Junior Week-End Is Successful For Most Part

Pullen's Play Big Hit

Prom Disappoints; Chasers, Athletics Highly Successful

A hilarious round of chasers last Saturday night closed the fourth annual Junior Week-end. As a whole it was successful, the chasers were never better, Colby came out on top in the track meet and baseball game, and "Morning at Seven," speaks for itself, a distinct hit and a great triumph for John Pullen.

The Prom was disappointing. It should be stated in justice to the juniors that the "promenaders" had a great time, but the band fell far short of expectation, the queen presentation was missed, and confetti, et cetera, was conspicuous in absence.

The first night of "Morning at Seven" was probably the best production in many ways that the college has seen in a long time. The "mike" idea inaugurated by the Junior Committee was most novel and added a good bit of interest and fun to the occasion. It should be adopted as an annual policy. The loving cup to the queen continued the precedent of last year. Gov. Brann was in Washington but the Dean was o.k.

The comment in the orchestra and balcony, in fact from all the patrons, placed this year's production of Mr. Pullen's even above the great hit of last year, "Moon Madness." Pullen has a future ahead of him if he continues the work begun in the Junior Week-end plays.

Camera Club Holds Election of Officers

On Tuesday, April 23, the Camera Club elected its new officers, who are as follows:

President, Laura May Tolman.
Vice President, George H. Crosby.
Secretary, Margaret R. Libbey.
Treasurer, Sheldon R. Rudnick.

The club will give an exhibition of pictures soon.

Glee Club Returns To Berlin, N. H. Hosts For Festival Next Week

On Thursday, May 2, Mr. John W. Thomas will conduct the Colby Glee Club, composed of approximately forty men and women, to Berlin, N. H. The Glee Club is taking part in a concert Thursday night at the Berlin City Hall, at the request for a return engagement after last year's successful concert in that city. The Glee Club members as well as the Colby White Mules will be entertained as guests at private homes in Berlin. They will return Friday morning.

Mr. Thomas has arranged a varied program consisting of three distinct groups: a cathedral choir or religious group; a modern group; and a plantation spiritual group. The men's Glee Club, Male Quartet, Tritones, and instrumentalists featuring flute and xylophone will be included. Among the numbers on the program are "Shortnin' Bread," "By the Rivers of Babylon," "Mood Indigo," and other interesting selections arranged by Mr. Thomas himself.

Montgomery Prize Speaking Contest At Colby Friday

Replaces Lyfords

Over 100 Are Enrolled From Three States

The 26th annual Montgomery Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest (which was formerly known as the Lyfords) is to be held under the auspices of the College on Friday afternoon and evening of May 3. Over 60 schools from Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts, are sending a total of 106 young men to compete for the prizes. Never before have so many schools been entered in the contest, and never before have there been so many contestants.

This annual contest is under the direct supervision of the Department of Public Speaking, but a large group of undergraduates of the men's division of the college will serve as hosts to the visiting preparatory school men and as judges in the preliminary contests in the afternoon.

The program for May 3 follows:
9.50 A. M.—Contestants, and any person accompanying contestants, are urgently requested to attend the Morning Assembly from 9:50 to 10.20, in the College Chapel. Important announcements about the contest will be made at this assembly.

10.30 A. M.—Professor Libby, of the Department of Public Speaking,

Y.M.C.A. Committee Chairmen Are Chosen

The committee chairmen of the new Y. M. C. A. cabinet have recently been selected and are as follows:

Deputations, Reginald Humphrey.
International Relations, Kenneth Johnson.

Social Relations, John Dolan.
Conferences, Anthony DeMarinis.
Campus Relations, David Eaton.
Meetings, Solomon Fuller.
Religious Drama, Fred Demers.

There are still one or two more committee heads to be named. They will be selected shortly.

Repeating their successful performances of last year, the Combined Glee Clubs, with Mr. John W. Thomas, are happy to announce an All-Maine Music Festival to be held in Waterville, Thursday, May 9.

With the University of Maine, Bates, and Bowdoin as guests, the gala affair which is held in recognition of National Music Week, will be held in the Alumnae Building. Following the concert, dancing will be enjoyed from ten to twelve. The assurance of an even better program than last year, along the festive anniversary of the formation of the well known Colby White Mules, only doubles the incentive for a capacity audience at this Festival of Music of the Four Maine Colleges.

CLASS DAY SPEAKERS

Professor Libby desires that all Class Day speakers meet with him in the college chapel during chapel period tomorrow, Thursday morning.

DEFERRED PLEDGING PLAN PASSES STUDENT COUNCIL

CLASS POEM

The writing of the Class Poem will be open to competition. Any member of the Senior Class may submit a poem for consideration by a committee to be appointed. The poems must be handed to Professor Libby not later than May 10.

Senior Class Picks Class Day Officers

In chapel period last Saturday the Senior Class elected the following students to fill the class day offices: Marshall, Kenneth F. Mills, Providence, R. I.

Orator, Edward J. Gurney, Waterville.

Awarding of Honors, John J. Pullen, Amity, and Wilma Stanley, Southwest Harbor.

Address to Undergraduates, Ralph S. Williams, Long Island, N. Y.

Chaplain, Clarence A. Morrill, Richmond.

Parting Address, Margaret Jordan, Cape Elizabeth.

Class Ode, Harold F. Brown, Waterville, and Beulah E. Bennett, Lancaster, N. H.

Class Poet, To be chosen in competition.

! SENIORS !

Measurements for caps and gowns must be made at the H. R. Dunham Co. on or before Friday, May 3. The price this year will be $2.50.

MIXED DOUBLES IN TENNIS

The Athletic Departments of the college have made a new and novel innovation for tennis players. Mixed doubles may now play on the women's courts, numbers 1 and 2, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, after 6 p. m.

ELECTION OF COURSES FOR 1935-36

TO ALL STUDENTS:

"In the spring Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors must elect courses for the following year. Failure to elect courses at this time will cause the student considerable inconvenience, including a fine of two dollars before any subsequent election will be permitted."

The election period this year is from May 6-May 25, inclusive. Students must obtain their catalogs and election cards at the Registrar's Office before meeting their advisers. Courses should be elected after serious deliberation, and with the adviser's approval because the elections are to be made for the entire academic year. "With the approval of the adviser and on payment to the Registrar of a fee of one dollar per change, voluntary changes in a student's program may be made on a registration day and during the following week; involuntary changes may be made without penalty."

TO NEW STUDENTS:

Each student new at Colby must notify the Registrar what his, or her, major will be so that advisers' records may be prepared before the election period.

Elmer C. Warren,
Registrar.

A Colorado professor of forestry was giving his class some inside dope about fighting forest fires. Said he: "The important thing to remember is to keep cool."

Shawn Troupe in Stirring, Novel Final Concert

Shawn Solos Excellent

Primitive and Folk Themes Especially Good

Last evening in the Alumnae Building the third program of the Colby Concert Series was presented by Ted Shawn and his men dancers. For most of the large and enthusiastic audience it was more than a beautiful concert, it was a new experience, thrilling and exciting. The program was remarkably varied and at all times highly interesting.

The first group of "Music Visualizations" were beautiful examples of pure art, in which Mr. Shawn's choreography seemed to be more an integral part of the music than merely an adaptation to it. Shawn's first solo number, "John Brown Sees the Glory," was as remarkable for the

Leslie F. Murch, '15 Class Day Speaker

Leslie F. Murch, Professor of Physics at Dartmouth College, has been selected by the Senior Class as guest speaker at Class Day exercises.

Professor Murch is a graduate of Colby in the class of 1915. He was a 1st lieutenant in the A. E. F. during 1917-19. He went to Dartmouth at the termination of his service in the army to a position as an instructor in Physics. He received his M. A. degree from Dartmouth in 1924. In that same year he was appointed assistant professor of Physics.

Professor Murch is a member of the Colby Alumni Council, the Dartmouth Athletic Council, American Physical Society, and Phi Beta Kappa. He is the co-author of a physics book and laboratory manual.

Dr. G. O. Smith Author of Leading Article in May National Geographic

DR. GEORGE OTIS SMITH

NOTICE

The Maine Alpha Chapter of Theta Kappa Nu Fraternity will hold its annual spring semi-formal dance at the Waterville Country Club, May 4, 1935. Music will be furnished by Carl Hawes and His Aristocrats. Dance Committee, Roland Pelletier, Francis Prescott.

Dr. George Otis Smith, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the college, has written the leading article in the forthcoming May issue of the National Geographic Magazine, one of the nation's leading publications. The story is on the state of Maine.

The Geographic Press release describes it:

"Surf booming on rugged coasts, campers' paddles dipping in quiet lakes, calls of moose, and the whirling of numerous sawmills—these are the voices of Maine, according to George Otis Smith, whose story 'Maine, the Outpost State,' is the leading article in the National Geographic Magazine for May. Dr. Smith, a native son of Maine, is a member of the Board of Trustees of the National Geographic Society. 'Included in the 60-page article are a two-page map and 74 illustrations, 39 of them reproductions from natural color photographs depicting the State's scenic beauties, its busy industries and its varied sports.'"

SPORTS OF THE ECHO

Track Team In Triangular Meet, Nine To Trade Swats With Maine

Bowdoin, Springfield Opposi- tion At Brunswick

The track team will meet Bowdoin and Springfield in a triangular meet at Brunswick Saturday afternoon and Coach Norm Perkins is hoping that they will make a better showing as a group than they did against Vermont last Saturday. Although Colby won the meet by a three point margin, some of the boys fell down woefully in the competition and will have to improve their performances considerably before the coming three cornered meet.

Cecil Daggett and Ed Buyniski are likely to place in the dash events. These two boys came through in great style against Vermont, but will be up against stiffer competition this week. In Stewart Parks, Springfield has one of the outstanding dashmen in the country and he is apt to break ten seconds for the 100 under good conditions. He has been timed 22 flat for the 220.

Paul Merrick ran a great race to take the quarter against Vermont and Paul is just the kind of an athlete who keeps on improving. Bowdoin has two excellent quarter milers in Vale Marvin and Gardiner Maxey, but they will have to step on it to beat the powerful Augusta freshman.

Cliff Veysey and Hal Davis are the leading Blue and Gray lights in the half. Cliff won in the recent dual meet in the time of 2.03 3-5, but will have to get down better than 2.00 to cop this event Saturday. Davis showed that he has the makings of a fine half miler last Saturday. Hal lost third place in this race because of a little misunderstanding as to where the finish line was. Thinking that he had crossed the line, Davis slowed up and a Vermonter breezed past him for third place.

Cliff and Hollis will attempt the brother act once more in the mile, but in Bob Porter this pair will face one of the best distance men in New England. During the indoor season he forced Cliff to a new field house record and is looking just as good as ever on the outdoor cinders.

Herby DeVeber is looking just as good as ever and should be able to win the two mile. Coach Perkins will probably keep Cliff out of this race in order to determine just what Herby is capable of. It seems likely that he will be able to cross the line in first place although he may be pressed by Hutchinson of Bowdoin.

With such performers as Phil Good and Billy Owen in line for the 120 yard high and 220 yard low hurdles, it looks as though Colby will have to be content with thirds in these events. Rolly Nadeau and Johnny Dolan will be the Mule entrants.

Stan Washuk and Bob Neumer will have to improve considerably to place in the broad jump this week. Parks of Springfield has done better than 23 feet and Soule of Bowdoin has come close to this figure.

Bob Marshall didn't seem to be in his best jumping form in Saturday's meet. Springfield has two fine jumpers and Bowdoin has Niblock so it looks as though Marshall will have to be at his best to even get in for a place, let alone win this event.

Colby's point scoring possibilities in the pole vault are very low. Bowdoin has two men who have done 12 feet; while Springfield has a boy who is a consistent 11.6 vaulter. Carl Reed, Bob Marshall, and Marcus Oladell will be entered.

Bob Estes was beaten in the javelin last week, but is good enough to grab first place this week. Jack Sutherland and Whit Wright are also point scoring possibilities.

Colby's chances in the weight events are only mediocre. Kerm LaFleur may get thirds in the shot and discus; Carl Hodges may get a point in the discus; while Johnny Merrick will have to come along fast to place in the hammer.

Medicine and engineering are the most popular of the courses chosen by Brown University (Providence, R. I.) freshmen.

Game At Orono Will Be Test For Mules

Saturday afternoon will find Coach Eddie Roundy's baseball nine at Orono being entertained by the strong University of Maine nine, which shapes up as Colby's leading opponent for State Championship honors. Maine defeated the Mules in the annual exhibition contest by a 5 to 1 score.

Al Farnham, the headiest pitcher in Maine collegiate circles, will probably get the call for mound duty. Al knows how to pitch every bit of the way and has plenty of natural "stuff." He won his first State Series contest from Bowdoin last Saturday after his mates had booted the ball around considerably during the first inning.

Art Brown has finally discovered his batting eye and will get the catching assignment. Brownie is the classiest receiver in the state and if he can do a little more hitting he is going to be extremely valuable before the year is over. Les Huard and Danny Ayotte are also available for catching duty.

Jack Sheehan will be at first playing his usual faultless game and he is also due to pound out a couple of hits. Charlie Geer will be at second. He is a fine fielder and a consistent batter. Rum Lemieux at short is one of the best all around ball players on the Colby club. Captain Dick Sawyer will round out the infield at third base. Sawyer is hitting better than ever and if he keeps up his streak, he should be recognized as the best third baseman in the state this season.

Either Ray Farnham or Danny Ayotte will be in right field. Both of these boys are fine fielders, but have not been showing the power with the stick that they did last season. "Hocker" Ross will be in center field. "Hocker" is one of the finest ball awks in the state and also a lusty hitter. Tom Yadwinski will patrol right field in the event that Ralph Peabody's injured ankle is not ok by that time. "Yad" is a long range hitter and very fast afiel.

Tennis Outfit To Meet Maine

The tennis team will play its second match of the current season against the University of Maine team at Orono Saturday. Captain Jimmy Ross is leading one of the most determined Colby net squads in years and the boys are bound to get some place if they keep playing with their present determination.

In the singles Captain Ross will probably be playing number one man. Izzy Rothblatt, a veteran from last year's club, will fill number two position. Number three will be played by Pete Allen, another veteran of a year's collegiate experience. Freddy Demers and Frank Barnes, members of the junior-varsity outfit last year; and Jimmy LaChance, erstwhile hockey ace, or Dick Currier will probably be the other singles players.

Coach Don Smith has been keeping the boys pretty busy afternoons and will decide on his doubles combinations later in the week when he finds out how the boys pair up together. Norm Taylor, captain of last year's fine tennis team, worked out with the team Monday afternoon and doesn't seem to have lost any of his former ability.

SPRING FOOTBALL

Spring football will be continued for all freshmen and sophomores who have been reporting during the past two weeks. Larry Dow will be in charge of this section which will meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 3.30-4.30 to meet the physical education requirements of three hours per week.

Attendance and gate receipts at Columbia University (New York City) grid games this year were almost double those of last season.

NOTICE TO GOLFERS
We have made arrangements at the Waterville Country Club to have practice games and official golf matches there. The only stipulation is that you must pay a fee of $5.00 in order to try out and play on the team if you are not already a member of the club.

All eliminations will have to be made by Friday of this week as we play the University of Maine on Saturday and take our Massachusetts trip next week, starting Monday morning.

All men are open to challenge.

Mule Nine Off On Right Foot

Trim Bowdoin 8-4 in First Game

Colby's big seventh when the Mules accounted for five runs off Doug Walker, ace Bowdoin hurler, gave Coach Eddie Roundy's boys their initial State Series tilt of the year.

The game started off like a nightmare to the Blue and Gray followers as the boys booted and threw the ball all over the field in the first inning to give Bowdoin three unearned runs.

They hacked away at this lead steadily and going into the seventh were behind 4-3. Junior Sheehan, Al Farnham, and Capt. Sawyer were the outstanding Colby players, while Shaw went well for Bowdoin.

Ralph Peabody received a badly twisted ankle in the first inning and will be out of action for the remainder of the week. This accident occurred in the first inning when he collided with Shaw at first. Charlie Geer, Al Kent, and Tom Yadwinski also received bruises during the fray.

Tracksters Take Vermont Meet

Nose Out Vermonters By Three Points

The Mules won their first track meet of the year by the narrow margin of three points. Kerm LaFleur and Carl Hodges made the victory possible when they finished first and second in the shot.

Delfausse of the visitors was the outstanding performer of the meet, winning three events and taking two thirds. Cliff Veysey won the half and two mile and placed second to his brother in the mile.

The summary:

100 yard dash—Won by Delfausse, (V); 2nd, Daggett, (C); 3rd, Buyniski, (C). Time, 10s.

220 yard dash—Won by Delfausse, (V); 2nd, Buyniski, (C); 3rd, Turbyne, (C). Time, 22 1-5s.

440 yard dash—Won by Merrick, (C); 2nd, MacMillan, (V); 3rd, Collins, (V). Time 52 3-5s.

880 yard run—Won by C. Veysey, (C); 2nd, Davis, (V); 3rd, Merchant, (V). Time, 2.03 3-5s.

Mile run—Won by H. Veysey, (C); 2nd, C. Veysey, (C); 3rd, Lehrer, (V). Time, 4.51 4-5s.

Two mile run—Won by C. Veysey, (C); DeVeber, (C); 3rd, Jenks, (V). Time, 9.58

120 yard high hurdles—Won by Syme, (V); 2nd, Trudeau, (V); 3rd, Dolan, (C). Time, 16s.

220 yard low hurdles—Won by Syme, (V); 2nd, Nadeau, (C); 3rd, Trudeau, (V). Time, 26s.

Javelin—Won by Delfausse, (V); 2nd, Estes, (C); 3rd, Collins, (V). Distance, 169 ft. 7 in.

Soft Ball League Opens This Week

The volleyball league having concluded last week, tomorrow the fraternities swing into the last leg of the first year's competition for the Alden Sprague Memorial Trophy. Tomorrow the soft ball league gets underway. Last year the league was perhaps the most interesting of all the intramural sports. Tau Delta Phi finally won the championship in a play off for the title against the A. T. O.'s. This year the competition should be equally keen.

The following rules have been adopted for the league:

1. All games to be 7 innings unless ending in a tie.

2. Each fraternity shall appoint one of its members as an official umpire to officiate games when his team is not playing.

3. All members of varsity squads as posted by coaches are ineligible for participation.

4. No spikes of any kind permitted on shoes of players; underhand pitching; no gloves permitted, and official playground rules will govern play.

5. All games to start at 4 p. m.

6. Managers are responsible for securing bats, bases, and balls from equipment room.

7. Manager of winning team shall be responsible for recording results of game at office.

8. All entries close at noon Thursday, May 2.

THE MULE KICKS

By Jerry Ryan

That ankle injury that Ralph Peabody received in the Bowdoin game last Saturday is just another of the tough breaks that have come the way of the well liked senior this year. First it was in football season that the injury jinx seemed to pursue him almost unceasingly. It is probable that the injured member will keep him out of action for the remainder of the week. In the meantime his right field position will be taken care of by Tom Yadwinski.

—C—

It looks as though Maine will be Colby's leading opponent in the State Series baseball race this year. The Black Bears have an excellent hitting outfit and the best pitching staff in the state. Such clubbers as Hal Woodbury, Red Walton, Al Bell, Stan Henderson, Charlie Keegan, and Dick Braley are hard for any pitcher to get by and the pitchers, Henderson, Hoyt, Green, Kilgore, and Bell, are much better than the average run of hurlers found in this state.

Bates has a powerful batting attack, but the hurling situation has been worrying Joe Murphy all the season. Bowdoin has a couple of good pitchers, but not much punch to back them up with.

—C—

The fact that the golf team lost all nine points to Bowdoin in their first match of the season does not indicate that the Mule club swingers will not be right up on top again this season. Prior to this match the boys had little or no chance to get outdoors and were way off their last year's form. The thing which probably contributed the most to their downfall, however, was the fact that the Junior Prom was the night before and the boys were played out the next day.

—C—

COLLEGE NOTES—Cecil Daggett is going to be a first class sprinter in time if his showing against Delfausse of Vermont is any indication. Running against one of the outstanding dashmen in the east, the sensational freshman lost by only two yards and must have done 10 1-5 . . . the 19-8 defeat of Maine at the hands of Boston College last week is an indication of the relative strength of the college teams from the two states . . . many have suggested that it might be better to have two nights of "chasers" next year instead of another Prom (?) . . . next week this column will feature a forecast of the State Meet outcome . . .

Golf Crew To Tackle Maine

Bowdoin won all of the nine points from the Mules in the golf opener last Saturday, but the boys have had considerable practice since then and are expected to do much better Saturday against Maine on the familiar country club course. The overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Polar Bears was due largely to the lack of outdoor practice on the part of Captain "Doc" Abbott and his mates.

The boys will play in the same positions as they did against Bowdoin. Captain Abbott will be number one; Ernie Roderick, number two; Johnny Reynolds, number three; Noyes Ervin, number four; Bob Williams, number five; and Bob Winslow, number six.

JUNIOR WEEK-END

It is difficult to cite any one actor for great merit in the play. They all did a fine piece of work. Colomy in the lead-role took his part in characteristic excellence. Carl Reed dispersed the odor of the farm in all directions, "Penner" Roach could not have put on a more effective liquor scene had he been truly "tight." "Hal" Kimball was a typical good-natured pro athlete. Banzi continued effectively the bellowing which brought down the house in the Dramatic Art production, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," and Mary Small was a true "fond mother." "Jiny" Swallow's Erin acent from "The White-Headed Boy" was a good carry-over, Willy Stanley and Ann Trimble's acting left nothing to be desired and that scrap they staged was a highlight of the play.

The performance of the Glee Clubs between the acts received the hearty O.K. of the audience. The novel arrangements were the creation of Mr. Thomas.

SHAWN TROUPE

endurance it required as for its vivid and admirable portrayal of the American epic. The dance lasted for seventeen minutes, an unparalleled duration for a solo dance.

The third group had a strong appeal for the audience. The dances were widely varied in mood and nature, based on the themes of play, labor and war. Shawn's "Flamenco Dances" was most enthusiastically received and drew an encore. Two other solo dances in this group, Barton Mumay's "French Sailor" and Wilbur McCormack's "Turkey in the Straw, as danced by a Cowboy," received hearty applause. "Workers' Songs of Middle Europe" and "Cutting the Sugar Cane" were of especial interest because of their social nature and background. This element is rather new in the dance and is rapidly gaining in importance. The religious dances which comprised the final part of the program were deeply moving and truly spiritual, and made a gradual return to the pure art form of the first dances of the evening.

MONTGOMERY PRIZE

will meet all contestants, coaches, and visiting school officials in the College Chapel.

11.45 A. M.—All contestants and guests will assemble at the College Chapel for a group picture. As the picture will be given wide publicity, contestants are asked to be on hand. Contestants may obtain pictures by leaving orders with a member of the committee.

11.00 A. M.—Conference of principals of schools and coaches of public speaking.

12.15-1.30 P. M.—Contestants will lunch together at the First Baptist Church.

2.00 P. M.—Contestants will assemble in groups for the preliminary speaking. These groups will be judged by Colby undergraduates who are students in the department of public speaking. These judges have been given careful instruction about the method of grading the work of speakers in accordance with the rules set forth. Three or more of the best speakers will be selected from each group. No announcement of the names of the ones selected will be made before the final speaking.

5.45 P. M.—All contestants and judges will be entertained at a banquet at the First Baptist Church, with a short program of after-dinner speaking.

7.45 P. M.—The final speaking will occur in the College Chapel and prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the program.

The following are the schools and their accredited representatives:

Abbott High, Thomas G. Brown; Bar Harbor High, Nathaniel Guptill and Lewis Gilfillan; Belgrade High, Roland Farnham and Ralph Endicott; Biddeford High, John Chacamaty; Irving Shpiro; George Stevens Academy, Basil L. ## Wanted: Tennis Courts . . .

THE number of tennis players who are turning out on the two men's courts brings into the limelight the new courts which are under construction near Chemical Hall. Many students are wondering why work is not being pushed on these courts. It would almost seem as though enough time had already been consumed to construct about a dozen courts. Since the college is not paying for the work, why not hire enough labor to finish the courts lay.

Wide Notice To Convocation . . .

The freedom of the press convocation which will be held at Colby, May 18, is attracting nation-wide interest. Joseph Smith, publicity director of the college recently submitted to the ECHO an item regarding the event which was clipped from the Charleston (W. Va.) Gazette.

The Gazette is the largest newspaper in the state of West Virginia. The item was the lead editorial for the issue of Monday, April 22, 1935. Following are portions of it which will give some idea of how important the press world considers the meeting which the college is sponsoring.

"This newspaper had recently received an invitation to attend convocation at Waterville, Maine, on May 18. The occasion will be to commemorate Elijah Parish Lovejoy, an alumnus of Colby College (formerly Waterville College), who gave his life in defense of the freedom of the press almost a hundred years ago.

"Not only the press but the whole people are indebted to this martyr for his contribution to the rights of the people under a democracy.

"If any man ever gave his life for the freedom of the press it was Elijah Parish Lovejoy. The press of this nation and of the world should stand with uncovered heads when the commemoration takes place at Waterville next month."

Northfield Conference
To Be Held At Becket

The Northfield Student Conference will be held this year June 10-18 at Camp Becket, Becket, Mass. Among the long list of distinguished speakers this year will be Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle, Dr. Henry P. Van Dusen, and Sherwood Eddy. Colby has always been well represented at this conference, and it is hoped that a good delegation will attend this year.

Dr. Little To Deliver
Commencement Address

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, former president of the University of Maine and the University of Michigan, will deliver the commencement address at Colby College on Monday, June 17, according to announcement today from Prof. Lester F. Weeks, chairman of the committee.

Dr. Little is at present devoting himself to biological research as head of the Jackson Memorial Laboratory in Bar Harbor. He was graduated from Harvard in the class of 1910 and has received honorary degrees from that institution, University of New Hampshire, Albion College, and University of New Mexico. Following graduation, he remained at Harvard in a research capacity and also acted as assistant dean of the college and university marshal. He was associated with the Harvard Medical School and the Carnegie Institution for Experimental Evolution until 1922, when he was called to the presidency of the University of Maine which he left in 1925 to accept the presidency of the University of Michigan. He has been in Bar Harbor since 1929.

Dr. Little is prominently connected with many scientific organizations and has been president of many, including the International Neo-Malthusian League, the Race Betterment Congress of 1929, the Mount Desert Biological Laboratory, The American Association for Cancer Research, and the American Eugenics Society.

Valuable Additions
To Hardy Collection

Announcement of the addition of more than 200 items to the Hardy Collection in the Colby College Library since February is made in the May issue of the Colby Mercury, out Monday. Unpublished letters, both in manuscript and transcript form, clippings, criticisms and other valuable material relating to Thomas Hardy, the great English novelist, are cataloged.

These items have been donated by a number of people, particularly Grenville H. Norcross of Boston, Dr. Stanley J. Keyes of New York City, Paul Lemperly of Cleveland, and an anonymous contributor.

The most valuable single gift is a transcript of almost the entire correspondence between Hardy and his friend Sir Edmund Gosse, covering a period of 42 years. In these letters, which have never been published, are comments on the novelist's works, his thoughts, methods, reactions to public criticism, and the like, which provide rich material for the study of Hardy.

The most extensive donation consisted of 137 different items relating to Hardy which Mr. Lemperly has given to Colby College. It represents a life-time accumulation by this Hardy enthusiast who thus recognizes the importance of the Colby collection of Hardiana.

This collection has been compiled largely through the efforts of Professor Carl J. Weber, head of the Department of English at Colby, whose discovery and publication of Hardy's "lost novel" last March was an event in the literary world. Professor Weber invites information regarding original letters or other Hardy material.

New Levine Contest
To Be Held Monday

Another record was broken at Colby last week when five and one-half hours were required to run off the preliminaries in the newly established Levine Extemporaneous Prize Speaking contest. A total of 54 students of the men's division delivered five-minute extempore speeches on the general subject of "Colby College." Professor Libby acted as sole judge.

Ranking the speakers upon form and content, Professor Libby made the following selection: Joel Allen, '37, Harold F. Brown, '35, William M. Clark, '36, Philip E. Coleman, '38, Laurance E. Dow, '35, John P. Dulan, '36, John J. English, '35, Edward J. Gurney, Jr., '35, Harold W. Hickcy, '36, Melvin G. Higgins, '35, Richard N. Noyes, '35, George D. Vose, '38.

The final contest will be held on Monday evening, May 6, in the college chapel. Addresses will be limited to eight minutes and will be judged on the basis of 50 points on subject matter and 50 points on presentation. The general subject will be the same as that used in the preliminaries. Drawings of subjects will be made from the office of President Johnson at 10.15 o'clock, Monday forenoon, May 6.

This will be the first public extemporaneous speaking contest ever held in the college.

International Club
Receives New Books

The International Relations Club has recently received the following books and pamphlets from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace:

Books

Joseph A. Baccus, Arms and Munitions.
William H. Chamberlain, Russia's Iron Age.
Russell M. Cooper, American Consultation in World Affairs.
Herbert Heaton, The British Way to Recovery.
Manley O. Hudson, The Permanent Court of International Justice.

Problems of the New Cuba (Report of the Committee on Cuban Affairs of the Foreign Policy Association).

Pamphlets

An American Foreign Policy.
Walter Duranty, Europe: War or Peace?

Also an address by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, and two letters from George N. Peek to the President of foreign trade.

These books and pamphlets have been placed in the Main Reading Room of the library, and may be examined or taken out by any students.

The International Relations Club has also received a noteworthy statement, in a form suitable for framing, signed by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Director of the Carnegie Endowment. The statement, which will shortly be placed in the library, reads as follows:

"The purpose of the Carnegie Endowment in undertaking this work of the International Relations Clubs is to instruct and to enlighten public opinion. It is not to support exclusively any one view as to how best to treat the conditions which now prevail throughout the world, but to fix the attention of students on those underlying principles of international conduct, of international law and of international organization which must be agreed upon and put into action if a peaceful civilization is to continue."

It looks like the old story of economic determinism at Vassar.

One of the professors there was noted for years for his outspoken distaste for gum chewing by the girls in his classes. But now they say, he has fallen silent upon the subject and the most obvious mastication evokes nary a frown.

The reason? The reason is this—the professor has just invested in 100 shares of American Chiclet!

— C —

It looks like the old American business life scheme of starting at the bottom and working up has been reversed by professors at the Babson Institute, where potential executives are trained.

In this school, each student is provided with a shiny, glass-topped desk, a dictaphone, and stenographer. However, we understand, each stenographer's working hours are definitely devoted to working.

— C —

What the future holds as figured out by students in the University of Minnesota law school of Minneapolis:

"A" men make the teachers.

"B" men make the judges.

"C" men make the money.

"And," added a wit, "The 'D' men make the Congressmen."

— C —

The ranks of the legal profession, already greatly overcrowded aren't going to be swelled unduly by graduates from the Minnesota school, apparently. Out of the 137 freshman students this winter, 101 flunked their preliminary tests.

But the Dean merely remarked, "that is nothing unusual."

— C —

The newest form of literary expression among sorority girls in many colleges where the goofy idea has spread consists of preposterous, but somehow humorous, perversions of Mother Goose jingles. To be appreciated, you must have a simpering young lass say them aloud. For example:

Simple Simon met a pieman
Going to the fair
Said Simple Simon to the pieman
"Hello."

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet
Eating her curds and whey;
Along came a spider
And sat down.

ECHO
ECHOINGS
12 Years Ago

January 24, 1923.

The initial game on the new Colby rink, Saturday, January 20, between Colby and Bowdoin was the first contest in hockey ever played on the campus in a championship series. The dedication was quite a success although the Brunswickers took away the bacon with the close score of 3 to 2.

The interfraternity basketball league got underway Tuesday, January 16, with a game between the D. U. and Non-Fraternity teams. The game was a surprise to the dopesters. The D. U. five was conceded an easy victory, but was fortunate in landing on the long end of a 23 to 20 score.

The Colby Chess Club met the Waterville club in a four board match, the outcome of which was doubtful until the very end. The score was 9-8 and one draw, in favor of the collegians.

The first annual initiation banquet of the Epsilon Chapter of the Alpha fraternity was held Monday night at the Elmwood Hotel. This chapter of the Alpha fraternity, which was formerly the local fraternity of Pi Delta Phi, was installed last spring.

Mercury Offers $50 for Best Essay On How to Oust Profs. From Gov.

The American Mercury will pay $500 for the best essay submitted by an undergraduate of any American college on the subject: "The Professors Got The Country Into This Mess: But We Can Get It Out." No sane man will deny the truth of the first part of the above statement—Washington, D. C., is today overrun with recently unemployed professors now embedded in the government payrolls. Every office holder is an LL.D., a Ph.D. or a D.D.S. and even the meanest stenographer boasts an M.A. Realizing that no one knows what a professor is trying to say or do as well as an undergraduate, The American Mercury is perfectly willing to see the national government taken over by a competent student council and is prepared to support legislation toward that end. The boys certainly can do no worse than the oldsters have already done. Obviously, no man should be allowed to assume the mantle of office until he is eighteen years of age; but, obviously also in the face of what now goes on, no man should be allowed to sport the mantle after he passes forty. If this were law today, the Senate would have sent Huey Long back to the canebrakes in 1933, and Senator Borah would have been quietly spraying Idaho potato bugs for, lo, these last thirty years. Who can deny but that the senior class at Colby would comport itself with more dignity in the Senate than the present incumbents? A twenty-one year old president surrounded by a cabinet of the average age of twenty might get something done.

As before stated this contest for the best essay on the above subject is open to any bona fide undergraduate in the land. (Graduate students are embryo professors and must therefore be barred). The best essay received before September 1, 1935, will net its young author $500. The American Mercury regrets that the dollars will be actually worth only 58 cents apiece—but there again the professors are to blame. No essay may be more than 2500 words in length.

The judges of this contest, whose decision as usual will be final, are H. L. Mencken, Laurence Stallings, and Paul Palmer.

In case of a tie, equal prizes will be given to the tying contestants and $6000 will be donated outright to the American Association of University Professors.

Manuscripts should be directed to Contest Editor, The American Mercury, 730 Fifth Avenue, New York. No entries will be returned. The American Mercury reserves the right to print extracts from non-winning essays, such extracts to be paid for at regular rates. The contest begins at once: an essay received after midnight, August 31, will be considered. Watch forthcoming issues of The American Mercury for further announcements.

The American Mercury.

Midland College (Fremont, Neb.) students are estimated to consume their own weight in food every month, plus 12 pounds each for good measure. The average collegian monthly drinks 51 pounds of milk, eats 35 pounds of vegetables, 18 pounds of fruit, and 12 pounds of meat.

Pierce, Hodges Attend Conference At Yale

The Colby "Y" was represented at the Presidents Conference the past week-end by Malcolm Pierce and Deane Hodges. Representatives from all the New England colleges met at the Yale Divinity School for the purpose of planning and discussing religious programs on the campuses. A highlight of the conference was participation in the World's Student Christian Federation Banquet held annually at Yale. Students from twenty-seven foreign countries were present.

The guest speaker of the conference was Dr. C. H. Dodd, the English New Testament scholar. Other leaders were, Sidney Lovett, the Yale chaplain; Prof. Clarence Shedd, Yale; Brooke Anderson, Brown Christian Association secretary; and Wallace Ross, Tech. Christian Association secretary.

A tour of the University, a dance and reception following the banquet, and the Yale-Penn baseball game provided the recreation.

Caswell, Millett, Gould At N. H. Conference

Colby College was represented at the annual conference of the Women's Student Government association of the New England Colleges, held at the University of New Hampshire, Durham, N. H., on April 25 and 26, by Kathryn Caswell, '36, Ruth Millett, '36, and Marjorie Gould, '37.

While the girls were there they were entertained by the Phi Mu Delta fraternity at a victrola party, at a formal banquet at Exeter Inn, and at a Pan-Hellenic Hall.

The association meeting was voted to be held at the University of Maine next year.

Like to have siced a couple of amateur Charley Chans on those two gents who went around to the chasers posing as S. A. E. studes from U. of M. . . know for a fact that they are both grads of Gorham Normal School . . . My idea of wasted energy would run like this . . . the gesture Prof. Stanley made t'other day of trying to light an electric bulb with a match . . . Got a paper in our room tacked on the wall that's been signed by Ed Rick and runs . . . "Ann Trimble is the sweetest girl I ever knew in Colby College" . . . Norm Brown has hung the pin on Hillie Wheeler . . . Mon. to be exact . . . Pete Evers, after a slight faux pas, has his adorning Ruth Keller's dress front now . . .

CHITCHATTERY . . .
Wade Davis in four successive dates with Louise Weeks, who's a sight for sore eyes whenever she pops onto the horizon . . . Almost everyone has some pet aversion . . . Ray Farnham's is getting lost and losing things . . . will the stude who offed with his top-coat from the Prom kindly see Ray . . . To make matters worse he and Betty got lost in and about the South end the other eve . . . the devoted pair (and we'll say they are devoted) got back half an hour late and the result runs like a pun . . . Campus for her and a compass for him . . . from the Dean of Women . . . There were many members in the neck-craning group to read what was penned on a post card that Deane Hodges received from his true love . . . seems as tho everyone read before Deane . . . said she wouldn't go to a certain place again amongst other things . . . Nadeau's new heart-throb is Caddoo's sis . . . Rolly is importing her for the spring dance . . . truth is he's never really seen her in person, but goes big for the picture of her which sits atop Charlie's dresser and which would have been all his very own had he come thru with a win in the hurdles in that Maine meet . . . so ran the bet . . .

ABSOLUTE "INSIDE" . . .
The fact that Jerry Brand sent to B. U. Medical School for a dental application is always worth a chuckle . . . they have no dental school . . . Hear Waterville High's Ruth Mintz is simply crazy to get her name in the cylum . . . hi, Ruth . . . Morris Campbell, Sheldon Rudnick, and Arthur Feldman in a week-end celebration . . . made the rounds of the Clover Club, Green Lantern, and Pine Tree Tavern Friday nite . . . hied away to the U. of M. Sat. and proceeded to get stuck in a mud hole on the way back Sun. with 3 chippies . . . a couple of horses did the trick . . . The ato blond is Fairfielding and Fairfielding . . . Be it ever so embaring and embarrassing, Leo Sparber got all twisted up and went into Mary Low House by mistake . . . Billy Falt the recipient of a ten page letter . . . written on both sides . . . a stooge told me so today . . . A wild rumor blew in here a few moments ago to the effect that Gladys Wein can hardly rest until she gets to Old Orchard this summer to meet up again with the donor of a bracelet she treasures . . . Now I am wondering where the dope for next week's column is coming from . . . it being harder to get than a Kentucky colonelcy . . .

DEFERRED PLEDGING

final form of the plan. The plan is as follows:

I. The two weeks following freshman week to be closed to pledging.

A. If the college freshman week ends within a calendar week the remainder of the college week is to be considered as freshman week.

II. Each freshman shall visit each fraternity.

A. This shall be part of the freshman orientation program.

III. Active pledging to begin after this period.

IV. Freshman pledging before this period will be penalized.

A. They cannot pledge again until the second semester to any fraternity.

V. Fraternities breaking these rules will be penalized.

Boothby & Bartlett Co.
GENERAL INSURANCE
185 Main St.      Waterville, Me.

A. The penalty shall be refusal by the Student Council to allow that fraternity the privilege of holding a Fall Dance.

B. A committee of three faculty members to be appointed by the President of the college.

C. This committee shall decide whether or not there has been an infraction of the rules.

D. The decision of the committee automatically sets the penalty in operation.

E. Attention to any alleged infraction of the rules may be presented to the Student Council, and the Student Council will refer the matter to the Faculty committee.

This year approximately 33,000 students will receive some $6,000,000 in scholarships, while a smaller group will receive nearly a million in graduate fellowships.

8,271 men and women
visited the Chesterfield factories during the past year . . .

A man who visited a Chesterfield factory recently, said: "Now that I have seen Chesterfields made, I understand better than ever why people say Chesterfields are milder and have a better taste."

If you too could visit our factories you could see the clean, airy surroundings; the employees in their spotless uniforms, and the modern cigarette making machinery.

You could notice how carefully each Chesterfield cigarette is inspected and see also how Chesterfields are practically untouched by human hands.

Whenever you happen to be in Richmond, Va., Durham, N. C., or San Francisco, California, we invite you to stop at the Liggett & Myers plants and see how Chesterfields are made.
