Articles on any aspect of literature in English may be considered for publication. The Quarterly takes a special interest in Maine and regional history, as well as literature (regional includes adjacent Canadian provinces and American states). We also take special interest in authors well represented in the Miller Library special collections (e.g., Thomas Hardy, Henry James, W. B. Yeats, Lady Gregory, James Joyce, other Irish writers from 1880 to the present). Other special interests include the relationships of art and literature, and the relationships of psychology, history, and literature.

Manuscripts are welcome. They should be prepared in conformity with The MLA Style Sheet, and should be accompanied by a self-addressed envelope and return postage. All manuscripts and business communications should be directed to the editor.

Subscriptions: $6.00 per year; students, $3.00. Single copies, $1.50.

Microfilms of back issues may be procured at University Microfilms, Inc., 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103. We can supply most of the original individual issues, but not all.

Second-class postage paid at Waterville, Maine. Postmaster, send form 3579 to the Colby Library Quarterly, Colby College, Waterville, Maine 04901.

COLBY LIBRARY ASSOCIATES

Founded 1935

The object of the Associates is to increase the resources of the Colby College Library by securing gifts and providing funds for the purchase of rare books, manuscripts, and letters which the Library could not otherwise acquire.

Membership is open to anyone at an annual subscription of $10.00 or more; graduates of the College for the first three years after graduation, $2.00; undergraduates, $1.00; or an equivalent gift of books or other materials needed by the Library.

Membership applications should be directed to J. Fraser Cocks III, Curator of Special Collections.
