WORLD FAMOUS DRAMA

Ibsen's play, A Doll's House, was played first in Copenhagen in 1879. That date marks the beginning of the modern era in the theater. It is, then, a highly significant play which the Colby Dramatic Art class will produce at the Alumnae Building on Thursday; April 28, at eight o'clock. The setting and lighting will suggest the proper background for the exciting events of the play, and costumes and properties will be in keeping. The actors are capable, among the best that the college affords. The audience McGee, 2b ____ 3 1 2 2 will have the unusual opportunity of seeing a great play given a balanced and fitting production; it is hoped that students and townspeople will attend in large numbers.

ODE TO THE QUEEN (Phyllis Hamlin)

Within you dwell Eternal joy and gaiety.-And in your eyes there ever lies A buoyant spontaneity!

You stand before us, glad, serene, As well befits a lovely queen; And we, your subjects for the night,

Bow low before your throne, Paying tribute to a happy sprite, Who rules with smiles alone.

But hark the throbbing of the drum!

The song of the dance-it bids us comoi No longer may we tarry,

For ours, the task to carry A fairy Queen with magic wand Away, away to Wonderland.

O Ariol, Within you clwolls A spirit that is doubless! So, morry sprite, Danco, dance tonight, Though rovols leave you breath-

THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1932.

ONE OUT OF ONE-HUNDRED-FIFTY.

Colby College has been chosen as the only Maine college and one of a very few in New England to partake in a nation-wide program of intelligence examinations to college groups. On May 3 and 4 one hundred and fifty colleges in the country will give tests to their sophomore classes, tests that will enable each college to measure its educational standing, and on these dates Colby will incidentally embark upon its most important educational diagnosis in history.

The test will be composed of:

- A General intelligence test of thirty minutes.
- The Social Science field groups.
- The natural science groups of a general nature.
- English, literature, grammar, and vocabulary.
- And the informational part of foreign literature.

The purposes of this test are what make it so note-worthy. The examination is designed to:

- 1. Give the liberal arts college data for enacting changes in their cur-
- 2. Investigate the logic behind required courses;
- 3. Help solve the problem concerning the dividing point and similarity between the junior and senior colleges;
- 4. For the comparison of Colby with other colleges:
- 5. And, what is most important, find out the student's weaknesses to determine the course he should pursue.

It seems that the Colby student cannot be aroused by appeal, protest, or challenge, but it is possible that he might rest his gum over a fact. He agitated a college administration over a revised student government, induced a committee to peruse campus conditions in other colleges for months, and then dropped it. Why? The benefits of a new student government are not definitely pronounced and are far removed, and the student cannot look ahead.

This test is not, as one sophomore has recently judged, just another means for "frigging a guy's time." It has to do with whether or not a student should be compelled to take two years of Physical Training, a year of Latin should be required for a B. A., details should be emphasized in Literature, Professors should be slaves to fractional grades, and concrete problems the Colby student growls about from September to June.

GAMMA PHI EPSILON RECOGNIZED BY COLBY FRATERNITIES.

Last evening at the meetings of several fraternities the votes cast earlier in the year upon the question of recognition for the Gamma Phi Epsilon fraternity were reconsidered and subsequent voting gave the recognition question an affirmative verdict. At the present writing it is known that three-fourths of the fraternities have returned a favorable answer and it may be that it was unanimous.

This marks the end of an important matter in the life of Colby students. It means that a group of them may feel, as they should, that they are Colby men and upon the same footing as the rest of the student body.

Just as the life of Lovejoy symbolizes liberalism and tolerance, so does this action on the part of the fraternities put another stamp of free thought and deed upon Colby College.

April 19, 1932.

TWO NEW TRUSTEES

Death of Mr. Guptill Left Vacancy

Two new trustees of Colby college will be elected by the Alumni association on ballots mailed out Monday. For the regular term ending 1935, the following two men have been nominated: Frederick Albert Pottle, '17, of New Haven, Conn., and John Butler Pugsley, '05, of Boston. To fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Leon C. Guptill, '05, whose term would have expired in 1933, the committee has nominated Angier Louis Goodwin, '02, of Melrose, Mass., and Leo Gardiner Shesong, '13, of Portland.

Dr. Pottle is professor of English at Yale University, said to be the youngest full professor on the faculty. Born in Oxford, he attended the local high school and graduated from Colby in 1917 with Phi Beta Kappa honors. After a few years of teaching in secondary schools and two years of hospital service in France, he went to Yale, Obtaining his Ph. D. degree in 1925, and remaining there in the English department, being promoted to full professor in 1930. He is the author of several books in the field of English literature.

Mr. Pugsley is director of school administration and assistant professor of mathematics in Northeastern University. He is a native of Somersworth, N. H. After graduating from Colby in 1905, he was principal of several secondary schools and saw service in France as athletic officer of the 26th Division. Since 1919 he has been connected with Northeastern University. He has a son who is a sophormore at Colby.

Mr. Goodwin is a prominent Boston attorney and has held many public offices, being mayor of Melrose in 1921-22, member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives in 1925-28, and of the Massachusetts Senate 1929-32. He was born in Fairfield, and after graduating from Colby in 1902, attended Harvard Law School and was admitted to the bar in 1905.

Mr. Shesong is a member of the Portland law firm of Hinckley, Hinckley and Shesong. Born in Greenville and attending the local high school, he graduated from Colby in the class of 1913, and studied in the law school of University of Maine. He has been active in the Lions International and several professional organizations.

Deputation Teams.

This past week-end, two deputation teams took the field. One went to Belfast to open a series of programs known as the June Bride Series at the Dougall spoke on "The Ideal Man" and Loonard Holie reciprocated with "The Ideal Woman,"

The second team went to Fairfield to participate in a Colby Day program at the Baptist Church. The speakers were: Leon Williams, Edward Gurney, and Beth Pendleton.

During the past week, Reverend Paul E. Alden, '18, and candidate secretary of the Northern Baptist Convention, visited Colby, held individual conferences, and spoke before the Boardman Society at one o'clock on April 12.

Dr. Morrill Illslev.

Another Colby graduate received distinguished honor when Dr. Morrill L. Illsley, Colby '17, was one of 85 from all over the country to be admitted recently to the College of Physicians. Dr. Illsley holds his M. D. degree and degree of Doctor of Public Health from Johns Hopkins University. At present he is college physician at Claremont Colleges, Claremont, Cal.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from this earth the father of our brother, Edward Vincent Lollis.

Be it resolved, that we, the members of Gamma Alpha chapter, Alpha Tau Omega, extend our heartfelt sympathy to our brother in his bereave ment, and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our brother, and that they be spread upon the records of Gamma Alpha Chapter, and be published in the Colby ECHO.

What can YOU do THAT OTHERS WILL PAY FOR?

VER the past eleven years five leading companies alone, in the following industries, have taken three hundred and sixty-three Bentley men into their organizations:

Banking-42, Electrical Manufacturing-55, Public Utility-65, Chain Store System-68, Shipping and Importing-133; and one public accounting firm has taken 47.

The accounting division is the nervous system of the business organization. It is the department which reports the activities and results in all the others and gives a clear perspective of the whole. That is why so many accountants become comptrollers, treasurers, and presidents.

The Bentley School is widely known and endorsed by business men, public accountants, and educators as THE school where a man can fully specialize in accountancy.

Two years are required to complete the course.

Send for a catalog. Thirty minutes spent with it may lead you to the career for which you are best adapted.

When they say "No!" in Czech, they evidently mean "No!!" and George, if that's the watchman's name, never got abreast of her. When Foss Hall was sighted, Marie set out on a run that would have made Mike Ryan green—as in envy. But here George became excited for he realized that he had a duty to perform, and if he didn't reach the front door before Marie, all would be lost. So, with key poised, he made one final dash to reach the brick building before the little girl from the Continent. But alas and alack! when he reached the top step of the veranda, the nimble Marie was already leaning with unaccountable vigor on the little button that sent a dull ringing and clamoring through the quietude that only a women's dorms can know in the dead of night. (Or am I wrong again?)

Everyone from the Dean down was awakened, and when the front door was opened, Marie, a little wild-eyed, shot by them into the security of the Hall, and there was George, sented on the front steps, looking sheepish, and dangling a key-ring rather uselessly in his hands.
