WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1926.

The Board deeply regrets the sudden illness which has made it necessary for its Editor-in-Chief to leave college. Mr. Ide was stricken with appendicitis during the past week and under advice of his physician left for his home almost immediately. We trust that he will soon be able to return to college.

His illness is very unfortunate indeed, coming as it did almost on the eve of the announcement of the complete reorganization of the Echo. It has been apparent to the Board for some time that if we were going to continue to put out a paper which is a credit to the college both from a news and literary point of view, a complete overhauling of our personnel would be necessary.

As the last semester drew to a close this need became more and more emphatic and it was decided to make the change to become effective with the first issue of the second semester. Accordingly a meeting of the Editorial Staff was called and the condition of the Board, which seemed to be one of lassitude, was thoroughly discussed. The result of this discussion was that the Editor-in-Chief used the authority vested in him, and with the advice and consent of the staff, dropped fourteen names from the Board. The Board wishes to say that in doing this the Editor was not directing any personal or particular criticism against any individual. It was felt that the Board was too big, too ungainly, and struggling to function without the fixity of responsibility which is necessary in an organization such as ours.

We feel that with a smaller board consisting only of students interested in writing and in journalism, and with fixed responsibility at all points, we shall be able to function with better results and with greater efficiency. Accordingly, in the future, no one will be granted membership on the Board solely because they are the delegated representatives of any fraternity or sorority. This arrangement has been tried and found to be a flat failure. The majority of those so delegated to the Board took no interest either in the Board or in the paper, and served only to detract from the prestige which should justly come from membership on the Board.

Therefore, when there are vacancies on the Board in the future they will be announced and candidates called for. Those reporting will be tried out, and appointment will be made solely on merit as shown by the aspirant.

We wish to remind our readers that we are passing through the metamorphosis of a complete reorganization, and this without the benefit of the experience and guidance of our Editor-in-Chief. In the meantime the Board will go on, endeavoring to take things up at the point where Mr. Ide left them. We truly hope that as a result of our reorganization we shall be able to give our readers a paper which has the news of the college while it is news and in a form of which we may well feel proud.

Until the new Board gets on its feet and working smoothly we ask the kind forbearance and indulgence of our readers. Our new motto will be, "The Echo on Wednesday night."

The Board regrets to announce the resignation of Harry B. Thomas, its former Managing Editor. Mr. Thomas was forced to resign by the press of personal matters.

Midyears are over and the whole college, both faculty and student body, draws a sigh of relief. However, we do not want to lose sight of the fact that time moves on apace and finals are coming. It is inevitable that after the midyear examination period there should be a "let down" of student effort, but we should not allow this period to become so extended as to be a definite handicap on our second semester work.

We wonder if Colby is not getting a little behind times in jamming all its semester examinations into one week? Many colleges in the East take two weeks for the giving of semester examinations and it seems to work well. Wouldn't it be better if Colby extended her examination period a little? Even if it were only to ten days, that would be better than trying to cram for and take five examinations in five days and a half. No one realizes what a fatiguing and nerve-racking experience it is more thoroughly than those of us who have just taken "four in a row." We sympathize with those men on the faculty who have to read and correct around three hundred examinations in three days in order to get their semester ranks into the office on time.

How about it, Colby? Couldn't we hit them better if we were not so rushed?

We wonder if there would be fewer students flunk out if they had more opportunity for social contact with their professors?

The Combined Glee clubs left for a tour of Massachusetts yesterday. Our "bon-voyage" goes with them. We can think of no better way of advertising the college. Which reminds us—we have heard an advance report that this year Colby is to have another "cross country" debating team. Complete details of this will be forthcoming soon.

We observe with great satisfaction the founding of the "Press Club," and assure its members and its sponsor, Dr. Herbert C. Libby, of the whole hearted support and cooperation of the Board. This new society should fill a long-felt need in the college. Every day, in every way, we become a better and better college.

Y. M. C. A.

The first Y. M. C. A. meeting of the new semester was held Tuesday evening under the leadership of President Kenneth J. Smith, '26. He introduced Associate Secretary A. A. Heald of the state Y. M. C. A. as speaker of the evening. After a brief song service, Mr. Heald delivered a short address on "The Valley of the Blind." He emphasized the point that we all may be walking in the valley of misunderstanding and untruthfulness. This is a path over which we unconsciously tread and which results in misplaced confidences and disagreements. To remedy this, the individual must make a conscientious effort to live with a strong mind and a stronger heart. If one possesses these prerequisites he cannot fail to succeed in the battle of life, regardless of the line of his endeavor.

Y. W. C. A.

The first Y. W. C. A. cabinet meeting of the second semester was held Monday afternoon, February 1, in the reading room in Foss Hall. Each of the officers and committee chairmen gave detailed reports of the work accomplished by her last semester, and told of the plans of her committee for the present term.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet entertained Mrs. Beatrice S. Kitchen, secretary of the National Student Council of the Young Woman's Christian Association, January 22-23.

A tea was given in honor of Mrs. Kitchen, Friday afternoon, January

22. The big cabinet was present as well as the smaller one. The cabinet members took advantage of the opportunity of getting acquainted with Mrs. Kitchen whom they found most charming.

The regular weekly Y. W. C. A. meeting was held Friday night, January 22, in order that Mrs. Kitchen could be present and speak to the organization in a body. She gave an informal talk on the practical services rendered by Y. W. C. associations in some of our cities. The opportunities of practical service in colleges were also emphasized. Mrs. Kitchen gave Bruce Curry's definition of a Student Christian Association. It is "a rallying station for experiments in the direction of taking Christ seriously."

C. E. SOCIETY HOLDS SOCIAL.

The third successful social of the Baptist-Christian Endeavor Society was held last night in the vestry of the Baptist church. This was one of the functions held in the local church in recognition of National Christian Endeavor Week, a quasi birthday party in honor of Dr. Clark, the founder of Christian Endeavor. The program consisted of a dramatization of the founding and spread of Christian Endeavor, followed by games, contests, stunts and refreshments. The committee in charge was Ardele Chase, chairman; Marion Rhoades, Erna Sawyer and Arlene Woodward. As a further recognition of Christian Endeavor Week, the regular Sunday evening service of the church will be in charge of the society.

MITTELSDORF MAKES APPEARANCE TOMORROW IN MILLROSE GAMES

Forty Yard Champion Represents New England At National Meet--Colby Flash Is Up Against The Best In The Country.

Colby's star dash artist, George Mittelsdorf, will make his initial appearance tomorrow evening at the Millrose A. A. games in New York City. The indoor meet is to be held at the new Madison Square Garden arena and the Blue and Gray speed merchant will be pitted against some of the premier dash men of the country. Coach Ryan has stated that he predicts that our own Colby sprinter will give the best performance in the country a big surprise this year and the Blue and Gray mentor is looking for big things from his pupil.

"Gus," as he is known to all of the campus folks, came to Colby from Coburn Classical Institute in which school he had made a great name for himself. He was easily the best schoolboy dash demon in the state and also was a football and basketball player of note. The first year that he was out for the Colby track team, Coach Ryan swore a broad smile for he realized that he had a stellar performer in the former Coburn star. The coach's hopes were not in vain for the first year Mittelsdorf more than proved his value as a runner and brought the college many well earned and hard fought victories. During that year he first came into the limelight when he easily won the New England amateur 40 yard dash race at Boston and was later selected to represent New England in the national championships. The state meet rolled around and sure enough Colby came into the limelight as the stocky sprinter won the century and 220 yard dash at Lewiston. Although only a freshman he had little trouble in winning both races and looked every bit of a champion. During the entire season including the indoor and out door meets Mittelsdorf was a prominent figure and it is safe to say that no one individual athlete has brought more fame in this line to the college than did this same runner. He was heralded all over the country as one of the big sensations, and whenever his spiked shoes toed the mark his competitors knew that they were in for a tough battle.

The next year did not see him in any declining performances and for the second year in succession he became the best college sprinter in New England. He made a great showing during the indoor period and was in big demand at the largest meets of the country. New York is especially anxious to have him at the meets held in that state and Coach Ryan always receives an invitation to bring his capable performer. The state meet saw him repeating his work of his freshman year and he won the same two dash events with no trouble. The feature of his performance at the meet was that he crashed the state record for the 220 yard dash after having previously won the century dash. The New England intercollegiate meet came at Boston and sure enough the hundred yard event was won by no other than the Colby flyer. He also managed to place second in the 220 yard run and had he been given a little more time to rest he would have won that also, but as the schedule of events was announced he was forced to run the final heat in the 220 after having just won the hundred and this was too much of a strain on any man.

This year as in other years the Colby youngster will face the best dash spike wearers in the country. None of them are too tough for him is the slogan of the officials running the meets and he is pitted against some of the greatest American and also foreign sprinters of all times. Imagine the football player facing the famous "Red" Grange, the famous "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame; and other prominent gridiron performers. Think of the college tennis player stacking up against Bill Tilden, or the college swimmer compared with the battering Rogers Hornsby. This is precisely the position that the Colby darter occupied when he first stepped into such fast company but it did not take people long to recognize his ability and now he is considered one of the best in the country. To those who are not familiar with the men that he will be running against this week at New York and Boston just look this list over and you will find some prominent track artists: Loren Murchinson, the king of all indoor dash men and perhaps the greatest American sprinter with the exception of Charley Paddock; Frank Hussey, now of Boston college and also a member of the last American Olympic team; Houben of Germany who has defeated both Paddock and Murchinson; Al Miller of Harvard who has defeated Houben and Sussey by winning the dash at the K. of C. games in Boston last week; Bowman of Syracuse, the intercollegiate 100 yard dash holder; Clark of Johns Hopkins, another man of national prominence. There are others of equal importance and thus it is easily seen that the sturdy tape breaker is travelling in fast company, but all Colby followers can rest assured that he will be in the running regardless of who is matched against him and it can be safely said that he will bring home the bacon more than once during the coming year.

half-mile title of the Maine colleges. To Mike Ryan, Blue and Gray track mentor, goes all the credit for the remarkable advancement of Sansone, and the latter takes his place in the ranks of Wentworth and Mittelsdorf as products of the teachings of a great coach.

BLUE AND GRAY WILL MEET NEW HAMPSHIRE

Frosh Capt.-Elect Howland Joins Varsity Squad.

The Colby hockey team will get back into competition this week after a ten days lay-off due to the mid-year examinations. The boys were out Monday afternoon for the first time in over a week and will need quite a bit of polishing before they are able to regain the teamwork which they showed before the enforced vacation.

The game with St. Jeans has been postponed until later in the week when the team will undoubtedly play its toughest opponents of the season.

The University of New Hampshire is the next sextet which the Blue and Gray team will face. The battle which will be staged at Durham next Saturday should be a dandy. New Hampshire has a team which will be able to hold the White Mule according to dopsters.

Captain Harry Muir is back in condition after being slowed up by an ankle injury and should have the best season of his career. On left wing ex-captain Jack McGowan will be on the blades, and should make the defending goalie stay awake. Gould at center ice has come fast this season and was the star of the St. Jeans game. With this trio carrying the puck to the opponents the team is well supplied on the offence. Dick Drummond and Al Peacock will be back in the defense positions and Fagerstrom will stay in the goal. By Saturday the team should be hitting its stride and should give a good account of itself at Durham.

Freshmen Eligible.

Colby will have a much stronger outfit than it had before mid-years because of the fact that several freshmen will be available for the team. Among the men who will undoubtedly get a chance to show their wares with the varsity are the following: Tattersall and Pomerleau at the wings, Scott and Carlson at the defense positions and Allen at the cage. Freshman captain-elect Howland will also be valuable Varsity material.

During the season, the same six men have stood the brunt of the battle on the varsity as there were no second string men who could satisfy the coach in his search for substitutes. The addition of the freshmen will greatly strengthen the Varsity.

RYAN SELECTS RELAY BOSTON A. A. GAMES

On Monday, February 2, Coach Mike Ryan made the selection of the men who are to represent Colby college in the one-mile relay tilt between Boston University, Tufts University and Colby College, Saturday evening at the Boston A. A. games. The men that were chosen are Frederick E. Baker, '27, of Portland; Gilbert Sims, '29, of New Haven, Conn.; George V. Jones, '27, of Monticello, and Edward R. Newhall, '28, of Lynn, Mass.

The Colby relay team has emerged a victor in the previous relay races at Boston, and a great deal is expected of the one mile relay representatives. This group is the fastest team that can be assembled and upon them will rest the burden of bringing the Blue and Gray to the fore.

"BOBBY" FRANSEN, FORMER COLBY STAR, SIGNS WITH NEW HAVEN

Captain Of Colby's 1924 Baseball Team Gives Up Coaching--Will Play Shortfield Position For Connecticut Club.

Word has just reached the Colby athletic authorities that Robert F. "Bobby" Fransen, of Lynn, Mass., captain of the Colby varsity baseball team in 1924 and for four years shortstop on the team, has been signed to play the shortfield this coming season for the New Haven club of the Eastern league.

Fransen, who at the present time is coaching at Goddard Seminary in Vermont where he turned out a successful football team this past fall, is one of the best ball players ever developed at Colby; and he is considered by many baseball fans to be the best shortstop ever to wear a Colby uniform, and one of the best to ever perform on a Maine diamond.

Fransen has played with several of the best Maine semi-professional outfits and he also covered the short field for the Salem Witches in the summer of 1924. The former Colby star was recommended to the New Haven club by Charles "Chick" Davies, a pitcher who has been recently purchased by the New York Giants. Davies was captain of the Salem aggregation when Fransen played with it, and he became convinced that the Lynn boy could stand the pace of big league competition. At Colby Fransen was under the tutelage of Freddy Parent, former shortstop for the Boston Red Sox.

Fransen's versatility as an athlete is shown by the fact that the captured a point in the Maine Intercollegiate track meet last spring. He entered the meet with no preliminary training and leaped to a third place in the high jump. Fransen made his jump with a badly wrenched leg which kept him out of baseball for the rest of the season. The injured leg was operated on this past summer and is now apparently as strong as ever.

All Colby men are rooting hard for Fransen's success under the big tent, and are hoping that he will make as big a name for himself as did the peerless "Colby Jack" Coombs a decade or more ago. If gameness counts for success, "Bobby" Fransen is bound to achieve immortal fame for himself in the national pastime.

Fransen is a Colby graduate of the class of 1925 and is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

COLBY SENDS SQUAD TO MILLROSE GAMES

On Thursday, February 4, the Colby college two-mile relay team will meet the relay representatives of Boston College, University of Pennsylvania, Columbia University and Syracuse University in the new Madison Square Garden, New York City, at the Millrose A. A. games. This is the first intercollegiate track and field meet to be held in the new arena uptown, and the officials have done their utmost to make this meet one of the greatest in the country, both in number of competitors and height of competition.

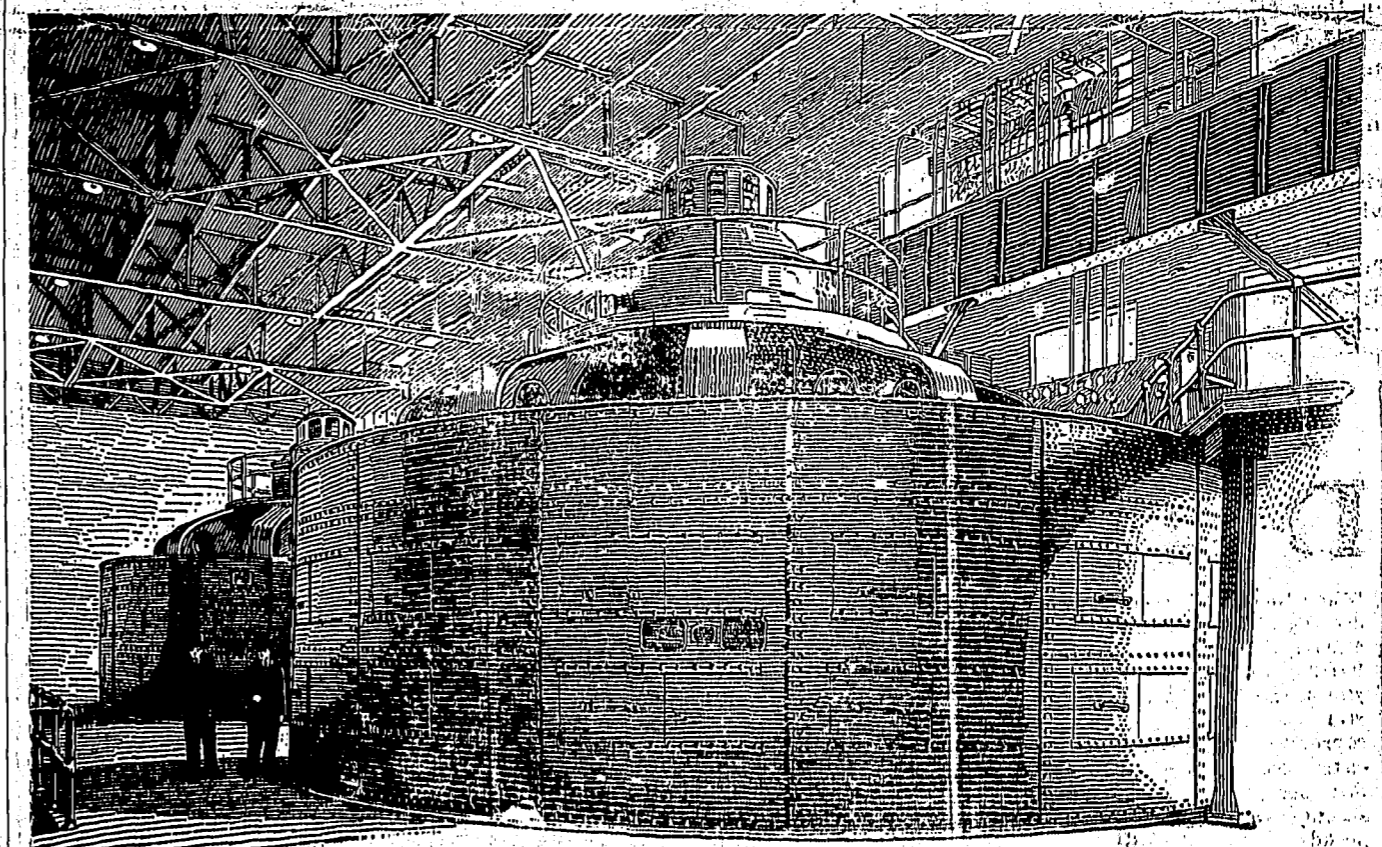

The team entered in this meet, representing Colby college, is composed of Brown, Fransen, Brudno and Sansone. All four are experienced track men, Brown and Fransen having represented Colby for three years on the one-mile relay team. Fransen, who left college last June, returned at mid-years and renewed his track career by turning in one of the best time trials clocked by Coach Ryan this season. The race Thursday will be the initial baptism of intercollegiate relay competition for Brudno and Sansone, but the excellent brand of running displayed by the pair has landed them a berth on the team over a big field of competitors. Brudno has held down a berth both on the cross-country and track teams and though virtually inexperienced in relay running he has displayed great ability and much is expected of him in helping pull his team through a winner.

After the meet in New York, the two-mile relay team will journey to Boston, to participate in the Boston A. A. games which are to be held in the Boston arena, Saturday evening.

SANSONE IS ELECTED CAPTAIN OF RELAY TEAM

On Monday afternoon, February 1, Charles E. Sansone of the class of '28, was unanimously elected captain of the two-mile relay team that is to represent Colby college at the Millrose A. A. games in New York City, Thursday. Sansone, holder of the Colby half-mile record, is without doubt the best half-miler in the history of Colby track athletics, and a great deal is expected of him in New York.

Sansone matriculated to Colby in the fall of 1924, a track novice, and under the capable tutelage of Coach Mike Ryan he has developed into the most formidable contender for the

This giant hydro-electric unit weighs 750 tons and consists of a vertical shaft hydraulic turbine attached to a electric generator delivering 57,000 kilowatts at 12,000 volts.

Bigger Generators—Cheaper Electricity

A 70,000 horsepower hydro-electric unit recently installed at Niagara Falls utilizes the same amount of water as seven former 5,000-horsepower units, yet does the work of fourteen such units. And it saves 700,000 tons of coal yearly for the nation.

As more and still more uses are found for electricity, larger and more economical generators are installed. At the power plant, as well as at the consumer's end, important changes and startling developments have steadily reduced the cost of electricity for light, power, and heat.

And wherever electricity has blazed its trail—in towns, cities, industrial centers, and rural communities—comfort and progress have come to stay.

Generating and distributing electricity concern the technical student. But electricity's application in the betterment of industry, the professions, and home life concerns every educated person. Cheap electricity means many startling achievements today, but countless and unbelievable possibilities tomorrow.

The General Electric Company, as of December 31, 1924, had 37,710 stockholders, of whom 48 per cent were women. The average number of common shares held by stockholders was 55. An ownership, policies, past and present activities, G.E. is unselfishly dedicated to the cause of electrical progress.
