immediate solution. From all indications such is the predicament in which the Physical Training Department of Colby finds itself. A thorough investigation into prevailing conditions would do much to offer a remedy.

Class maneuvers and calisthenics carried on in a building the age of which years ago had passed the quarter-century mark; a building erected in the days when gymnastics were mostly theory and football was an experiment; a building remodeled in an attempt to bring the old on a par with a new order of things, cannot be conducive to the best efforts of those required to attend classes within its walls. Interest is bound to lag and enthusiasm be dulled by surroundings which whisper of years gone by, though they valiantly struggle to hold their own in a new age of efficiency, sanitation and proper equipment.

All that is possible to be done has been done. Though conditions are better than in recent years, rejuvenation has not been and cannot be accomplished. A new gymnasium is needed. There is the solution. With a new atmosphere of efficiency, with room for proper class organization, locker and shower accommodation, physical education would rapidly rise in the interest and esteem of the student body, no longer a bugbear—a requirement to be worked off or eluded, but a course of vital benefit to all attending.

HONORARY SOCIETIES AT COLBY.

The honorary societies here at Colby are gradually breaking away from the old ornamental type of club and getting into action.

The Druids were the first to start the fireworks by offering a loving cup for interfraternity competition. Again this year, a cup for scholarship will be awarded the fraternity group receiving highest standing.

The Mystics, sophomore society, are now going a long way in the betterment of Colby, with the promotion of a plan which provides for all visiting teams during their stay in Waterville.

The Epicureans have not yet decided what they will do, but expect to announce something definite before long.

The Upsilon Beta members are taken into the society so late that no action can be taken.

This shows the spirit here in Colby is ever increasing and all are trying to make Colby the best college possible.

AN ADDITION TO THE CURRICULUM.

The fact that Colby may have in the future course in gentlemanliness added to its curriculum is certainly a feature to be considered. From the material standpoint it would give to many students something they lack at present—good manners. No man or woman should go forth into the world from college without good manners. Spiritually the course would be an asset, for it is by acting a thing continually that one believes it in his heart. Gentlemanliness must generate beyond the shell of a man or woman.

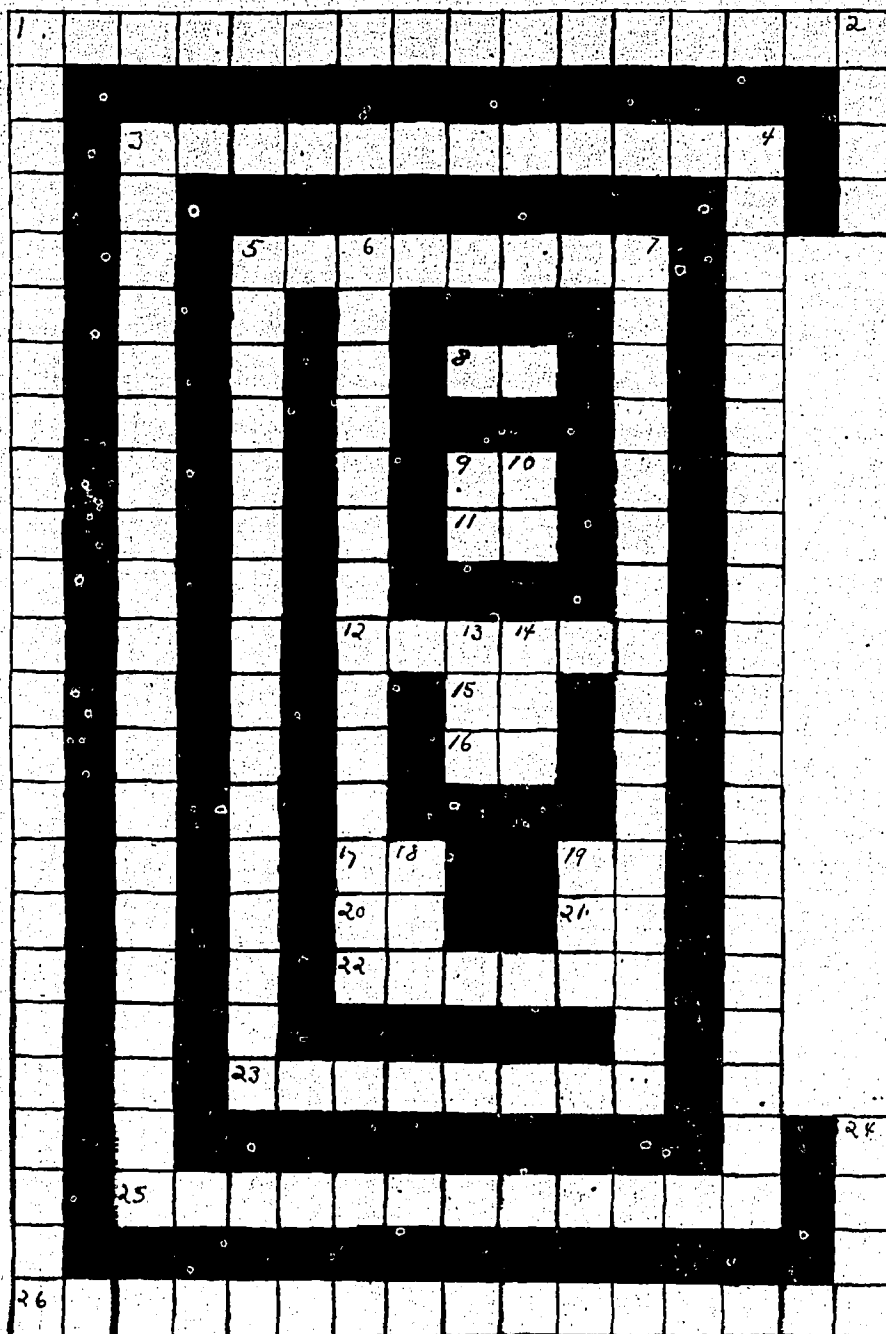

There is no doubt in anyone's mind that a course, materially and spiritually good, would be also morally good. This addition to the curriculum made compulsory would create a spirit yet unknown at Colby.

COLBY TRADITION.

We should be proud of our college, proud of its century-old life of service. From the past echoes the fame of sons of Colby; names are ours, to which any college would point with pride. We do not, as a group, know the traditions of our college. Everyone knows that Longfellow was a Bowdoin man; Longfellow and Bowdoin are very nearly synonyms, in the grammar schools of our state, at least. We may have no poet with the world-wide fame of Longfellow, but we have authors, statesmen, leaders of whom we in the college know nothing. Today, prominent in the public eye, we have a dozen men. They are not mediocre, they are at the top. Let us discover who these men are and talk about them, claim them for our own.

ALPHA BANQUET FOR EIGHTEEN

Initiation Feast Held on February 27 at Elmwood.

The annual initiation banquet of the Epsilon chapter of the Alpha fraternity was held at the Elmwood, Friday, February 27. Forty-three guests, alumni and active members were present.

Coburn H. Ayer, '25, acted as toastmaster, and kept things going in a lively and humorous vein.

Merton E. Lavery, '23, speaking for the alumni, brought a good message, saying that the vital factor in choosing "what to do" in life was happiness. Professor Ashcraft told of the faculty view-point of the selective values of the college activities. The welcome to the initiates was given by Charles H. Eaton, '27. The response was made by Lawrence A. Feakes, '28. Claude L. Schnefder, '25, spoke concerning Alpha and its future, giving many helpful suggestions. Then Edward H. Merrill, '25, representing the senior delegation pledged their support to these new undergraduates for the next year.

Music was furnished by the Alpha orchestra consisting of Bragdon, Sprague, Eaton, Rice and Cassens. Choate Colburn sang two fine solos which were heartily received.

The initiates were: Clarence L. Roddy, '25; J. Bernard Sprague, '28, and T. Francis Monaghan of 1927; Willie E. Herbert; Roger E. Lewis; and Franklin P. Adams, Nelson W. Bailey; Glendon E. AID ASKED FOR EUROPEAN STUDENTS.

The European Student Relief organization is a band of American students who have so united as to aid these fellows in Europe who are struggling against the poverty and deplorable conditions left by the war. These men and women, if uneducated, will be compelled to live lives of obscurity and unimportance while on the other hand if they can continue their studies of social economics and moral conditions they will be able to tone up their nations in a way that will in a few years easily exceed the effectiveness of any arbitrary or political toning up.

Colby has been asked to give her share in financial assistance to the needy and poverty stricken European students. These foreign students have sent a plea to this side of the Atlantic for aid, hoping that American students will be generous enough to come to their assistance in their hour of extreme need. The money is used chiefly for food, clothes, intellectual relief, medical relief and relief for University professors. Last year relief was given in Russia, Germany, Poland, Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia and Greece. A sum of $185,000 was solicited and obtained. This year's budget calls for $175,000. The subscription of Colby's allotment has been placed in charge of the Y. M. C. A.

ALPHA TAUS AND PHI DELTS DECISIVE WINNERS IN GAMES

A. T. O.'s Defeat Zetes 38-2.—Phi Delt Is 51-5 Winners Over Alphas.

The interfraternity basketball league produced two rather top-heavy contests last Saturday evening when the A. T. O.'s swamped the Zetes 38 to 2, and the Phi Delt walked away with the Alphas, winning 51 to 5. A small crowd witnessed the two games, and although the onlookers were deprived of any hair-raising finishes, they were privileged to see some sensational shooting.

In a game featured by the impregnable defense of the winners, the Alpha Tau Omega quintette annexed a lopsided win from the Zeta Psi five. The Zetes were away off form and the shattered offense which they offered was no mystery to the A. T. O. aggregation.

It looked like a complete white-washing for the losers as their lonely basket was obtained in the last few minutes of play. Abbott was the only Zeta who could find the hoop. He intercepted a McLean pass and sunk the goal quick as a flash.

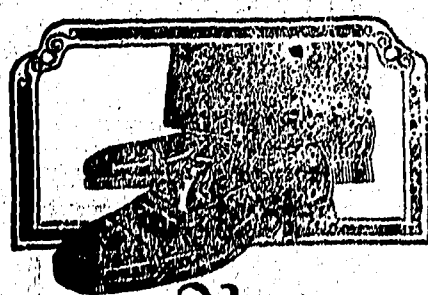

The winner's offense also lacked co-ordination but despite this fact they succeeded in piling up a 38 to 2 victory. Nickerson, O'Donnell, and Callaghan were the high lights in the winning attack.

The summary:
A. T. O. 38—ZETA PSI 2.

P. D. T. 51—ALPHA 5.
In the second contest of the evening, the peerless Phi Delt team added another scalp to their large and varied collection by smothering the Alphas to the tune of 51 to 5. The losers depended upon the five man defense to stop the flashy Phi Delt attack but it proved as futile as it has always been against this classy quintette.

After warming up in the opening period, the league leaders unleashed their scoring attack and soon had the scorers on the jump tabulating their rapidly rising score. Diminutive Jimmy McCroary featured in the shooting line, hooping the ball from all corners of the court. Some of his shots were the prettiest yet seen on the Colby court this winter. With an able running back of "Dutch" Fiedler's calibre to feed him, the speedy forward found little difficulty in garnering nine floor shots. Shoemaker was not far behind with seven twin counters.

FIRST ROUND OF INTERFRAT MEETS

Intramural League Begins Today.—Spirited Race Is Promised.

Coach Mike Ryan of the track team has announced that the first round of the interfraternity track meet will be contested on Wednesday afternoon, March 11. The meet should be one of the most spirited ever held as nearly all of the fraternities have strong aggregations entered in the various events.

A ruling has been made that a man can compete unless he has had a satisfactory amount of training. Because of this ruling the competitors have been out on the boards for the past two weeks getting in shape for the events they intend to enter.

The events to be run off on Wednesday afternoon are: 40 yard dash, 40 yard hurdles, 600 yard run, mile and one half run, standing broad jump, half mile novice run, rope climb, shot put, mile walk, and high jump.

The meet is to be held in a series of four contests. The first was held on Wednesday, March 11, the second will be held on March 18, and the third and fourth legs of the meet will be conducted soon after the spring vacation.

MUSIC CLUBS PREPARE FOR MASS. TRIP

Annual Easter Trip to Commence March 17.—Eight Concerts En Route.

The Colby combined Musical Clubs are preparing for their annual Easter trip through Massachusetts ending with a concert in Boston. The clubs, this year, have been putting on fine concerts and should revive the interest that was so strongly taken last year by Massachusetts people.

On Tuesday night, March 17, the opening concert will be offered at Westbrook. There are four prospective places for the 18th and 19th, Portland, Sanford, Nashua, N. H., and Salem, Mass. On the night of the 20th the clubs are to play at Somerville and on Saturday night, the 21st at Boston.

The Boston Alumni have made plans to put on the concert and run a dance with the popular "Midnight Sons" furnishing the music. Sunday will give the boys a good chance to rest up in the "hub city" with the Boston Alumni as entertainers.

On Monday night, the 23rd, the clubs will play Whitman. "Bill" Millett, Colby's popular football back is managing the concert at Whitman and predicts a large audience.

Two more concerts, at Norwood on the 24th and West Springfield the 25th complete the program at present although Manager Dearborn has tentative plans up his sleeve for further concerts in New York state. He is sure of a concert in Glen Cove and is now negotiating with White Plains.

"Ken" Bragdon has some new numbers for the banjo club and with Cooke and Rood on specialties, Wassell leading the orchestra, Baxter and Baird reciting and the vocal solos of Allen and Tibbotts the clubs are sure of having a most successful tour in the "Bay State."

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS HAVE BEEN INDEXED

Bibliography Class Completes Work on Alumnus and Oracle.

The students of the Bibliography class have just finished indexing the past numbers of the Colby Oracle. The index is available at the library and will doubtless prove of much use in reference work.

Previous to the work on the Oracle the class indexed the back editions of the Alumnus. The work was under the direction of Professor Marjorin.

Stanley C. Brown, '20, is at present engaged in indexing last year's edition of the Echo. It is proposed to have all past issues of the Echo indexed and filed in the library as soon as time permits. This is a very tedious and difficult work, but the future value of such files makes it well worth while. The step which this Bibliography class has assumed is one that will be appreciated by Colby students of the present and future.

THREE TRACK MEETS AT COLBY

Two Duals and State Meet Included in Spring Season on Local Track.

The track schedule for this spring has been announced and approved by the Athletic Council and the members of the faculty. The track team has a larger program than they had in former years and Waterville will witness three meets this spring.

The first meet of the season will be held on April 25, and will be a dual meet with Northeastern University. Last year Colby met Northeastern and defeated them in a very exciting meet. Colby won all the dash events and distance races last year, but Northeastern took most of the field events.

The next meet will be with Tufts on May 2, and as this is the first time that Colby has had Tufts as their opponents it will be very hard to say what the outcome will be. The Tufts team nosed out Boston University and it is sure that they will have plenty of strength when they come to Waterville.

The state track meet will be held here on May 16. This meet will be one of the best ever held as all four colleges have men who are sure point winners. Bowdoin is favored to win, but it is hard to judge who will win second as the other teams are pretty evenly balanced. The meet should bring forth keen competition and many of the state records should be broken.

The New England Intercollegiate championship meet will be held at the Harvard Stadium in Cambridge on May 22 and 23, and Colby has entered this meet. On the 29th and 30th of May Colby will send representatives to the National Intercollegiate Championships which will be held on Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Coach Ryan will hold trials for the state meet on May 9. On this date the final selections will be made of the men who will represent the Blue and Gray in the meet.

Many men have been developed this year by Coach Ryan who are bound to make an account of themselves in the various meets. "Jimmy" Bradno is one of the best middle distance runners in New England. Sullivan is another runner that has come along fast. Wentworth, the giant weight tosser, will be heard from, and also such men as Mittelsdorf, Hearson, Brown, Taylor, Fransen, Laughton, McBay and Peabody. "Mike" Ryan has started a drive for these meets and next Wednesday he will have a chance to see these men in action in the first leg of the interfraternity meet.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor:

Yesterday marked the appearance of the new Mystic hats, and yesterday, evidently, also marked the appearance of an idea in the heads of certain Colby gentlemen. Immediately the other honorary societies, or at least one of them, thought it would be a splendid thing if their society had hats also. Why must we have a "monkey see, monkey do" class in this college? Because the Mystics have hats, must the others?

The Mystics originated the idea they should be allowed the sole rights. The Mystics feel, and justly so, that for the other societies to copy will detract greatly from the value of the hat as a sign of distinction. If the other societies feel the need of something of this sort, let them work their brains a little and think of something new instead of just being copy cats. So the Mystics hereby appeal to the spirit of sportsmanship that must exist in the other societies, and ask that they get busy and think of something besides a hat.

WILKINSON PRAISES COOLIDGE IN TALK

Speaks on Presidential Inaugurations in Address to Methodist Brotherhood.

A special feature at the last meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church was a talk on presidential inaugurations given by Dr. William J. Wilkinson of Colby college.

Dr. Wilkinson presented in an interesting and instructive manner the various inaugurations from the time of George Washington up to the present inauguration in Washington. His humorous pictures of the lives of these great men intermingled with their eccentricities and characteristics proved them to be only human after all. He described the log cabins and barrels of cider in the inaugural parade of Andrew Jackson, the friendly relations that existed between Lincoln and Douglass in spite of the fact that they were political rivals. He also gave a clear idea of the self conscious element in Lincoln's makeup which was relieved by Douglass in many instances.

Dr. Wilkinson brought out the transitoriness of life in recalling Harding's inaugural when he rode beside Woodrow Wilson, then a dying man. He referred to the engulfing web of political oblivion in which many of the great men of a few years past have been caught.

The talk ended in an expression of his belief that the people would soon accept Coolidge as a man who was striving to make America a better, greater and nobler nation and as one who would promote their best interests.

LIBBY TRAVELS ON ROTARY CLUB WORK

Gives Addresses in Calais and St. Stephen.

Dr. Herbert C. Libby of the faculty, who is the Rotary governor for the New England district, returned on Thursday morning from Calais where he had been to present the charter to the Calais Rotary club which had been recently organized there. While in Calais he was invited by the Rotary Club of St. Stephen, across the Canadian line, to visit its members. The meeting there was a very interesting affair. There were three mayors of Canadian cities present and many representatives from Maine. Dr. Libby spoke at the meeting, and while there addressed the students of the high school.

He returned to Calais where it was his duty to present the charter to the newly formed club. The student body of the Calais high school also had the pleasure of hearing an address by Dr. Libby. He returned on Thursday morning to assume his college duties.

Dr. Libby has long been interested in Rotary work and is widely known throughout New England because of this. Last year he was unanimously elected as the Rotary governor at a convention in Worcester, and since his election he has devoted much time to the work. Each week finds him travelling to some town or city to address people in the interest of the Rotary club.

GLEE CLUBS GIVE CONCERT AT CLINTON

Colby's Combined Musical Clubs gave a concert in Clinton, Friday evening, March 6. Manager Dearborn, '25, took thirty men on the trip. The program went off very smoothly despite the necessity of using oil lamps for stage lighting due to the shutting off of power from the Pittsfield station.

The concert marked the first of the series of trips which the club is planning for its Easter tour. Every act has been polished up to the same of perfection and showed conscientious effort on the part of the man in last week's performance. Some new numbers are being worked upon and will be in readiness for the circuit trip.
