

Sherwood Eddy On Campus Next Week

Y. M. C. A. Sponsors Return Of Famous Author

A rare treat is in store for students of Colby when Sherwood Eddy comes to our campus Thursday, February 15, of next week. Dr. Eddy will speak before a mass meeting of students at 10 o'clock in the Alumnae Building and will be on our campus for the remainder of the day. Dr. Eddy is being brought to Colby by the Y. M. C. A. as part of the ambitious program which this organization is planning for the second semester.

Sherwood Eddy is an internationally known figure, a famous author and lecturer who has traveled widely. His books which include "The Challenge of Russia," "The Challenge of Asia," and "The Challenge of Europe," and others have attracted wide attention.

Dr. Eddy is no stranger to the Colby campus. He has been here as many as three times in previous years. In this visit he is spending Wednesday at Bates, and Friday at Maine in programs similar to ours.

The committee in charge of Sherwood Eddy's visit is Professor Newman, Virginia Swallow, and Winthrop Clement. In addition to his address at 10, Dr. Eddy's time will be utilized to the fullest degree for the remainder of the day. Look for complete details in next week's ECHO.

Enjoyable Time At Annual Flunkers' Frolic

Exams being over, a long week-end ahead, good music and a jolly crowd made Flunkers' Frolic on Saturday evening at the Alumnae Building a huge success. The music was by Cecil Hutchinson's orchestra and many of the choruses of various numbers were vocalized. Dean Runnals, Professor and Mrs. McCoy, and Professor and Mrs. Eustis received.

Co-eds Aid in Successful Winter Sports Carnival

May Repeat Snow Fete February 22

With red, orange and green sport outfits of the co-eds brilliantly arrayed against a white background of snow, the Colby Edition of the 1934 Winter Sports Carnival took place Monday afternoon. The affair, held in sub-zero weather, was conducted under the personal supervision of Professor C. Harry Edwards, director of athletics. There were more girls present on the freshman field than men, and if it hadn't been for those co-eds, the affair would have proved a fiasco. Whether they came out to display their charming costumes or to enter into the friendly rivalry, it was their whole-hearted co-operation that Professor Edwards praised for the success of the event.

In the event for women, jaunty Winny White won the 50 yard dash on snowshoes, with Dottie Gould and Ruth Millett following in that order. Miss White also won the 100 yd. dash; Peg Jordan, second, and Pat Thorne, third. On skills, Eleanor Wheelwright won the 50 yard dash, and Ruth Millett won the 100 yard dash. Barbara Hutchison and Katherine Winkler were runner-ups. In the dog team snowshoe race, the team composed of the Misses White, Gould, Hutchison, and Cummings came in first.

The results of the men's races were as follows:
100 yard dash skills, men—1st, E. C. Voysey, '33; 2nd, T. W. Tracy, '34; 3rd, C. R. Geor, '33.

220 yard dash, skills, men—1st, C. R. Geor, '33; 2nd, T. W. Tracy, '34; 3rd, E. C. Voysey, '33.

Cross Country, skills, men—1st, Andre Bignon, '37; 2nd, T. W. Tracy, '34; 3rd, E. Noyes Ervin, '33.

100 yard dash, snowshoes, men—1st, E. C. Voysey, '33; 2nd, F. W. Lawlor, '34; 3rd, G. V. Gilpatrick, '33.

220 yard dash, snowshoes, men—1st, E. C. Voysey, '33; 2nd, G. V. Gilpatrick, '33; 3rd, F. W. Lawlor, '34.

Snow shoe dog team race—1st, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Geor, Gilpatrick, Beach, Ross; 2nd, Zeta Psi, Voysey, Ervin, Abbott, Bishop.

MUSICAL COMEDY TO OPEN JUNIOR WEEK-END

Track Team Entered In B. A. A. Games

Coach Ryan will lead a formidable group of trackmen to Boston this week-end to compete in the B. A. A. Games in the Boston Garden Saturday night. He will enter mile relay teams in the freshman and varsity races, and will also bring several individual competitors.

The varsity mile relay team will be greatly strengthened from the one that competed in the Millrose Games in New York last Saturday night. Sol and Tom Fuller are both eligible to compete as a result of the recent mid-year examinations and Ed Buyniski will also be able to make a bid for the team. These three men are much faster than at least two of the men that carried the Colby colors against Amherst and Williams and the Blue and Gray should not be forced to look at any one's heels next Saturday evening.

A varsity two mile group is also being formed. The men to select from are: Bud Hilton, Bill Paine, Bob Moore, Bill Pritham, John Hunt, Herb DeVeber, and Sol Fuller. The two mile team will compete against the larger schools in New England such as Harvard and M. I. T.

For the first time since track has existed at Colby, a freshman relay team will compete in the Boston Meet. Coach Ryan believes that the experience that the boys will gain should hold them in good stead when they become ready for the varsity. The most promising candidates are: Captain Bill Deans, Stan Washuk, Bob Marshall, Ed Goodrich, Steve Young, Mal Pierce, Will Libby, Larry Humphrey, and Ralph Stowell.

Ed Buyniski and Bob Estes have been entered in the Major Briggs 50

April 19-21 Dates of Colby's Biggest Social Event

Plotkin and Pullen To Do First Annual Varsity Show

"Moon Madness" Title Committee of Juniors of Original Musical Farce

HOLD TRYOUTS SOON

The Junior Week-End Committee has decided to sponsor a musical comedy which will open up the most elaborate week-end ever held at Colby. On the holiday evening of April 19, the curtain will rise on a musical farce entitled "Moon Madness," already in the process of being written by the two "White Mule" editors, Colby's foremost humorists, Jno. J. Pullen, '35, and Harold M. Plotkin, '34.

The two impressarios will soon call for tryouts for parts in this stupendous production which will have over fifty undergraduates in the cast. A galaxy of Colby's outstanding comedians and comedienettes will find a distinguished outlet for their talents.

A few more original songs are being sought for to complete the musical part of the comedy. Here is a possible start for future inhabitants of Tin Pan Alley. Plans are also afoot to organize a Colby orchestra to be used in the production.

Watch for future announcements from the committee.

Dartmouth Winter Carnival Tomorrow

Dartmouth's Winter Carnival will be the scene this year of the championship meet of the Intercollegiate Winter Sports Union, February ninth and tenth. A record number of winter sports enthusiasts and Carnival guests will be on hand to watch the hundred and twenty competitors from American and Canadian colleges in the skating, snowshoeing, and skiing events. An imposing list of officials will be headed by Dr. R. S. Elmer, President of the U. S. Eastern Ski Association.

The extravagant entertainment features are nearing completion. The campus decoration will be an architectural mass in colored ice, an innovation in snow sculpture technique. The plan by George Metzger, '33, who executed the winning fraternity exhibit last year, calls for a white bas relief against a central block of green ice twelve feet high, with jutting buttresses of black. The whole will be lighted internally in order to bring out the crystal structure of the ice, and will be reflected brilliantly in a surrounding ice pool. Fraternity and dormitory snow sculpture will add to the gay campus winter scene.

Arctic Antics will be the feature of Outdoor Evening, the climax of the first day of Carnival. Under the fantastic light of the Aurora Borealis, in a setting of igloos, icebergs, and ice towers, the paganant takes place. Two Esquimaux villages, Nova and Lebbe, of traditional rivalry, are gripped in tense excitement in anticipation of a ski race to decide the possession of the Queen of the Snows. The Lebbans are confident of victory, for the Novans are suffering from a terrible malady which has afflicted their great skiers. Yet the Novans have not lost hope that the serum cure will be brought in time from the outposts of Canadian civilization. At the last moment the flaming shirt of a Northwest Mounted Policeman appears in the distance, and the joy of the Novans knows no bounds. They win the contest in a breath-taking race, and in gratitude give the Snow Queen to their benefactor. The impressive spectacle of the crowning of the Queen occurs under a bombardment of fire-works. Her court is brilliant with the celebration of the Novans, figure skating by Smith and Surtees, intercollegiate stars, Roger Turner, several times men's national champion, and the brilliant skaters,

Committee of Juniors Selected To Discuss Plans

NAME BANDS ON LIST

Junior Week-End, Colby's gala event of the spring, has always been the high light of the social season at Colby College. The Junior Prom has made a reputation for sophistication, pep, and decorum. Dance bands have been of first class order, and capable management has made the successive Junior Week-Ends fulfill the wishes of students who desired music, youth, and happiness. This is the week-end when Colby chooses its Queen of the year. This is the week-end when Colby throws off its academic robes and recklessly enjoys three hectic days.

This Junior Week-End of 1934, April 19, 20, 21, promises to be one of the most entertaining week-ends ever to be held at Colby. On Thursday night, April 19, a musical revue will be staged in the City Opera House. This revue produced by Colby students, and will be staged and directed by Colby students. On Friday night, April 20, the Junior Prom will be held at the Alumnae Building, and on Saturday night, April 21, it is hoped that fraternity dances will be held.

The Junior Week-End Committee is as follows: President L. Dow, A. T. O.; E. Ferrier, K. D. R.; K. Mills, P. D. T.; C. Pearson, D. U.; C. Abbott, Z. P.; D. Jaquith, L. C. A.; J. Orlovski, T. K. N.; J. Stevens, D. K. E.; and M. Krinsky, T. D. P.

Dates Selected for Speaking Contests

The following dates have been selected for several of the important public speaking contests:

Friday afternoon, February 13. Preliminary Intercollegiate Peace Contest.

Friday afternoon, February 16. Preliminary Goodwin Prize Speaking.

Monday evening, February 26. Annual Hallowell Prize Speaking.

Monday evening, February 26. At Bates, Finals in Intercollegiate Peace Contest.

Monday evening, March 5. The Annual Murray Prize Debate.

Preliminary speaking in the annual Coburn Prize Speaking Contest will be held on Friday afternoon, March 2, in the College Chapel. The contest is open to all members of the women's division except such ones as may have been awarded first prizes in previous contests.

The hundred dollars in cash prizes are the gift of Miss Louise Helen Coburn, of Skowhegan, member of the class of 1877, and are given for the purpose of encouraging young women to take an interest in public speaking.

THETA UPSILON

Theta Upsilon held a bridge party Tuesday night in the Alumnae Building with about fifteen students playing. A prize was given to the winners at each table. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. The committee in charge were: Elizabeth E. LaVallee, '35, Rebecca Peniman, '34, and Alice Hovey, '34.

Important Meeting of ECHO Editorial Staff 1.00 P. M., Friday, Feb. 9, Math Room, Chemical Hall. No one excused!!

Estelle and Louise Wolgel of Buffalo, national figure-skating champions, will climax the evening.

Gilbert and Sullivan's rollicking Iolanthe, presented by the Dartmouth Players, a basketball game with Yale, a swimming meet with Princeton, and a hockey game with Harvard complete the program for the week-end.

Sanroma, Goding in Piano Concert

Once more Colby will play host to Jesus Maria Sanroma, for on Tuesday evening, Feb. 20th he appears in a two piano recital with Howard Goding. It will be a concert that no student can afford to miss. Probably it is the most important concert of the series. One reason being that Messrs. Sanroma and Goding will make their debut to the musical world as two piano recitalists. We might feel that Colby is being favored by these two splendid musicians. But we are also extremely interested in the result to be obtained by bringing together these two temperaments.

There is doubtless no point in haranguing at length on the merits of Mr. Sanroma's playing. The students themselves know how he has been received heretofore, and how his next concert has been looked forward to. But it might be, perhaps, a little helpful to quote from a review by N. M. J. (Boston Evening Transcript) of Mr. Goding's last concert in Boston: "Mr. Goding's playing was exemplary. . . the pianist knows the music of the masters as a scholar and teacher should know it . . . his performance revealed the stimulating force of temperament and imagination . . . Mr. Goding never lets his performance of familiar music appear as a duty or accomplishment merely, but as pleasure first; new points of view discovered and transmitted."

It is without question that this concert of February 20th will be the most interesting and most unusual musical fare offered in Waterville for some time.

And, although the single tickets for this concert are more expensive for outsiders, the students may still purchase their's for 75 cents; they may be obtained from any member of the Concert Board, or from the fraternity and sorority representatives.

Louis K. Anspacher To Lecture Here

Distinguished Philosopher Sixth in Lecture Series

The sixth lecture in the Colby Series brings before Colby students Louis K. Anspacher, one of the most distinguished lecturers ever to appear here. Mr. Anspacher, eminent as a dramatist, philosopher, and orator speaks in the Baptist Church here next Monday night. His subject will be "Our Present Plight."

Lecturers of more versatile talents and accomplishments have seldom appeared on the Colby platform. Mr. Anspacher comes to us well qualified to deliver an interesting, entertaining lecture. He is a graduate of the college of the City of New York and

Louis K. Anspacher

Columbia University. He is widely known as a writer of successful plays. Although himself a talented actor, Mr. Anspacher is best commended as one of the founders of the Drama

Crucial Hockey Game With Bowdoin Saturday

Both Divisions Dine At Freshman Banquet

For the second time this year the members of the men's and women's divisions will have the chance to meet in an informal gathering. The last meeting took place during the first week of college life; this one is to transpire on February 16. A banquet has been arranged by a joint committee of representatives of both divisions, after which there will be a short program of readings, songs, and speeches. Originally started by the "Y's" of Colby, this convention has been handed over to the freshman class to supervise.

The main purpose of the banquet is to promote closer relations between the two groups of freshmen. An elaborate dinner has been arranged for at the Methodist Church, and the ladies of the parish are to serve it. As yet no speaker has been engaged to present the feature talk of the evening, but the minor other speeches are well in hand.

The guests of the evening include: President and Mrs. Johnson, Professor and Mrs. Newman, Dean Mariner, Dean Runnals, Professor Breckinridge, Mr. Chapman, Edward Gurney, and Lois Crowell.

A tentative program reads as follows: Group singing, led by Mr. Thomas; speech, President Johnson; reading, Rev. Mr. Metzner; quartet singing, Freshmen men; speeches, Helen Jovons, Robert Hussey; reading, Barbara Hutchison.

Just in case any of you happen to be interested in the cost of running one of our bigger American institutions, here are a few statistics based on the upkeep of M. I. T. and which may be used as the basis for the rest. 35 tons of coal are consumed daily; 30 gallons of water is the daily consumption; and 1000 employees are engaged to accommodate the 2000 students.

Likely To Decide Championship

The prospects for Coach Bill Millett's varsity puck-chasing outfit to win the State Championship have been somewhat dimmed with the announcement that Don Robitaille, the nonchalant minder of the Blue and Gray nets has left college following the recent mid-year exams. Don had few peers in the state when in a tight spot that goalies are often in.

To replace Don, Bill has Al Robinson, former Newton, Mass. High goalie and Freddy Viguo, a newcomer to the job, who will give Robinson a fight for the post although he lacks the former's experience.

A stellar quintet of freshmen including Ron Lemieux, Jim Guinoy, Jack Sheehan, Art Hannigan, and Paul Landry have bolstered the varsity considerably and should make the Blue and Gray scoring power greater than ever.

Colby will entertain Bowdoin next Saturday in what should be the crucial game of the State Series. Coach Millett will probably use Captain Hucks, Hoeker Ross, Al Paganucci, Tom Hickey, Ron Lemieux, and Art Hannigan in the forward lines with Joe Brogden, Paul Landry, Lou Ramcourt, and Jack Sheehan on the defense. Robinson or Viguo will get the call in the draperies.

The daily Californian reports an engineering student who walked up to his professor and handed in a large bundle of assignments. Noticing a sheepish look on the young man's face, the instructor asked suspiciously, "What's all this?"

"Those are my Mac West Problem sets," exclaimed the lad.

"Mac West?"

"Yeah," replied the student, "I done 'em wrong."

What is the attitude of the American college student towards political and national problems of importance? A recent article in the Magazine Section of the "New York Times" discusses at length the political activity—one might better say the lack of political activity—of the American youth. Where, the article asks, are the Brown Shirts of Germany and the Black Shirts of the Fascist movement? Where are the Russian Pioneers and Union of Youth, as well as the student instigated revolutions of Cuba, Spain, and South America? Certainly, we have no comparable activity among our college students. Does this inactivity mean a condition of satisfaction with things as they are or does it merely point to an attitude of indifference?

Perhaps the best indication of the docility with which the average student is endowed can be found in the straw voter held prior to the 1932 "Roosevelt landslide." The results of these ballots showed a comfortable Hoover majority among college students. This would seem indicative of complacency to the nth degree, rather than of the more to be expected, effervescent, and youthful desire for a change.

We fear that the average student is an ultra-conformist. His political views are those of his parents. He does not make a habit of reading the current newspapers and periodicals. He wants primarily, to follow the crowd—regardless of where the crowd is taking him. For the last four years we have been told that in us—the youth—lies the nation's salvation. "You," we are told, "are the potential helmsmen of the country."

If the country expects leaders from out of our midst, it is obvious that a radically altered system of education must be offered. We say this, for it must be the fault of the system when the college fails in producing the leadership which is needed if the youth of today is to cope with the serious problems with which it is confronted.

One of the few issues that is supported by a definite student opinion is the peace movement. This seems to be the one subject on which undergraduates agree throughout the country. It is, however, problematical whether youth actually has the courage of its convictions or whether it is meeting the matter spinelessly. It may well be that the stand for peace presents to youth the easiest way out of a situation which offers a maximum of unpleasantness.

 When the dew of evening has fallen,
 So you will live on.

You will live on!
 As a song within the heart re-

 Though the vigils of silence have come,
 So you will live on!

As the presence of a lovely dream tarries,
 When the hour of slumber has flown
 And the morning star pales in the dawning,
 So you will live on!

Fear not, beloved,
 Though mortals die and seasons

 And fair white moons are seen to perish—
 You will live on!

Elsewhere in this paper is printed a letter from the Student League for Industrial Democracy. This belies all the criticism that has been hurled at the college youth of America. It is indicative of an ever increasing concern over national affairs. Such movements should, indeed, be encouraged. Through them it is entirely within the realm of possibility that a youth movement might develop of a quite different sort than those of our fellow nations. Such a movement would, to be sure, astonish the leaders of today, but it would also give youth its well deserved place in the scheme of our nation.

Baseball Prospects Are Bright

With mid-years a thing of the past the inevitable road that the sport fan takes is the path that leads to the hot stove and baseball gossip. Already the Stove-League magnets are predicting Colby changes in the coming campaign.

As was the policy last season there will be no Freshman pastimers this spring, a Junior Varsity known as B squad will take its place. This B squad which will be cut down to twelve men when actual playing begins is open to all Freshmen and upperclassmen who have not been appointed to positions on the A or Varsity squad.

B squad will start spring baseball at Colby with lectures on February 12 and 14. Field house workouts will begin February 19. Two lectures are to be held each week on Monday and Wednesday at 4 P. M.

February 26 will mark the first appearance of Varsity men when the battery candidates start limbering their arms. Regular practice for the A or varsity squad will begin March 5. The following men have been appointed to A squad: Captain Ralph Peabody, Art Brown, Hank Davidson, Ralph Farnham, A. Peabody, Woody Peabody, Al Farnham, Charlie Geer, Eb Ross, and Ernie Lary.

Prospects look pretty bright for Colby ball hawks this coming spring. The only dark cloud on the baseball horizon is the loss of George Foster. This leaves a big hole in the pitching staff which will be hard to fill. The rest of last year's championship team is practically intact with a few likely looking freshmen pressing hard for varsity positions.

Coaches Roundy and Millett will have charge of practice for both squads of candidates. Following is the baseball schedule:

April

- 19—Maine here (exhibition).
- 21—Bowdoin at Brunswick.
- 24—Tufts at Medford.
- 25—Brown at Providence.
- 26—Northeastern at Boston.

May

- 2—Maine at Orono.
- 5—Bates at Lewiston.
- 8—Maine here.
- 11—Bowdoin at Brunswick.
- 17—Bates here.
- 19—Bowdoin here.
- 26—Bates here.
- 30—Maine at Orono.

Student League Raps F. E. R. A.

The proposal of the F. E. R. A. for the aid of college students is elicited the following statement from the National Executive Committee of the Student League for Industrial Democracy:

"The proposed allocation of five to seven million dollars by the federal government to assist college students who would otherwise be compelled to drop out of college is a belated and very short step in the right direction. Belated because thousands of students, lacking funds, have already been forced out of college. Very short because funds should be extended to the state universities and city colleges that have been compelled so seriously to curtail activities during the past few years. Funds should be diverted from the destructive program of military education through the R. O. T. C. to constructive uses. It is an outrage that with schools shut down all over the nation, we should be embarking on a program of building battleships.

"The Student League for Industrial Democracy believes that there are serious dangers in the present scheme of subsidization of students if it is accepted as a final measure. The policy of the federal government has been to subsidize the most articulate and depressed groups, without undertaking the measures which will bring about permanent readjustment. The Student League for Industrial Democracy believes it is the special responsibility of those students who will benefit by the fund of the FERA not to allow themselves to be bought off from the major campaign for a new social order in which production will be for use and not for profit, and in which the producing classes of this country will be in control.

"We desire further to point out that these relief jobs can be utilized against radical agitation on the campus by the simple expedient of withholding them from anyone who has campaigned against the R. O. T. C. or for academic freedom. This is especially unfortunate in a period when the American student seems at last to be awakening from his long slumbers to an awareness of his social responsibilities."

Henry Burrage at Camera Club Show

The opening meeting of the Colby Camera Club scheduled for last Wednesday has been postponed to Wednesday, Feb. 14, at 4.30 in the Chemical Lecture room.

Mr. Henry D. Burrage, a representative of the Eastman Kodak Company, will demonstrate the new Cine Kodak Special, and will exhibit motion pictures showing all of the professional effects and other unusual possibilities of this machine. One reel will show how this machine has been used to record surgery and other medical treatments.

The meeting is open to all students or faculty members who wish to attend.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES

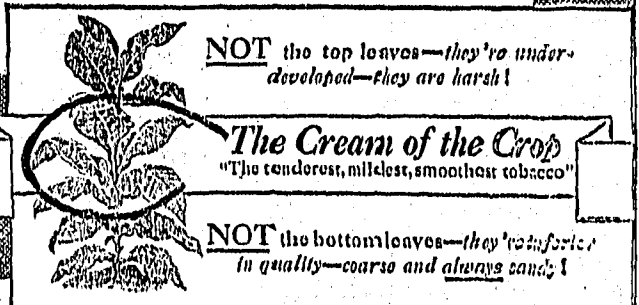

THE HEIGHT OF GOOD TASTE

In making Lucky Strike Cigarettes we use the finest Turkish and domestic tobacco—and only the center leaves for they are the mildest and the most tender. And every Lucky is so round, so firm, so fully packed—no loose ends.

Direct from the Metropolitan Opera House
Saturday at 1:55 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over Red and Blue Networks of NBC, LUCKY STRIKE will broadcast the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in the world PREMIERE of the new American opera "MERRY MOUNT."

MY VALENTINE

(In the Dorothy Parker manner)
If, my love, my Valentine
You will be, that will be fine;
And if you refuse, my fair, it
Will be tough but I can bear it.

Nuts. Nuts. Nuts. The ECHO deadline comes and goes, the paper is a day late and still no dirt. Nuts. Can't say anything about Hell Weeks. Can't say anything about Hedman fights. Nuts. The people who get mentioned squawk about getting singled. The people who don't, get mad because they don't rate. Nuts. This weather is certainly no help to make a young man's fancy lightly turn. Nuts.

Your Kaleidoscope: The Flunkers' Frolic and nobody flunking... Bill Chapman and the X-ray girl... Al Vose came in with a broken leg, but a while with Gin and he was dancing around... Eddie Houghton and Winnie White—a very devoted couple... MacGregor didn't show up for a dance with Dot Smith... Mac is so much the Mann-About-Town that Ronney takes Peg Jordan to the movies... Kitty Rollins and Ruth Atchley in the latest style of head-dress... Paul Harold and Ruth Maddock twirling about... also Bill Deans and El Wheelwright... Jim Guiney chiseled Ed Buyniski out of a dance... Delicious red bangs on Ruth Mailey—and we look for a romantic revival... Peanuts Wepfer and Andy Mellon... ECHO-INGS: That crack about swapping a swimming pool for no dancing is just hoey... With Pete Mills in a Washington, D. C., law school, you'll soon see an ECHO Washington column... Pete will first attempt to interview Hoey Long... One of our reporters handed in a story which contained: "Professor Colgan spoke on 'How to keep mentally healthy in Hedman Hall'"... Are ya list'nin', Brecky?... Reminds me of the latest Fellowship Forum posters:

"God of the Earth—Professor Perkins," and "Life—The Mystery Of—Miss Grace Foster"... Peg Salmond slated for an exchange fellowship to France... The Quip and Jest comes from Milton's "L'Allegro"... just in case you wanted to know... Was the invitation to Colby from the Millrose games aimed mainly to bring Cliff Veysey to New York, and were they just a little chagrined when the great Cliff did not appear with the rest of the Blue & Gray entourage?... There are great hockey stories in this paper and they show the proper school spirit: when we beat Bowdoin it was on the front page, when we tied Northeastern it was on the back page, and when we lost to Brown, 11-2, it wasn't even mentioned!!... PEOPLE: Hugh Beach & Betsey Winchell, Mary Buss & Paul Stiegler, and Geo. Putnam and Evelyn Kelley tobogganing... Ed Gurney & Mary Ewen at "Roman Scandals," but Ed liked the Old King Cole part... The sweetness of Sugar Kane is becoming irresistible to some of the women... Betty Thompson's beret is as lavish with colors as was Joseph's coat (or was it David's)... Peg Raymond, Wilma Stanley, and Ann Trimble in ski suits to psych... and we realize that last year's juniors made no mistake... Is Dickie Franklin a Martha to the cause?... Jim Peabody paid a dollar for a purloined colored photo of Babe Hamlin... and if Jim is missing on weekends, two to one he is north with the Queen... Van Slyke says he has never been out with a co-ed, but what about Marie Duerr?... Binyon rolls on 3 glasses of 3.2... Selwin-somnia Braudy will launch a new cut system drive... Too bad that Wagner doesn't Live Here Any More... In this sub-zero weather, Ed Perrier had the nerve to keep Bunty Robertson talking on the street for more than ten minutes... Bunty is currently arm-in-arming it with McLeod... which, of course, you know... Joe Antan says he writes twenty-five 500 word letters to girls every week... Quincy Davis taken aback the other night... Phi Beta, the Roberts Hall cat, defies the rules The usher in the left hand aisle does much to keep the State filled... One of the couples upstairs might be called "The Prize fighter and the Lady."

League and as author of such dramatic successes as "Rhapsody," "Dog-war," "The New House" and many others.

Mr. Anspacher was for many years secular lecturer at Temple Emanuel in New York and since then has been a member of several distinguished lecture organizations. For many successive seasons Mr. Anspacher delivered a series of lectures at Columbia and other universities. He has addressed many of the great lecture institutions of the country.

A scholar, keenly interested in art, philosophy, and culture and a poet with the courage of his convictions, Mr. Anspacher is sure to bring to the students of Colby a lecture as varied and as interesting as himself.

You buy Chesterfield cigarettes every day. You may buy them one place today and another place tomorrow—or you may buy them the same place every day.

It is estimated that there are this day 769,340 places in this country where Chesterfields are on sale all the time.

To make Chesterfield Cigarettes we get the best tobacco and the best materials that money can buy.

We make them just as good as cigarettes can be made.

We pack them and wrap them so that they reach you just as if you came by the factory door.

You can buy Chesterfields in 769,340 places in the United States and in 80 foreign countries.
