EDITOR: JOHN H. SUTHERLAND

Editorial readers are drawn, for the most part, from the Colby College English Department.

Articles on any aspect of literature in English will be considered for publication. The Quarterly takes a special interest in Maine and regional history, as well as literature (regional includes adjacent Canadian provinces and American states). We also take special interest in authors well represented in the Colby College Library special collections (e.g., Thomas Hardy, Henry James, Ellen Glasgow, modern Irish writers). Other special interests include the relationships of art and literature, and the relationships of psychology, history, and literature.

Manuscripts are welcome. They should be prepared in conformity with The MLA Style Sheet, and should be accompanied by a self-addressed envelope and return postage. All manuscripts will be acknowledged, and every effort will be made to reach an editorial decision within four to eight weeks.

All manuscripts and business communications should be directed to the editor.
