ence of Students for Choice of Titles.

The joint committee from both divisions of the college which is planning for the visit of Kirby Page, the editor of "The World Tomorrow," to the campus on March 6, 7, and 8, has asked the students to indicate their preferences for the lectures that they wish to have Dr. Page deliver while here at Colby.

The widely known editor, author, clergyman, and lecturer has eighteen addresses which he has been using on his most recent speaking tour throughout the United States. At the present time he is on a trip in the far West from which he will return to visit Maine.

The members of the joint committee which is composed of W. Bertrand Downey, '30, chairman; Florence C. Young, '29; Caroline A. Herrick, '29; Lawrence A. Peakes, '28; wish to hear from any and all of the students regarding the topics that they would like Dr. Page treat while on the campus.

The faculty advisors of the committee are Dr. William J. Wilkinson, head of History department, and (Continued on page 2)

Those present were: Miss Partrick, Helen Wyman, Alice Paul, Helen Brigham, Esther Parker and Grace Stone.

The League has decided that practice volley ball games will be played every Tuesday afternoon to arouse interest in that sport. ## Biography Shows Life of Activity in Public Circles and G. O. P. Platform.

Dr. William J. Wilkinson, head of the history department, will speak at the mass meeting of both college divisions when the "Libby For Governor Club" is organized in the college chapel Friday evening at 7.15.

This student political club is being formed to support the candidacy of Dr. Herbert C. Libby, professor of Public Speaking and Mayor of the City of Waterville, for the Republican gubernatorial nomination at the state primaries in June. The organization has the active support of the Student Council of the men's division of the college and the women's division is also cooperating in its formation.

It is expected that one of Waterville's prominent professional men will also address the gathering of students, but no definite announcement of his name has been made when this issue of the ECHO went to press.

The idea of actively supporting Colby's mayor-professor in his campaign for the governorship of the state of Maine has been enthusiastically received on the campus. All of the fraternities and sororities have promised to attend Friday evening's meeting with large delegations and the independent groups will also be well represented.

The committee which is in charge of the preliminary plans for the club is under the general chairmanship of J. Louis Lovett, '28, of Hudson, Mass. The committee from the Student Council of the men's division is composed of the following members of the senior class: James T. McCroarty of Adams, Mass.; Augustine A. D'Amico of Lawrence, Mass.; G. Vinton Jones of Monticello; Augustus M. Hodgkins of Farmington Falls; and Charles E. Callaghan of South Brewer.

The ECHO is following last week's story of the announcement of Dr. Libby's candidacy for the governorship with a brief sketch of the life of this popular Colby professor.

Biographical Sketch.
Herbert Carlyle Libby was born in Burnham, December 28, 1878. He was educated in the public schools of Burnham and Waterville, entered Colby College and later Harvard College, from which he was graduated in 1904. For a time following his graduation, he was interested in the newspaper business and then joined the faculty of Colby on which he is now the fifth ranking man in point of length of service. He was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws in 1919.

Dr. Libby has always taken an active part in educational work. He was superintendent of the public schools of Waterville from 1909 to 1912 and during that time organized and conducted the Central Maine Summer School. He has held office (Continued on page 2)

JOINT SENIOR COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

In accordance with the motion that was adopted at the joint senior class meeting last week, the following committee has been appointed by the two fourth year presidents: Irma G. Sawyer of Canton, women's chairman; Esther M. Parker of Lisbon Falls; Myra S. Stone of Lawrence, Mass.; Charles P. Nelson of Augusta, men's chairman; Ralph H. Ayer of East Lynn, Mass.; and Lawrence A. Peakes of Pownance, Vt.

This committee will have full power to act as seems best upon the recent faculty ruling that seniors must attain a grade of "A" in a course before they can be excused from the final examination in June. Present indications are that these delegates will ask for a conference with the Executive Committee of the Faculty in order to present the case of the students.

SENIOR GIRLS GIVE DANCE AT ELKS HALL

Annual Affair Attended by More Than a Hundred Couples Friday.

The annual dance of the senior girls was held last Friday evening at Elks Hall, with about 100 couples attending the affair.

The hall was attractively decorated with the class colors, orange and black. Unique posters representing various "bad luck" signs proved most effective in carrying out the idea of the unlucky day of Friday, the thirteenth.

The patrons and patronesses were Dean Erma V. Reynolds, Miss Corinne B. Van Norman, Mrs. C. Harry Edwards, and Professor and Mrs. Lester F. Weeks. The music for the affair was furnished by George Allison's Blue Serenaders for a program of thirteen dances.

The general arrangements for the dance were in charge of Emily Randall of Freeport; Arleen Warburton of Lawrence, Mass.; and Ruth Hutchins of Waterville.

The initiates were: Amelia Bliss, Island Falls; Winona M. Berrie, Presque Isle; Phyllis Fisher, Fort Fairfield; Thelma Bamford, Houlton; Jennie Dunn, Presque Isle; Mildred Pond, Houlton; and Beulah E. Stiles, Smyrna Mills.

Marguerite Albert was the toastmistress at the banquet and Betsy Ringdahl, '28, gave the address of welcome. The following girls were then introduced who gave impromptu speeches: Alice Paul, '29; Rona Mills, '30; Phyllis Fisher, '31; Mary Voss, '29; Beulah Stiles, '31; Thelma Bamford, '31; and Helen Chase, '30.

The Aroostook Club is composed of members of the Women's division whose homes are in Aroostook county. Its purposes are chiefly social.

C. N. ARBUCKLE WILL PREACH AT BACCALAUREATE

Announcement Made Monday by Prof. Marriner
Committee Chairman

Rev. Charles N. Arbuckle, D. D., the pastor of the First Baptist Church at Newton Center, Mass., will preach the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 17th, in connection with the 107th annual commencement exercises of the college according to an announcement made Monday afternoon by Prof. Ernest C. Marriner, '13, the chairman of the commencement committee.

The official statement of the committee concerning Dr. Arbuckle was in part as follows:

"Dr. Arbuckle is a national figure in his denomination, having held many offices of prominence and trust in the Northern Baptist Convention. He has won wide fame as a pulpit orator. Not only does he draw large weekly audiences at his own church, but he is much in demand throughout the East.

"He is especially popular with audiences of young people, being a regular chapel speaker at several of the Massachusetts colleges. He is so widely sought for baccalaureate and other addresses of the commencement season that it was necessary for him to make some changes in order to accept the Colby invitation, although he received that invitation before the new year.

"Dr. Arbuckle enjoys a wide personal acquaintance among young people gained through his interest in the annual school of methods at Ocean Park, to which he has frequently been called as an enthusiastic leader. He has also devoted a large share of his time to a professorship at the Newton Theological Institution where he has met and influenced a large number of Colby graduates."

SENIOR NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHOSEN

Hines, Class President

Announcement was made this afternoon by Conrad H. Hines, president of the class of 1928, of the members of the men's division who have been appointed to the senior Nominating Committee. These men will have charge of selecting the speakers for the Senior Class Day exercises which will be held on Saturday morning, June 16th.

In accordance with the motion which was adopted at the last meeting of the fourth year class, one man was chosen for this important committee from each fraternity and from the non-fraternity group.

The committee is composed of: G. Vinton Jones of Monticello, chairman, from Kappa Delta Rho; Louis P. Pourade of Purchase, N. Y., from Delta Kappa Epsilon; Cecil E. Foote of Holyoke, Mass., from Zeta Psi; Durward S. Heal of East Millinocket, from Delta Upsilon; August F. Stiegler, Jr., of Grant Neck, N. Y., from Phi Delta Theta; John N. Erickson of Newburyport, Mass., from Alpha Tau Omega; Cecil H. Rose of Waterville, from Lambda Chi Alpha; Walter F. Knofski of South Manchester, Conn., from Lambda Club; and Arthur B. ## COLBY ICEMEN LEADING STATE HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Winners Over Bobcat In Fast Overtime Game
Played At The Lewiston Arena
Tuesday Evening-Score 2-1

Sturhahn Stars by Scoring
Winning Point After Fourth Overtime
of the Game.

The Roundy-Millett Blue and Gray ice sextet went into the lead in the state hockey series by virtue of a 2 to 1 victory over Bates in a fast, rough game that took two hours and twenty minutes for a decision in the Lewiston Arena yesterday afternoon.

Eddie Sturhahn poked in the winning goal following a lone ramble down the rink in the fourth overtime period. Just a little over a minute was left to play, when he secured the puck near mid-ice and started for a Bates corner. He was harried by the Garnet defense men on the way down, but out-manuevered them by clever skating, and whirled and took a shot at the Bates cage. Violette got in front of the puck which came at a sharp angle and succeeded in deflecting it from its course a bit, but the little pellet sailed on into the netting.

A wild attempt was made by the Bobcats to tie the count in the short time left to play, but the whistle cut them off as they rushed five men down the ice.

The contest was a typical Bates-Colby encounter, hard played every second and at times tended to be a bit rough. Colby deserved the victory well enough, for the veteran team played together and did most things better than the fast Bates sextet.

In spite of the fact that the Colby icebirds were playing their first game of the season they handled their sticks well and their hard, accurate shooting kept the Bates team on the defense most of the time after the first period. Bobby Scott, diminutive little pigskin carrier, Dickie Drummond, Sten Carlson, and Eddie Sturhahn, handled their hickories better than most Maine collegians are able to do, and this told heavily in their favor.

COUNCIL APPROVES DATE FOR JUNIOR WEEK END

Other Important Matters
Discussed at Meeting Held Monday.

Voting to take over the active support of the "Libby For Governor Club" and appointing a committee of six Council members to plan Friday evening's mass meeting of both college divisions was the most important matter of business transacted at the regular meeting of the Student Council which was held in the "Y" evening in Hedman Hall last Monday.

The slow sale of freshman toques was again taken up and all the council members were instructed to bring the problem before their respective fraternities. Unless the rest of the toques are sold, the Council will lose a considerable amount of money.

Non-payment of the freshman class dues was also discussed and all the members were given lists of the delinquent 1931 men whom they were to see. It is essential that all of these dues be paid this week as there are several bills against the entering class which must be settled promptly.

A standing committee to have charge of social affairs which are under the supervision of the Student Council was appointed by the president. This committee will have charge of planning for any gym dances that may be held during the interfraternity basketball season. Those appointed were: Augustus M. Hodgkins, '28, of Farmington Falls, chairman; Harold E. Carson, '28, of Hodgdon; and Thomas B. Langley, '31, of Cambridge, Mass.

The date of May 18th was reserved by the 1929 representative for the Junior Prom. The Junior Week-end this year will probably extend from May 17 to 20.

NINETEEN MEMBERS REPORT FOR DEBATE

Possibility That Colby May
Send Team to Pi Kappa Delta Convention.

That Colby is to have a successful forensic season this year is evident from information given out this afternoon by the undergraduate Manager of Debate.

Thus far four joint debates have been definitely scheduled with another joint debate and two dual contests pending the final signing of contracts. A squad of twenty men is already at work on three different propositions under the direction of Dr. Herbert C. Libby, professor of Public Speaking and Coach of Debate.

If several debates can be secured en route, a team of Blue and Gray debaters may be sent to the biennial convention of Pi Kappa Delta, the national honorary forensic society, which will be held at Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio, April 3-6. Providing that such arrangements can be made, it will be the first time since 1922 that the Colby or Alpha Chapter of Maine has been represented at the national convention of the organization.

The debates which have been arranged already include: March 16, Boston University at Waterville on the proposition—Resolved: That, the United States should cease to protect by force of arms, capital invested in foreign lands, except after formal declaration of war.

April 10, McMurry College from Abilene, Texas, at Waterville, on the proposition—Resolved: That Congress should pass a law establishing a Federal Department of Education with a Secretary in the President's cabinet.

April 16, University of Vermont at Burlington, on the proposition—Resolved: That Democracy in the United States is a failure. Colby will support the negative in this debate.

April 17, Middlebury College at Middlebury, on the foreign intervention question which was the topic in the B. U. encounter.

Joint debates are pending with Boston College, Massachusetts Agricultural College, and Norwich University. If suitable dates can be secured, these contests will be included as part of the same trip on which Vermont and Middlebury will be met. Dual debates are also pending with the State universities of Maine and New Hampshire.

Eleven of the members of this year's debating squad have had at least one year's intercollegiate experience, and four of the men are starting on their third season's platform work for Colby.

The veterans include: Foote, '28; Levine, '28; Nelson, '28; Peakes, '28; West, '28; Millett, '28; Leland, '29; Woods, '29; Morrow, '29; Lord, '29; and Kronquist, '29. New men who have reported thus far this year are: Jones, '28; McLaughly, '29; Silowitz, '29; Swartz, '29; Egert, '30; Meyers, '30; A. Palmer, '30; and N. Palmer, '30.

JUNIOR GIRLS' DANCE ON THE SIXTEENTH OF MARCH

Preparations Underway By Committee in Charge.

Plans are under way for the Junior girls' dance on March 16; Doris Grosbeck, the general chairman, is already working out some ideas which promise a novel and attractive dance.

Grace Stone and Florence Young compose the general committee; Flora Riddout is chairman of the decoration committee; Martha Allen, of the program committee; and Anella Bucknam, of the refreshment committee.

THUMBS UP, THUMBS DOWN?

With an abundance of snowshoe and ski men in college, the winter sports candidates number only a handful. Plans for holding the state intercollegiate carnival here must wait until more interest is shown. The interfraternity meet just after mid-year will be the real test.

If well-balanced teams are not entered by the various groups, the larger enterprise will go by the board. The Athletic Council cannot be expected to sponsor a sport which brings out only five or six men. The campus meet will decide!

HONOR TO WHOM?

The Board of Editors of the "Colbiana" are to be heartily congratulated on their first issue of the year. This number of the women's literary magazine deserves wider circulation than simply among the co-ords. Well-written articles, the inclusion of a page of photographs, the use of some new headings, and an attractive make-up combine to make the issue the best published since the paper was first established in 1914.

If similar talent exists in the men's division, and the work in some of the English divisions would indicate that it does, it is too bad that Colby does not publish a joint literary magazine.

COMMUNICATION TRENCHES.

Appointment of a joint senior committee to act upon the new final examination exemption ruling may well be the first step toward more harmonious cooperation between the professors and undergraduates.

All too often the students have left to surmise the whys and wherefores of administrative rulings. The faculty has frequently been offended by well-meaning, but badly phrased petitions. Misunderstandings have been inevitable.

Now that the class of 1928 has delegated six of its members with full power to act in the disputed "A" question, many students are wondering just what procedure they can adopt. Cutting straight through any red tape that may exist and asking for a conference with the Executive Committee of the Faculty seems the only logical thing to do.

Another petition could not escape misinterpretation. An appeal to individual members of the faculty would avail little except to place such men in a difficult position. This is a matter in which the faculty must meet the students directly. An open meeting with a frank discussion of the whole question is the only solution. Faculty and students alike should be satisfied when the results of such a cooperative investigation are announced.

The Executive Committee has been administering the affairs of the college very expeditiously, but in a many-membered board the personal touch has necessarily been lacking. All other duties have been divided among the members of the committee, but no one man has been named as a professor-student go-between.

Colby needs some sort of a liaison officer. A Dean would admirably fill the position, but lacking such a man the Executive Committee should appoint someone to perform his duties.

in the state and county Teacher's Associations and served for ten years as registrar of Colby and as editor of the annual catalogue of the college. He has also served eleven years as the editor of the "Alumnus," the quarterly magazine for the Colby alumni.

He joined the teaching staff of the college in 1909 as an instructor, was later elected assistant professor, and still later full professor, having charge of the department of public speaking and journalism. He has also served as chairman of the commencement committee since 1920 and in that year was the general chairman of the centennial celebration.

In politics, as the president of the State Referendum League of Maine he was instrumental in securing the enactment of direct legislation, and he also helped to bring about the passage of the Direct Primary law and served in 1927 as chairman of the Kennebec County league in helping to retain the law.

He was elected Mayor of Waterville in 1926 in an election that polled over 6000 votes and was re-elected in 1927 by a majority of 350 votes at the same time that the city elected a Democratic representative to the legislature.

Among the organizations in which he has been active are the Rotary Club, the Waterville-Winslow Chamber of Commerce, the Waterville Community Service, the Federal Trust Company of Waterville, and the Waterville Public Library. He is also a member of the executive committee which is in charge of the administrative affairs of Colby and as secretary of the committee on the new gymnasium is directly charged with the work of completing the raising of the fund of $100,000 for the construction of a new gymnasium.

As Mayor.

Among the achievements of Dr. Libby's administration of the affairs of Waterville are: the creation of a city planning board, a city park commission, a public debt amortization commission; the acquisition of two public parks; the reduction of the outstanding temporary notes owed by the city; the employment of a zoning expert to prepare a zoning ordinance for the city; the introduction of a new system to encourage the prompt payment of taxes; the introduction of what amounts to a purchasing agent for the city; the combining of the office of street commissioner with that of the city engineer; and the construction of permanent concrete streets apart from those built jointly by state and city.

the Garnet players something to think about most of the time. It was this pair that was responsible for the first Colby score in the opening stanza of the game. Drummond ripped through the Bates defense and made a neat flip to Scott who was coming down the side. Bobbie rushed the puck a short way toward the cage and plugged it into the netting from a sharp angle.

It was not until near the end of the third period that another tally was registered and this by a Wigglin product. "Zeke" Secor, one of the best Bates had to offer, got possession of the disc near his own cage following a Colby shot, and found the left side of the surface open. He traveled swiftly and took a shot before reaching the Colby defense. It whizzed past West, Colby goalie, a couple of feet off the ice and nestled into the nets to bring fresh hope to the Bates cohorts.

Although play speeded up after this goal, the end of the regular playing time found this score knotted at one all.

With less than two minutes to go in the fourth overtime period, the fans were moving toward the exits under the impression that it was all over and a tie game, when Sturhahn pulled off his puck-chasing stunt and registered the winning counter.

White, Secor, and Foster, the forward line for Bates, starred for the Bobcats. Colby had a strong defence, while Bates appeared weak in that department. The Garnet players seemed tired after having met West Point, Bowdoin and Colby in a row.

West had a big day in the cage for he was continuously peppered with Bates shots. He acquitted himself well and most of his stops were cleverly made.

The Mules are scheduled to meet New Hampshire State on the Colby ring at 3 tomorrow afternoon. Their next game with Bates, which is here a week from Friday, will be watched with interest as word from Lewiston indicates that Bates will be hot after a Mule hide.

COMPETITION KEEN FOR RELAY BERTHS AT TIME TRIALS

Eight Men Finish in Within One Minute Limit-Three Meets on Schedule

The first trials of the season for the relay candidates were held last Friday afternoon on the board track under the direction of Coach Ryan, with nearly thirty candidates making individual bids against the watch.

The best mark turned in was that of 55 4-5 seconds for the quarter mile distance by Track Captain Sansone. That time is only 4 4-5 seconds behind the college record for that distance on the cinder track.

Eight of the men finished their individual trials within the one minute limit, while the rest of the squad was bunched in the 60 and 70 second class. The men who turned in the best performances with Sansone were: Rivkin, '29, Brown, '29, Newhall, '29, Andrews, '28, D. Christie, '31, Quinton, '30, and Lee, '30.

Considering the fact that the weather conditions under which the men ran were very unfavorable and that the squad had been in active training for only a little over a week after the vacation period, the trials were quite satisfactory according to Coach Ryan.

Three meets are on the Blue and Gray winter schedule. A week from Saturday, January 28, a relay team will be entered in the Massachusetts Knights of Columbus games at the Mechanics Building in Boston. Colby's baton carrier opponents for this meet have not yet been named.

The following week, February 4, another Colby crew will race against Northeastern University and Worcester Polytechnic Institute in a triangular race over the mile distance at the Boston Athletic Association meet in the Boston Arena. Colby will also be represented at the I. C. Four A. games in New York City on March 3rd.

Some of the best of the Ryan material may be taken to the K. C. and B. A. A. encounters and entered in various events, but no definite word had been announced to this effect when the ECHO went to press.

Alden Sprague, '29, like Sansone a veteran from last year's quartet, was out on the sick list last week, but he has been back on the boards during the last couple of days.

Coach Ryan will have to work hard to fill the places left vacant by Miltelsdorf and Baker, who graduated last June, but, if the speed shown in Friday's trials materializes in later practice sessions, the problem is in a fair way of being solved.

Students at Cornell who are subject to four or more colds a year will be treated with violet rays.

Faculty and students of the University of Southern California have pronounced the Honor System a complete failure.

INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL SHOWS GOOD PROSPECTS

Many Changes From Var- ious Quintets of Last Season.

With one week of the 1928 interfraternity basketball league already in the limbo of the past, the teams that have come onto the floor to represent the different groups have shown many changes from the quintets of last year.

Many good men were lost by graduation, but their places may be capably filled by some excellent hoop performers from the freshman class. The yearlings will have to travel high, wide, and handsome, however, to fully replace some of the veterans of last winter's series.

The D. U.'s, who seemed to have the preseason edge on the interfraternity championship and who came through in great style against the K. D. R.'s in the opening game have practically the same lineup as last year, and, at the same time, they are strongly fortified by some good reserve material from the entering class. MacDonald, Klusick, and Nizolek are the mainstays of the North College team with Mansfield, at center, the freshman luminary.

The Phi Dels who won the championship last year and who have either been champs or runners-up for the past five years, are out to cop the coveted title again. They will be weakened, however, by the loss of Scotty Marr, their versatile center, and the probability that Jimmy McCroary, their star forward and the president of this year's league will not be able to play owing to a recent operation. The team appears to be lacking in reserve strength.

The A. T. O.'s are again presenting a strong and fast quintet. Although the deadly shooting of Nickerson and the steady playing of O'Donnell will not be seen, their 1928 edition will be well-balanced with Trainor, Callaghan, Tierney, Trim, and Davis, as veterans and some likely looking first year players.

The other teams are also providing keen competition, and while not so well touted in advance, no prophet is wise enough to accurately predict which crew will land on top of the pile and where the others will finish.

Hannifen and Hines are the outstanding Lambda Chi representatives. The Zetes have three good men in C. Cowing, Dana Simmons, and Larry Arber, who played well for the non-frats last year. The Dekes are being led by Joe Cooke and Wallie Donovan, while Benson and Blakeslee are the best bets for the K. D. R.'s. The Lancers have McKeen, Caulfield, and Knofski and the non-frats can build no mean team around Sprague, Wisnoski, and Slosek.

All in all this should be the best year ever for basketball at Colby. The race will be a hard fought struggle with no forgone conclusions.

But, only think of the varsity team that might be chosen from the players in the league!

FRESHMAN STICKMEN WHITEWASH COBURN

Prep School Not Danger- ous to 1931 Crew at Any Period of Game

With "Red" Lovett accounting for seven of the goals, two of them unassisted, the freshman hockey team had things all its own way by an 8 to 0 margin in the game with Coburn Classical Institute which was played on the college rink yesterday afternoon.

Four counters in the first period, three of them hardly a minute apart; with two more in each of the other sessions tell the story of the encounter. The local prep school men were never dangerous and only rarely had their sticks on the puck.

Lovett, at center, was the key man of the offensive of the yearlings. His work yesterday should earn him a berth on the varsity squad as soon as the one semester rule goes off.

The 1931 crew showed good teamwork throughout, with Scanlon and Kenney playing especially well. Flood and Stewart were Coburn's best men out on the rink. Rancourt in the cage did fine work to keep the score from going higher.

Lovett, Scanlon, and Marsters were members of last year's Coburn team.

The summary:

ZETES SWAMPED BY A. T. O. HOOPSTERS

Former League Champions Make a Successful Season's Start.

Charlie Callaghan and Johnnie Trainor showed that they had lost none of their ability to toes the old ball through the hoop when they led the A. T. O. basket shooters to a 46 to 20 win over the Zeta Psi team last Thursday. It was the first game for each team in this year's league series so it was not surprising that many wrinkles appeared in the playing of both quintets. When these are ironed out the two teams will be ready to make a strong bid for championship honors.

Larry Arber was the best the Zetes had to offer on the floor. He turned in a good afternoon's work with ten points to his credit. Trim and Langley of the A. T. O. and Simmons of the Zetes all played well and furnis-ed the outstanding players with good support.

LANCERS WIN FROM FAST DEKE OUTFIT

Second Interfraternity Game Hard Fought-McKeen Stars for Victors.

Led by "Shooting Shorty" McKeen, the Lancers Club quintet won over the Delta Kappa Epsilon five in the second game of the interfraternity series last Thursday afternoon. The final score of 25 to 22 is indicative of the comparative strength of the two teams.

The Lancer squad exhibited a good passing attack and scored 22 points with the two-point counters to the 12 tallied by the Dekes via the same route. Caulfield and Knofski were powerful cogs in the machine of the Lancers, while Cooke and Donovan played good basketball for the losers.

Klusick handled the whistle and his work was commendable.

Good. That's what it is . . .

No USE trying to put a definition around Camel. It is as diverse and fugitive as the delicate tastes and fragrances that Nature puts in her choicest tobaccos, of which Camel is rolled. Science aids Nature to be sure by blending the tobaccos for subtle smoothness and mildness. One way to describe Camels is just to say, "They are good!"

Somewhat, news of Camel has got around.

Each smoker telling the other, we suppose. At any rate, it's first—in popularity as well as quality. It has beaten every record ever made by a smoke. Modern smokers have lifted it to a new world leadership.

Camels request a place in your appreciation. Try them upon every test known. You'll find them always loyal to your highest standard.

HOCKEY TEAM TO PLAY N. H. STATE

Many Veterans Give Colby Best Ice Prospects In Long Time

DRUMMOND CAPTAIN

With one state series game already gathered in Coaches Roundy and Millett will cut their Blue and Gray puck chasers loose tomorrow afternoon on the Colby rink in the second scheduled encounter of the season with the University of New Hampshire. Captain Dickie Drummond will lead one of the strongest teams to represent the college in recent years on the ice to uphold the Colby laurels against the university crew.

Very little is known of the strength of the Granite State club, but it is rumored that when the White Mule sextet lines up for the fray, it will be in line for a real test of ability with the maple stick and steel runners. N. H. will have to uncork a shining bit of hockey play, if they intend to pack the hide of a certain long-eared white animal, known as the Colby Mule, back to Durham.

No definite lineup has been announced but Coach Roundy will undoubtedly use a large part of the candidates who have been showing up well in the practice sessions which have been in order since the Christmas holidays. Captain Drummond will undoubtedly start again at the center position. Dick has played every position and has shown about equal ability in each, but defense or center seems to fit him best.

George West, a Coburn product, who has seen two seasons' service with the Blue and Gray varsity will probably be reassigned to the goal tending job, although Rupert Irvine of Caribou may have the opportunity to stop the black disc a few times. Irvine substituted for West in the Bates game last year and showed up well.

Bob Scott, of football fame and Captain-elect of the 1928 grid team, has taken to the ice again and has shown improvement over last year. He is a fast and skillful skater and handles his stick well. He will be used in a defense position. John "Sten" Carlson of Norwood, Mass., will probably pair up with Scott in the other defense position. He played defense last year and showed to good advantage. Although Carlson is tall, standing over six feet, he shows marked ability in speeding over the glazed surface and is a hard man for an opponent's offence to slip by.

Edward M. Sturhahn of Hartford, Conn., and Albert J. Thiel of Canton, Mass., seem to have the call for the wing positions. Their work against Bates attests to their ability. Both men saw plenty of service last year and demonstrated class in the puck chasing sport. Sturhahn stepped into a position with the varsity after the end of the first semester when the ban on freshmen was lifted.

Rudolphe J. F. Pomerleau of Waterville and Harry E. Tattersall of New Bedford, Mass., two members of the Junior class have shown improvement since they wore the freshman togs. They both lack a few pounds in weight, but may be able to overcome this handicap by speed and stamina.

There is a goodly number of other candidates out for positions and some of them may make the first string men look to their laurels before the season is well under way.

DEKES ESTABLISH RECORDS IN INTERFRAT BOWLING

Whitewash Zetes in Game Played Saturday--D. U. Leading League.

By taking three points from the Non-Frats yesterday, while the Dekes whitewashed the Zetes on Saturday, Delta Upsilon tumbled Zeta Psi from the sun berth and assumed the lead in the interfraternity bowling league. The Zetes have previously been out in front ever since the alley competition started.

The Dekes set up two new records in their match last Saturday when they hit 504 for team single, one pin better than the old mark held by the D. U.'s, and clipped 1427 for the team total honors, displacing another D. U. figure of 1378 pins.

The standing of the league this noon:

	W.	L.	%
Delta Upsilon	21	7	.756
Zeta Psi	16	8	.666
Delta Kappa Epsilon	12	8	.600
Non-Fraternity	10	18	.357
Lambda Chi Alpha	6	14	.300
Kappa Delta Iota	7	17	.292

Records.
Single string, Mansfield, D. U., 121.
Three strings, Scannon, Zetes, 313.
Team single, Dekes, 504.
Team total, Dekes, 1427.
Average, 90 or better: Scannon 97, Mansfield 94, Delaware 92, Drummond 92, Miller 92, Hinds 91, Cooke 91, McKay 91, Harlow 91, Cobb 91, Grant 90, West 90, Lovett 90.

CHEMICAL EXHIBIT RECENTLY RECEIVED

Sixty-nine Samples Gift of Grasselli Chemical Co. of Cleveland.

Sixty-nine samples of pure chemicals, the gift of the Grasselli Chemical Company of Cleveland, Ohio, are on display in the outer office of the chemistry department in Chemical Hall.

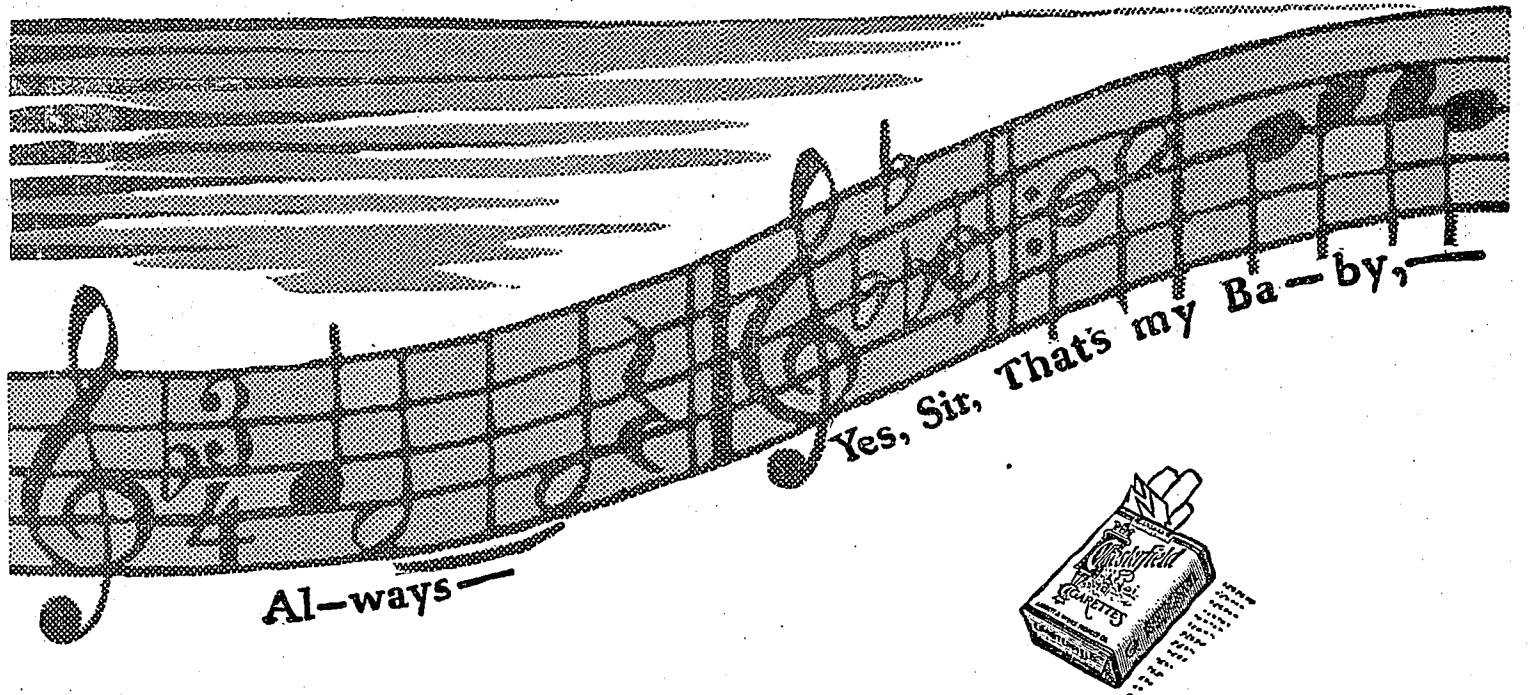

The exhibit includes specimens of acids, bases, salts, sulphur in its many forms, and other elements and compounds.

The Grasselli Chemical Company, manufacturers of pure chemicals, is one of the largest concerns engaged in the industry. It was established in 1839 and is one of the pioneer chemical producers. Through these exhibits which are being presented to the various colleges of the country, the company is endeavoring to demonstrate to students the value of pure chemicals.

Sons of Colby is composed of a select group of twelve jazz artists.

The Waterville concert of the Clubs will be given at the City Opera House on Friday evening, February 17. At this time Miss Ruth Park of Fairfield, a member of the women's division, and a talented violinist, will be the guest artist for the occasion. Cecil E. Foote, '28, of Holyoke, Mass., who scored a hit in the fall presentation of Powder and Wig, is the reader.

After the mid-year examination period the Clubs will start on a four-day northern trip. On this tour concerts will be given on February 7, 8, 9, and 10 at Smyrna Mills, Houlton, Millinocket, and Hampden.
