

UPSILON BETA HOLDS ANNUAL INITIATION

Spectacular Costumes Cause
Merriment as Frosh
Parade

Colby became a scene of cavemen, Roman gladiators, and fair, daintily-dressed damsels Thursday, May 8, when the freshman honorary society of Upsilon Beta first turned its "few chosen candidates" upon the mercy of an interested faculty and student body. This parade, lasting Thursday and Friday mornings, and terminating Saturday afternoon, led the neophytes to be rejected, or rather "bounced" from their classes, added spice to the program of the women's chapel, and caused many townspeople to contract stiff necks.

Not content with showing off their costumes about the campus and city, the U. B.'s were allowed to entertain the patrons of Saturday's Colby-Bowdoin game. First on the program was a one-act tragedy, starring Malcolm Wilson, a caveman in a bear robe, Arthur Austin, another caveman in a lion's robe, and Harry T. Jordan, the fair maiden with the parasol; setting, nature's carpet of grass; time, rock ages. The innocent maid is strolling by the amphitheater in quest of the air when Wilson, the sneaking, scheming villain, pounces upon her. Climax, Austin, strong, brave beast that he is, rushes from his ambush and spears the villain dead. A pretty romance. The U. B.'s continued to entertain their audience through the remainder of the game with songs and speeches. John H. Hill, of Waterville even obliged the "co-ords" by passing out cigarette "butts." The rendition of Colby's "On To Victory" was a fitting finale for the "unfortunate" initiation.

Following the initiation of the candidates in Chemical Hall, in which Philip Thibideau, '32, of Brookline, Mass., presided as the bursar of last (Continued on page 2)

Individual Pictures To Be Taken Here

On Thursday afternoon, May 15, a commercial photographer will visit the campus to take small individual pictures in rapid succession. The purpose of these pictures is that we may without expense to students have small photographs for our personnel cards. It is almost the uniform practice in all colleges and high grade secondary schools to retain a photograph of each student who attends the school. The photographer sells these pictures to individual students who wish to buy them at the rate of 6 for 25 cents.

A definite schedule has been arranged for the men's division, by classes, as follows: French Room, Chemical Hall:

Seniors, 1.30 P. M.
Juniors, 2.00 P. M.
Freshmen, 2.30 P. M.
Sophomores, 3.00 P. M.

The schedule for the women's division, beginning at 4.00 o'clock, has been posted at Foss Hall.

All students are urged to appear at the place and hour assigned for their class, in order that we may have as complete a photographic record as possible. Those who fail of this free opportunity to have the photograph taken will probably be required next fall to furnish a record photograph at their own expense.

ZETES HOLD THEIR ANNUAL BALL AT LAKEWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, 140 PRESENT

The Lakewood Country Club, Skowhegan, was the scene Friday evening of what has been termed "one of the best formal dances in the Colby college social circles this year." The affair was the annual Zeta Psi fraternity formal ball. About 70 couples were present.

Dancing lasted from eight P. M. until 1 A. M., to music furnished by the original "Cotton Pickers" orchestra from Boston; an orchestra of 15 pieces. The country club was very attractively decorated and the dainty evening gowns added a charming touch to the scene.

During the intermission refreshments were served by the dance committee. They consisted of cake, ice cream with fraternity song set in, and punch. Members of the freshman class served the refreshments.

Patrons and patronesses were as

MAY 16 IS SELECTED AS "CITIZENS' DAY"

Professor Morrow Writes
On Day's Program

The President and Faculty of Colby College, recognizing the benefits of a better mutual acquaintance, are holding this spring a Citizens' Day in order that the men and women of Waterville and vicinity may be afforded an opportunity of observing at first hand the regular routine work of the college and of inspecting for themselves the facilities and equipment of the college.

Accordingly, we are setting apart Friday, May 16, as Citizens' Day at Colby, and we do hereby extend a hearty invitation to all the men and women of Waterville and vicinity to visit the college between the hours of 9 A. M. and 12.00 M., and between 1.30 and 3.30 P. M., with a special invitation to attend the assembly in the chapel at 9.55 A. M., when President Johnson will be the speaker. Seats will be reserved for visitors until 9.50 A. M., after which time students will be admitted.

Guides will be provided to welcome you and to show you around on the campus at the various recitation buildings as well as at Foss Hall and at the new Alumnae building, and we earnestly hope that you will reserve at least some part of Friday, May 16, for visiting Colby and observing the type of work which is being carried on in your midst.

Prof. Curtis H. Morrow,
Chairman.

Women To Vote On Taxation Question

The executive board of the women's division of Student Government presented to the women at a mass meeting last Friday, the proposition of having a "Blanket Tax" similar to that which has been adopted by the men's division.

The main additions to the semester bills include in this tax would be Colby Day and May Day dues which would eliminate individual assessment and collecting as has been the custom in the past. The plan will be voted on, some time this week.

ANNUAL BAR HARBOR TRIP STARTS AT NOON TOMORROW

Dr. Perkins and Geology
Group Will Study
Physiography

Thirty-five geology students will leave the college at 1 P. M., tomorrow by automobile, for the annual geological field trip to Mount Desert Island, returning late Saturday evening.

The annual Mount Desert Geological field trip was started a number of years ago by Professor Homer P. Little, former professor of geology at Colby, now dean at Clark University, Worcester, Mass., and has been continued by Dr. Edward H. Perkins, head of the geology department since he came to Colby in 1920.

Mount Desert Island furnishes one of the best natural laboratories for the study of geology and physiography in the United States. It offers nearly all of the features developed by wave-work and erosion along the coast. It also offers features found and developed in mountains; a topography sculptured by glacial erosion and deposition, and a bed rock structure complex and interesting enough to please any student of petrology.

Mount Desert Island is a spot of unrivaled scenic beauty, attracting many thousands of summer residents and visitors yearly. Acadia National Park, which was the first national park established east of the Mississippi river is located on the island.

The party will leave Foss Hall at 1 o'clock Thursday, in charge of Dr. Edward H. Perkins, professor of geology, and Miss Corinne B. Van Norman, instructor of hygiene and physical education for women.

President Johnson In Kappa Phi Kappa

President Franklin W. Johnson was initiated into the honorary educational society of Kappa Phi Kappa last Thursday evening at the meeting of the society held at the home of Prof. Edward J. Colgan. Edgar B. McKay, '30, of Waterville, president of the society, conducted the initiation ceremonies and presided over the meeting. President Johnson gave the address of the evening and spoke on some phases of secondary school education. The Kappa Phi Kappa society is made up of those who are planning to enter the teaching profession and who have attained certain standards of scholarship in their college work. It is a national organization with about thirty chapters, the Colby chapter being the fourth one founded in the United States.

Carola Loos Is Much Improved Tonight

A report from the Sister's Hospital at present time was to the effect that Miss Carola Loos, who is seriously ill following a surgical operation a few days ago, is resting much more comfortably today. Without another relapse, Miss Loos, whose home is in Ennet Orange, N. J., has an even chance of recovery, according to hospital authorities.

MISS MACDOUGALL IS SPEAKER AT Y. W. MEET

Gives Fine Report of National Convention at Detroit

At the weekly Y. W. C. A. meeting held at the Alumnae Building, Tuesday evening, May 13, Muriel J. MacDougall, '31, gave an inspirational report of the National Biennial Y. W. C. A. convention which she attended recently at Detroit, Mich.

Miss MacDougall spoke especially of the discussions of two of the five convention groups; the student group and the industrial girl group, relaying to her audience the messages of the convention leaders. She told how Miss Harper of England astounded her student audiences with statistics concerning the wealth and labor problems of the United States and how she stimulated them to action with the words, "You students are lax. You don't care. You are taking an education on religion." Miss MacDougall continued, "He stressed the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. and said that disinterested among students was the worst fault with them in the United States and that religion ought to be practiced."

From her experience at the convention with the international and interracial groups, Miss MacDougall said that she felt that better understanding between other nations and races (Continued on page 2)

Five Undergraduates Join Pi Kappa Delta

Monday evening at the conclusion of the Goodwin Speaking contest the Maine Alpha chapter of Pi Kappa Delta held its annual initiation in Chemical Hall. Five members were admitted into the mysteries of the fraternity. All the men have participated in more than one debate during the past season. The new members were: George F. Sprague, '31, of Danforth; Rupert L. Loring, '31, of Oaspee; Frederick R. Knox, '31, of Concord; Arthur T. Wasserman, '33, of Dorchester, Mass.; and Millan L. Egbert, '30, of York.

After the initiation ceremony the officers were elected for the coming year and were then installed by the retiring president, Norman D. Palmer, '30, of Ellinckley. The newly elected officers are:

President, George F. Sprague, '31.
Vice president, Rupert L. Loring, '31.

Secretary-treasurer, Arthur T. Wasserman, '33.

Corresponding secretary, Frederick R. Knox, '31.

Manager of debate, Harold F. LeMoine, '32.

The annual Pi Kappa Delta banquet will be held next Tuesday evening, to which men interested in debating will be invited.

JOHN A. WEBB IS MADE PRESIDENT OF NEW COLBY CONCERT BOARD

COLLEGE PLAY IS NOW ASSUMING SHAPE

Commencement Production
Has Talented Cast

Rehearsals for the college play, "Mr. Pim Passes By," began two weeks ago under the direction of Prof. Cecil A. Rollins, and are being held nearly every day to insure the students of Colby and the citizens of Waterville of the best possible production of this popular play by A. A. Milne, during Commencement week. The members of the cast are taking great interest in their work and are doing well in moulding themselves into the different roles. Prof. Rollins hopes to have at least one rehearsal this week at the Opera House to attend to details of voice and action.

Probably the two most difficult parts are those of Olivia and George Marden, taken by Miss Ruth Park and Mr. Clarence Arber respectively. Besides being exceptionally long these roles call for a great deal of acting, but they are certainly in capable hands, as both Miss Park and Mr. Arber have had experience in several other college plays.

The title role of Mr. Pim is taken by Mr. Donald Kellogg. Mr. Kellogg has developed a peculiar drawl and hesitancy in his voice, in this part which is very effective.

Miss Tina Thompson is charming as Dinah, Olivia's niece, who carries on a love affair with Brian Strange, an artist of the modern school—painter of "square clouds" and "triangular sheep" played by Mr. Robert Beals.

Lady Julia Marden, George's aunt, is played by Miss Gertrude Snowden. Lady Marden is an elderly lady who "knows her own mind" and "speaks what she thinks." In doing this she furnishes some comedy in the midst of strained circumstances.

Miss Alma Glidden plays the part of Anne, maid in the Marden ménage. Anne is kept busy showing Mr. Pim in and out when he comes on his trouble-making calls.

"Mr. Pim Passes By" is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York.

GEORGE F. SPRAGUE WINS IN CONTEST

Disarmament Is Subject Of
Goodwin Speakers' Orations

George F. Sprague, '31, of Danforth, won the 20th annual Goodwin Prize Speaking Contest held in the college chapel, Monday evening. Speaking on the subject "America and World Peace," Sprague was easily the outstanding speaker in the contest. His manner of presentation and his pleasant, smooth voice had much to do with his winning the contest. His subject was a good one and he brought out clearly the part the United States had played in the peace of the world and went on to tell of the future possibilities of America in the plans of world peace.

Second place was won by Bernard Hardin Porter, '32, of Houlton. He spoke on the subject of "The Church" (Continued on page 4)

COLBY ENTERTAINS COLLEGE SOCIAL SCIENCE INSTRUCTORS' CONFERENCE

The conference of the social science faculty members of the four Maine colleges was held at Colby on Friday evening and Saturday forenoon. Dr. Curtis H. Morrow, head of the economics department at Colby, organized the conference and was in charge of the meetings.

The conference began with a dinner at the Elmwood hotel, following which the delegates adjourned to the special room of the Alumnae Building and discussed the question of an orientation course in the field of social science for freshmen.

On Saturday, they divided into groups, according to their special interests, namely: Business, Economics,

Cummings Elected as Secretary, Treasurer, Eleanor A. Rogers

John A. Webb, '31, of Brockton, Mass., was elected president of the Colby Concert Board for the season of 1931, at the election of officers which followed a banquet at the Elmwood hotel, last Saturday night. Miss Eleanor A. Rogers, '32, of Haverhill, Mass., was made treasurer, and Richard Cummings, '32, of Newton, Mass., was elected to the office of secretary of the board. Mr. Webb announced that according to the specifications of the new working constitution, the board had unanimously elected Prof. Everett F. Strong as faculty adviser of the organization.

The three new members of the board were the honored guests at the banquet of this year's group, Justina M. Harding, '32, Rebecca M. Chester, '33, and G. Donald Smith, '33, were the new members who were elected to the board at the last meeting of the sponsors of this year's Concert Series. The sponsors are all students who bought season tickets to the 1930 series.

The banquet was also a final meeting of the board with the senior members who are retiring. Miss Mary K. Wasgatt, '30, served on the board this year and Edgar B. McKay, '30, was elected chairman last spring. His numerous other activities required him to resign the chairmanship, but his work was largely responsible for making this concert season a success.

The three members who were re-elected are next year's officers. The new president, John A. Webb, has been foremost in promoting the project of a concert series at Colby. This last season he acted as secretary and unofficial chairman of the organization. He edited the programs this year, securing all the advertisements and writing all the program notes. He has taken care of the entertainment of all three artists during their stay in Waterville this season. It was largely through Mr. Webb's acquaintance with Mr. Lenome of the New England Conservatory of Music that such a high grade of talent was secured for the nominal sum which the board had at its disposal.

Portland Evening News Runs "Colby Comment"

The Portland Evening News has been running a feature every Saturday evening which is of special interest to Colby students. The department is called "Colby Comments" and consists of a short article describing some phase of Colby life or giving some anecdotes from Colby's history. It is not often that a modern newspaper will give space for anything except routine news, and therefore, Colby people will find that this journal devotes an unusual amount of space to material concerning this college.

To illustrate the type of matter touched by the "Colby Comments" column, the subjects for the last few Saturdays have been as follows:

Colby Baseball History.
Public Speaking at Colby.
Ben Butler Anecdotes.
The Students vs. President Chaplin.
Achievements of Colby Debating Teams.
Traveling in Colby's Early Days.
The New Colby.
Music at Colby.
Debating at Colby.

Sociology and Government. All the delegates convened for a business session and luncheon. The faculty members who were present included the following:
 Bates College—Prof. J. M. Carroll and Prof. A. M. Myhrman.
 Bowdoin College—Prof. Warren B. Catlin, Prof. Albert Abrahamson, Prof. William W. Lockwood, Jr.
 Colby College—Prof. Curtis H. Morrow, Prof. William J. Wilkinson, Prof. A. Galen Eustis, Prof. Thomas M. Griffiths, Prof. W. N. Brockinridge.
 University of Maine—Prof. C. G. Garland, Prof. J. H. Ashworth, Prof. Evelyn Buehan, Prof. W. W. Chadbourne, Prof. H. B. Kirshon.

A DIRECTOR:

The need of a full time musical director at Colby has long been felt by those individuals connected with the college. In most institutions of learning there is a course offered in some sort of music because those in charge realize that nearly every student, no matter what course of study he is pursuing, has a liking for music in his makeup and would like to increase his knowledge of the subject. So it is with Colby.

Every year a band composed of college men has been organized to play at the football games. These bands have not always been everything that could be desired. In fact most of them have been noticeably weak in comparison with those of the other Maine colleges. Every year, also, the Glee Club has met and put on a program of entertainment.

Of the two groups the band and the Glee Club, the latter has had the better organization but until the past season the quality of the program has been decidedly mediocre. This year, under the direction of Mr. John Thomas of Waterville, the club had one of the most successful seasons that it has ever had. Rehearsals were conducted for several months before a concert was attempted and when the concert did take place it was well attended. Public comment was extremely favorable.

This instance alone shows the powerful influence that a capable director has toward producing the best that a group of students has to offer. The students themselves feel that they have really gained something from being under Mr. Thomas' direction. His long experience with choral groups enabled the members of the club to understand and interpret those numbers of the great music writers that were presented in the concerts.

Any public appearance of Colby students is representative of Colby itself. A good showing by a band or Glee Club is as important as a championship athletic team and will draw as many students to the college.

Colby can well afford to profit by past experiences in this matter and arrange for a department in which the students can become better fitted to take part in musical activity. A skilled musical group is a good advertisement for the quality of learning that a college affords and a competent person that could take charge of all musical groups would be a decided asset to the institution.

It is easy to be loyal to Colby when the flags are flying and the bands are playing, but, as in love and etiquette, loyalty is best manifested in little things. Mother nature is clothing the campus with a beautiful gown, which should not be soiled with matches, paper, cigarettes, and other unsightly refuse. During the game last Saturday, a line of cars was parked ON THE GRASS on either side of the road leading from the Lambda Chi Alpha house to College Avenue. Sunday that part of the campus looked like a washboard. Among the cars, several were recognized as belonging to students. Don't do it!

Dear Editor:

The foreword of the "Student's League of the Women's Division" which was formed in 1917 (and evidently has remained unchanged—note its quaint quality) states that "intellectual as well as physical freedom can be obtained only by obedience to reasonable rules." If this be so, we fear that the League has failed utterly, for the most antiquated of rules remain. Of course, we are deeply grateful for permission to attend church unchaperoned, and indeed, pious beings that we are, we wouldn't miss our strawberry festival for anything! Then too we agree that Freshmen should not by any means be allowed to walk with men after 7.30 during the first semester. How risqué! We wonder whether the rule so stringently enforced concerning Freshmen walking after the movies on Thursday night has been overlooked in the Council's newly issued pamphlet? We are frightfully disappointed for we couldn't find it anywhere and think it a shame not to campus as many girls as possible. As for motoring—but then, just why should Freshmen and Sophomores be trusted?

There are so many insignificant, petty, trivial little rules that it seems inconceivable for the purpose of the League to be: "to promote the spirit of mutual happiness, service, and personal responsibility among the students and to strengthen their loyalty toward the college." "The League should practice according to its principles—we have often found that the more rules there are to break, the more facile it is to break them. This breeds disapproval, disrespect, discontent, and desertion!"

Co-ed.

Field Day Planned For Colby Women

On the Wednesday afternoon of May 28, the annual Field Day exercises will be held on the women's athletic field. The class championships for tennis and speed ball will be played off, and letters will be awarded. A picnic supper will follow.

Those playing in the semi-final tennis games are: Seniors, Jean M. MacDonald, Manager, Elizabeth J. Bottomley, Beatrice Mullen, Louise Greason, Rena J. Mills, Pauline Smith, Mina A. Higgins, and Marjorie M. MacLaughlin; Juniors, Thelma Chase, manager, Ruth Pineo, Anna W. Macomber, Marjory H. Dearborn, Helen G. Ramsey, Doris M. Spencer, Maxine S. Foster, Barbara C. Hamlin; Sophomores, Marcia Daye, manager, Ruth E. Ramsdell, Gwendolyn G. Mardin, Martha L. Hamilton, Phyllis E. Hamlin, Winifred E. Hammett, Kathryn C. Hilton, Marion A. Lewis, Martha Johnston, Amelia M. Bliss, Pauline D. Russell, Tina C. Thompson; Lucile F. Blanchard, and Ruth E. Brown; Freshmen, Florence B. Allen, manager, Florence E. Bilodeau, Eleanor Rowell, Rowena Loane, Margaret Yates, Ruth A. Leighton, Louise C. Smith, and Hazel M. Lawrence.

Class managers for speed ball are: Senior, Helen A. Chase; Junior, Barbara Heath; Sophomore, Marcia Daye; Freshmen, Elizabeth E. Haley.

REV. PAUL CAYER TELLS ABOUT HENRIETTE AUDIN.

The members of the French Club were entertained Tuesday evening, May 13, by Rev. Paul Cayer, pastor of the French Baptist Church of Waterville.

Mr. Cayer told the story of the life of Henriette Audin who, overcoming great hardships, founded in Canada in 1835, a preparatory school for McGill and Toronto Universities. Bridge played in French was enjoyed after the lecture.

was the solution of world peace. In reporting the joint meeting of student and industrial girls, she gave the criticisms of college women which the industrial girls expressed, that the students are snobbish and heartless, criticizing the industrial girls for not lifting themselves to higher levels, forming the labor laws for them, yet never seeing them at work. Highly commending the student industrial experiment by which students pose as industrial girls and work in factories for periods of six weeks to better understand the conditions, Miss MacDougall said, "It is our duty as students to take up the responsibility of finding out about the problems on which we are voting, so that we may vote intelligently."

year's Upsilon Beta group, the new members enjoyed a banquet at Messalonskee Inn. The freshmen were entertained with speeches by senior members of the society, and "Doc" Edwards told them several things about college life in general, stressing the ideals of the Upsilon Beta society.

The election of Arthur R. Austin of Waterville as bursar, or president of the society, was held as the final part of the ceremonies. "Art" is one of the most popular men in the freshman class and the election was well favored. He played a strong game at guard on the freshman football team last fall and will be an outstanding candidate for the varsity crew next year. He is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

The men honored by initiation into the society were:

Delta Kappa Epsilon—Harry T. Jordan of Lansdowne, Pa., and Raymond O. Knauff of Waterville.

Zeta Psi—Chester A. Dyer of Dover-Foxcroft and Howard E. Watson of Augusta.

Delta Upsilon—Tillson C. Thomas of Camden and John F. McCann of Brownville Junction.

Alpha Tau Omega—Stanley C. Hersey of Waterville and Arthur R. Austin of Waterville.

Phi Delta Theta—William M. Wilson of Framingham, Mass., and John H. Hill of Waterville.

Lambda Chi Alpha—Perry G. Wortman of Greenville and Emery S. Dunfee of Monson.

Kappa Delta Rho—Irving M. Malsch of Waterville, Conn., and Kenneth W. Raymond of Fort Fairfield.

Theta Kappa Nu—Lloyd W. Bolster of South Sebect Station and Mangle E. Cole of Linneus.

Maine Has Edge In 7-6 Contest Yesterday

Maine got away with Colby 7 to 6 yesterday afternoon and was lucky, at that. For six innings it was about all Maine as they had piled up seven runs mostly earned, pounding Roberts out of the box and using Brown just about as bad. Colby was doing but little with hitting, the sophomore hurler who had replaced Solander who had gone out from a bad crack in the leg. Nutting was wild but fanned 13 Colby sluggers and near sluggers in the course of events. Things began to break for Colby in the 8th with walks, a single by Lovett, infield bobbles and a drive by Waite which got away from an outfielder and rolled a mile and all made four runs. In the 9th the Maine fans came near nervous prostration as Nutting walked a couple of men, a passed ball, hit and infield error brought Colby into a situation with two down, bases loaded, one run only needed to tie and Heddericg up. The Colby back-stop had a chance to be a hero as a good crack might have won the old ball game but he did a Casey and it was all over. The score:

Ineligibility Causes Defeat At Middlebury

Middlebury track team defeated Colby 86½ to 52½, Friday afternoon, in a duel meet at Middlebury. Colby's chances of winning were lost when Pollard and Robinson, Mike Ryan's best performers, were unable to compete because of ineligibility; Stinchfield, a promising vault, was taken ill the last moment and, also, was unable to enter. Colby's showing was not without high-lights, however; Tom Treworgy threw the javelin to a new dual meet and Colby record, which he held previously, and on top of this performance he added a second in the pole vault. The performances of Martin in the dashes and Fletcher in the hurdles was, also, outstanding. Martin won both dashes handily and Fletcher duplicated his feat in the hurdle events, and took third in the high jump.

Middlebury clinched the meet when it took all three places in the broad jump and two mile; Colby, however, placed well in all the other events. George Sprague, in his first dual meet, placed second in the shot put and repeated in the hammer, which Bob Lunt won with a toss of 137 feet 10 inches. Perkins made it a clean sweep in the hammer when he captured third.

The summary:

Colby Beats Bates Bobcats by 9-5 Score

Colby's White Mules journeyed to Lewiston last Wednesday and smeared the Bates Bobcats 9 to 5. Although Bates found Mansfield and Waite for 10 bingles and 16 bases. Colby twirlers set them back in the pinches. Colby smashed through in the third stanza to break a one run deadlock, and went to the front by four runs.

The next inning found the Waterville sticklers piling up a couple more runs. The 6th inning found Mansfield in difficulty and Johnny Waite was sent in and checked the Bates rally. The remaining four innings found the Lewiston aggregation breaking their backs to garner but two bingles off Waite's speedy delivery.

Tough Break Loses Alumni Day Game

Alumni Day proved to be a heart-breaker for the Colby baseball club. The existing deadlock for first place in the State Series was an incentive for heads-up baseball, when both clubs started out with a vengeance. The Mules pushed over three runs in the first inning. In the third Ferguson drew a base on balls and scored when Deetjen smacked a homer to right field.

Bowdoin found Brown for three singles in the fourth, and pushed over two runs, but Colby came back in their half to raise their total one run on an error and a double by Klusick. In the fifth the Polar Bears got to Brown for four runs. Waite was sent in for Brown.

In the sixth Klusick scored. Deet-jen then proceeded to clout out his second homer. The score now stood Colby 8, Bowdoin 6.

In the seventh Bowdoin pushed one more over on Shute's homer and Roundy yanked Waite and sent in Mansfield. The Houser clan tied the score in the eighth.

Colby failed to do anything in their half of the eighth. In Bowdoin's ninth Ricker singled as did Whittier and they both came home on Dwyer's bingle.

With three men on in the last of the ninth, one man down Klusick slammed one of Souther's fast ones straight on a line for left field, but Whittier leaped into the air, grabbed the ball and touched Davan.

Yearlings In First Win This Season

Bill Millet's yearlings came through for the first win of the season by defeating the Waterville High School outfit. The final outcome was five runs for the frosh and one for the high schoolers. The game, though only lasting five innings, was filled with many spectacular plays. Irv Malsch for the freshmen pitched a nice brand of ball, while Thomas and Walker contributed with their hitting. The summary:

Freshman in 7-4 Win After 15 Inning Tilt

Rain at the end of the fifth inning won a game for the Colby freshmen yesterday afternoon when the game was called with the baby mules on the long end of a 7 to 4 count in the tilt with Higgins Classical Institute. For the first time this season the frosh showed real hitting power and drove the starting Higgins pitcher to cover in the second inning. In the first inning the visitors put over a couple of runs on Tom Foley's error at short-stop. But the frosh came right back and netted three runs of their own in the opening frame. In the second inning Farnham, Higgins' ace, came into the box after three successive two baggers, by Ackley, Holmes and Foley had driven in a couple of runs after Walker had already counted.

The Colby tennis team will leave tomorrow morning for Brunswick where the annual state tournament will be conducted under the auspices of Bowdoin college. The five Colby men who will take part in the state tournament are: Captain Robert Allen, Jr., '31, of New Bedford, Mass.; Gerald A. Johnson, '30, of Waterville; Forest C. Tyson, '32, of Augusta; Robert J. Finch, '33, of Cranford, N. J.; and John I. Pagan, '30, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Kappa Deltis Hold Spring Tea Dance

After the baseball game last Saturday the Kappa Delta Rho fraternity held a tea dance at the fraternity house on Elm street. A buffet supper was served to the twenty-five couples who attended.

That spring is here was shown by the gay spring outfits that were worn by the young ladies, and by the white flannels and blue coats which predominated among the men.

Dancing was confined to the hall and two reception rooms as the fraternity dining room was set for the supper. Refreshments consisted of a variety of sandwiches and cakes. Mrs. L. L. Cadwallader and Mrs. E. J. Colgan poured tea. After the supper dancing was resumed and continued until seven-thirty.

The patronesses were: Mrs. L. L. Cadwallader, Mrs. Euclid Helie, Mrs. Edward Colgan, Mrs. T. B. Ashcraft, and Miss Elsie Lewis.

The dance committee consisted of Robert W. Stewart, '31, of Hudson, Mass., chairman; S. Curtis Blakeslee, '30, of Troy, N. Y.; and Dana A. Jordan, '33, of Cape Elizabeth.

and World Peace." He impressed the audience and the judges with the seriousness of his subject and pointed out some facts about the church not commonly known. He delved into the historical element of the church in its relation to peace and concluded with a vivid declaration as to the importance of the church today.

Third and fourth prizes will be divided between Harold F. Lemoine, '32, of Kennebunk, and Millan L. Egert, '30, of York Village. Mr. Lemoine spoke on "Christianity and Peace." Mr. Egert spoke on "Disarmament as a Means to International Peace."

For winning the contest Mr. Sprague will receive a prize of $50. Mr. Porter will receive $25 and Mr. Lemoine and Mr. Egert will divide equally third and fourth prizes of $15 and $10 or $12.50 each.

The judges of the contest were Judge Max L. Pinansky of Portland, Col. Francis H. Farnum of Augusta, and Dr. George Merriam, '79, of Skowhegan. Professor Clarence H. White was the presiding officer. Those who spoke in the contest and their subjects were:

"Christianity and Peace," Harold F. Lemoine; "The Way to Peace," Richard D. Williamson; "I Don't Care," John A. Webb; "A Means to Peace," Rupert L. Loring; "The Way to Peace," Edward W. Maddocks; "The Church and World Peace," Bernard H. Porter; "A Crimson Cross of the Orient," Richard Cummings; "John Bull and Uncle Sam," Clarence H. Saturday of this week the annual Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Meet will be held at Brunswick, Maine is being held as the top-heavy favorite with a well balanced congregation of track men. Bates should be the runner-up with a team replete with stars. Colby and Bowdoin will probably have to fight it out for third and fourth places. The Colby team has been largely handicapped due to the lack of training facilities and the loss of valuable men due to ineligibility. It is extremely doubtful whether Tom Hodkewicz, a quarter miler and Hurlburt, also of that distance, will be available. Both are laid up because of injuries at present.

Colby's point chances seems to lie largely in the capabilities of the weight men and the sprinters. Lunt, Sprague, and Perkins should share some points in the hammer throw. The sprinters, Captain Giles and Martin, should have a good field to cope with but should be good for several points. Fletcher looks good in the hurdles and Treworgy is a consistent performer in the javelin and also in the pole vault.

PRES. AND MRS. JOHNSON ENTERTAIN SENIOR CLASS

President and Mrs. Franklin W. Johnson entertained the students of the senior class last Sunday afternoon at an informal reception in the President's home on College avenue. Nearly all of the faculty were present and an enjoyable social gathering was held between the students and faculty. In order to avoid crowding, the senior class men whose names begin with letters up to K and women up to M were invited to come at 3 o'clock and the remainder came at 4.30.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet meeting held at the Alumnae Building, Monday afternoon, May 12, took the form of a tea in honor of Jean Dayton, student secretary of the Northern Baptist Convention.

It was decided to have two foreign students visit Colby next year for the purpose of creating a better understanding between the two types of students. Plans were discussed for Colby's entrance into the Student Industrial Movement through the Portland Y. W. C. A.

the ticket committee of the woman's division this past season. The board judged that the efficiency she displayed in selling tickets and in keeping minute account of the money and tickets returned, warranted her election to the exacting office of treasurer. Richard Cummings was made secretary after having served as chairman of the General Student Ticket Committee during the 1929 season.

The banquet served the triple purpose of providing a final meeting with the retiring members, welcoming the new members and acquainting them with the work of the board. A few informal talks and a short business meeting after the banquet served this purpose in a very pleasant manner.

In the role of toastmaster Mr. Webb called on Miss Rogers to welcome the new members. She issued a friendly warning that their honorable position would require a good humor, a long tongue and an itching palm. Richard Cummings, in the absence of Mr. McKay, outlined briefly the history of the board and pointed to the work of the future. The informal talks were concluded by Prof. Strong who thanked the group for the gift of a fountain pen which they presented to him, and said a word of thanks and farewell to the senior members.

In the short business meeting which followed, it was decided that the board should plan for three concerts during the coming season. The group was told of the many requests by artists to appear before a Colby audience which have been tendered to Prof. Strong by correspondence. All the members are going to be on the lookout during the vacation for potential artists for next winter's season and report them to the board next fall.

Further plans for next year's concert series at Colby will be formulated in subsequent meetings. All the plans and proceedings which the now concert board will carry out will be reported to the student sponsors through the columns of the ECHO.
