OH, WHAT A BUSY DAY in the O'Neil | O'Donnell Forum on the Jack Kelley Rink. Recreational and team athletes take to the ice while other members of the community work out on the cardio equipment on the upper viewing deck.

A time-lapse image taken over the course of 15 hours captures the breadth of the community's use of the Harold Alford Athletics and Recreation Center. The new building showed a significant uptick in use with more than 85 percent of the student body taking advantage of practice spaces, recreational opportunities, and wellness classes during the academic year.
