Sue Sterne Shows Figure Skating

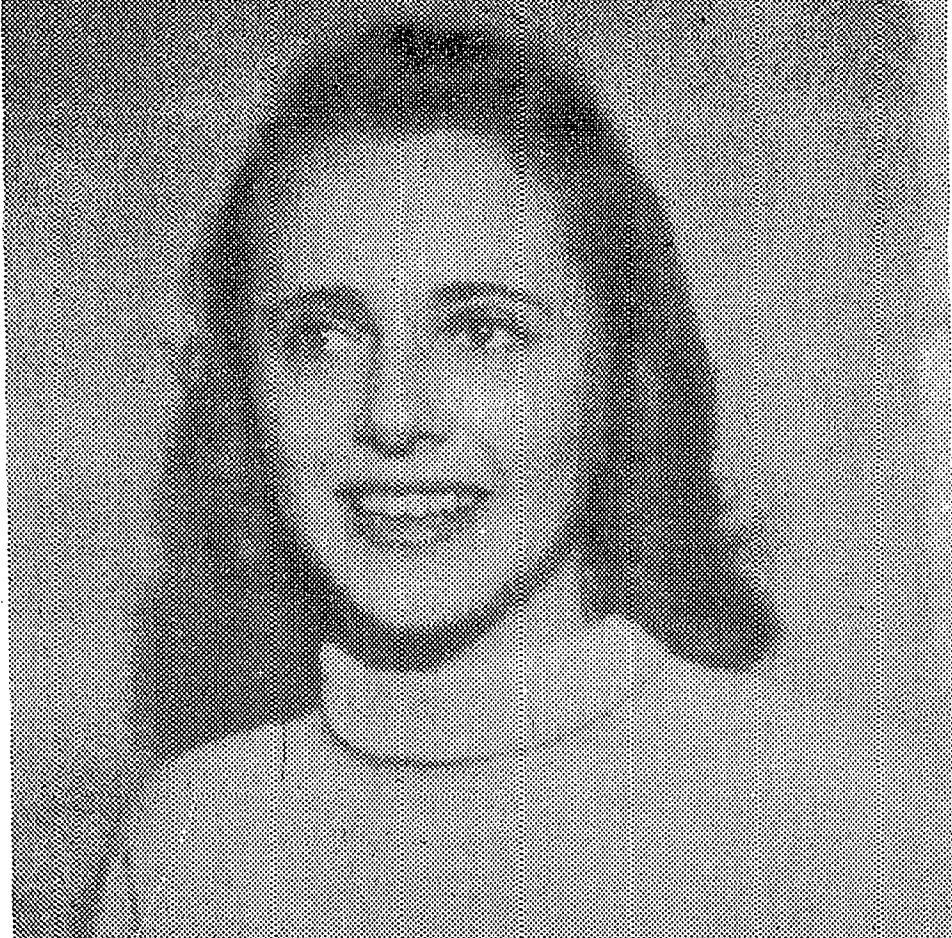

Susan Sterne, a girl with an awfully long title behind her name, entertained hockey fans this afternoon between periods at the Colby-Tufts hockey game.

Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sterne of Penn Valley, Narberth, Pa., is a prospective Colby student. She is in her last year at Lower Marion High School in Ardmore, Pa. and is visiting the campus this weekend. She is the guest of admissions director Bill Bryan and of freshman Janie Holden, an old friend.

The long title attached to Susan's name is Runner-up in the Eastern Senior Pairs competition, a contest held two weeks ago. Since then, Susan participated in the competition of the title of Eastern States to enter the national competition championship, hoping to be allowed next month in California.

Susan has been skating for a long time. Among her other titles are included Philadelphia Area Juvenile Champion, Philadelphia Area Ladies Champion, and Philadelphia Area Senior Mixed Pair Champion. Earlier she also came in fourth in the national Junior Pairs competition.

WINTER CARNIVAL QUEEN

At 10:30 this evening in the Women's Union, Ellie Shorey was crowned Queen to reign over Colby's Winter Carnival. With a flourish of music by Elliot Lawrence's band, and to the applause of hundreds of students, Ellie received the crown after hearing the announcement from President Bixler.

Ellie is a senior from Ridgewood, New Jersey and is majoring in French. She has found time to combine good academic achievement as well as extra-curricular jobs. She is secretary of the senior class, and was rush chairman for Delta Delta Delta this past semester. She is a cheerleader, a member of Phi Sigma Iota, and a great skiing enthusiast. Aside from her great interest in art and sketching, she hopes to work in Boston when she graduates from Colby.

Ellie says that she prefers Maine to New Jersey, and spends a great deal of her time in this fair state in the summer time. This is the second Queen that the Sigma Theta Psi's have presented to Colby. Carol York, also Tri-Delt, was their Homecoming Queen.

Winter Carnival Committee Heads Presents Varied Week-end Events

Third row; Norman Lee, Bob Brolli, Peter Doran, Doug Davidson, and Bill Clark.

The dates of February 7, 8, and 9 have haunted the minds of Winter Carnival Committee members since September, and many long hours of meetings and conferences have finally culminated in a weekend of the most activity ever witnessed on campus.

Chairman Sara Stewart and co-chairmen Tom Coleman and Pat Richmond have spearheaded the activities aided by a large number of committee chairmen. Advisor

Mike Loeb stood by, offering suggestions from his many years of experience with Carnival committees. Treasurer Arthur Engdahl kept a wary eye on the proceedings because the committee had very little money with which to work. The demands of the student body for a name band, plus the committee's wish to offer Colbyites a wider range of activities, proved most difficult due to the limited budget.

Publicity chairmen Barbara Field and Norman Lee solicited their artistic acquaintances for poster-making and went to great ends to secure the white material for the banners flying between Johnson Hall and the library and in front of the Women's Union. Both spent their Christmas vacations stamping spoons and napkins for the Spa and working in conjunction with Echo editors and Dick Dyer.

Three Goeds Gain Magazine Position

Colby College will be represented this year on Mademoiselle's national College Board by Jacqueline Lee Bendelius, 1959, Joan Guilles, 1957, and Eleanor E. Jones, 1957. They are among the 650 students who competed with applicants from colleges all over the country to win places on the Board, according to Mademoiselle.

As College Board members, they will represent their campuses and report to Mademoiselle on college life and the college scene. Each girl will complete two assignments that will help her explore her interests and abilities in writing, editing, fashion, advertising or art, in competition for the twenty Guest Editorships to be awarded by the magazine at the end of May.

The Guest Editors will be brought to New York for four weeks next to Mademoiselle's 1957 August June to help write, edit and illustrate College issue. Their transportation will be paid to and from New York and they will receive a regular salary for their work.

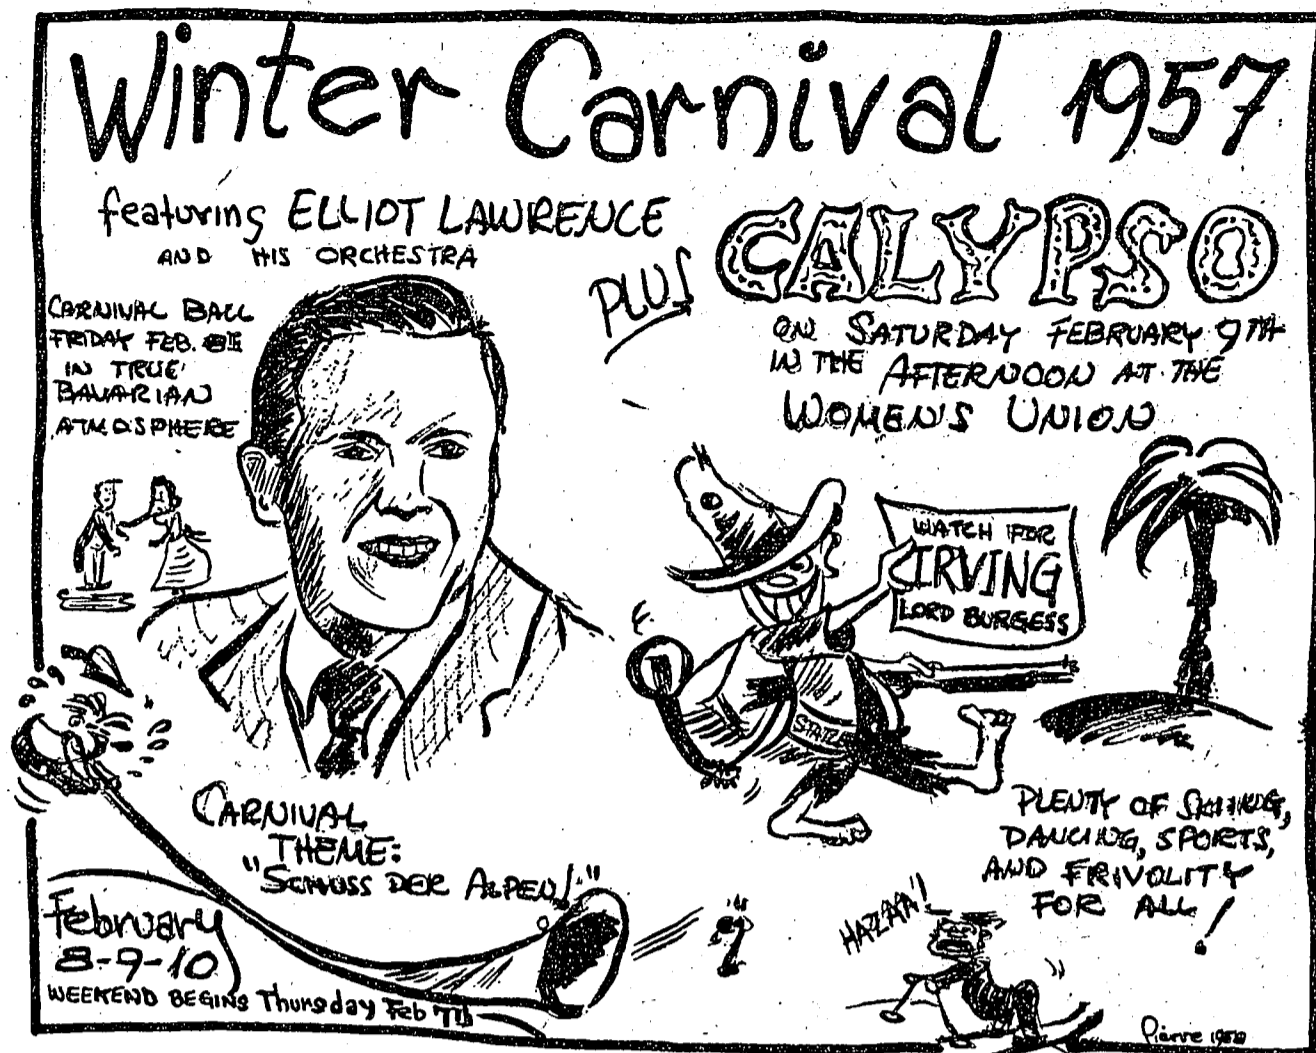

Naval Reserve Program Available

Are you freshmen, sophomores and juniors interested in a commission as a Naval Reserve Officer? If so, be sure to investigate the Naval Reserve Officer Candidate Program now. You can now apply for acceptance into this program before joining the Naval Reserve, then if accepted you will join the Reserve and attend weekly drills at your nearest Naval Reserve Training Center (in this case, Augusta).

You will attend two 8-week sessions during two consecutive summers at the school in Newport, Rhode Island. Upon graduation from college (or completion of the second summer session, whichever comes later) you will receive a commission as Ensign in the Line, Supply Corps or Civil Engineer Corps.

Remember, the deadline date for making application this year is February 25.

For more details contact the Commanding Officer of the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center in Augusta, Maine.

As a result of the President's League being dissolved, the Student Government has decided that the Social Committee should function as a centralizing authority for all major campus events. It has passed by majority vote of the members present the following, as an amendment to article III, section 2 of the Student Government Constitution:

The Council shall set up a social committee which shall be responsible for the scheduling of all student social functions affecting the college as a whole. The chairman is to be elected by the Social committee, subject to the approval of the Council. This committee, subject to existing college rules and regulations, shall compose and enforce the social standards to be followed by all college organizations and shall have the power to recommend probation for any violator thereon. In addition this committee shall act in an executive capacity, having authority to organize, direct, and coordinate; and to delegate responsibility for, the planning and holding of all college social functions as so designated by the committee. This committee shall be composed of one representative from each of the college organizations which the council shall determine requires a seat in such a committee, the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, and one faculty advisor. Hangout will have a member ex-officio of the Council.

Tonight's Carnival Ball "Marty Burger Quartet" Features Offers Lawrence Band New Progressive Trends In Jazz

Elliot Lawrence, a most successful young dance band leader with an unusual musical background, is bringing his orchestra to Colby for the Winter Carnival Ball on Friday evening, February eighth, 8:30-12:30 in the Women's Union.

Lawrence's unusual musical background dates back to 1925 in Philadelphia where he was born to parents connected with the famous Children's Hour on radio. At an early age Elliot began to play the piano, and he showed a remarkable aptitude for music. By 1931, at the age of six, he was giving piano recitals on radio and at local concerts. When he was twelve, he entered Berwyn High School where, expanding further his musical talents, he began serious arranging and composing. He formed a band known around Philadelphia as "The Band Busters" which was featured every Sunday on WCAU in Philly, and which was often engaged for proms at small colleges in Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

On his graduation from high school at the age of fifteen, he enrolled in the University of Pennsylvania where his musical accomplishments continued. He led the school band and orchestra and, also, played for proms at such schools as Villanova, Penn State, and Virginia Polytech. By the time of his graduation, at the age of nineteen, he had been admitted to Kite and Key, national honor fraternity and had won the Alumni Prize and the Thornton Oakley Gold Medal for creative art, the highest award at the University.

After his graduation from Pennsylvania, he was appointed musical director of his old radio station, WCAU in Philadelphia. In 1945, CBS started its series of "Listen to Lawrence" on its nationwide network, and after this, Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra became known the country over. In 1946, he signed a contract with Columbia Records and opened at the famed Cafe Rouge of the Statler Hotel in New York. After the Statler engagement, he went to Frank Dailoy's Meadowbrook in New Jersey, and after that came dates at the Paramount Theater in New York and the Palladium in Hollywood. He appeared on the "Chesterfield Supper Club" and other top radio shows, and, during this time he was named three times the number one band in the land by BILLBOARD MAGAZINE.

Today, Elliot Lawrence has one of the most active orchestras in the country. In radio and television, he can be heard on "The Dunninger Show" (NBC-TV) and "The Amoco Show" (CBS Radio Network). In the capacity of composer, he has

Postpone Ski Trip

The ski trip formerly scheduled for February 15, 16, and 17 to Jackson, New Hampshire, one of the biggest skiing centers in New England has been postponed until the following weekend of February 22, 23, and 24 because the lodge facilities were unavailable. All those Outing Club members who are interested in the ski trip should know that the tentative plans concerning the expenses will be five dollars per person which will include food and lodging for the weekend. All other expenses are individual, primarily they being the cost of the tow. All those interested in the trip should attend the Outing Club meeting on Tuesday, February 19, at 4:30 in Robert's Union in the Hurd Room so that definite plans may be made and cars assigned to the skiers.

GERRY MULLIGAN BEST BARITONE SAX

Gerry Mulligan was the overwhelming choice for baritone sax player in the First Annual PLAYBOY All Star Jazz Poll. Mulligan received the largest number of votes given any musician in the poll. More than 21,000 ballots were cast. The winners of the PLAYBOY Jazz Poll, by far the largest and most authoritative ever conducted in this field, are announced in the February issue of PLAYBOY Magazine. The winners include such names as Frank Sinatra, Stan Kenton, Dave Brubeck and Louis Armstrong.

House Parties Features Dancing, Snow Sculptures

Winter Carnival — 1957 Edition should prove to be one of the finest ever for the fraternities as well as for the entire campus. The various fraternities have lined up a gala array of stars, bands, and entertainment of kinds . . . and most of the houses are planning to supplement their snow sculptures with jam sessions, calypso, et al. The social committees of the houses are working full steam to provide the best for YOU and are hoping that a large turnout of the students will take advantage of their preparations.

ATO Feature Quintet

The ATO's are featuring the Bob Libby Quintet, which has just completed an extended engagement at Birdland in New York City and Storyville in Boston. These fellows really knock out some pretty cool sounds and should be taken in by all means. The Quintet will be at the ATO house Saturday afternoon and will be PART of the entertainment in the evening . . . the rest consisting of skits and stars beginning at 10:00 (that is the time the show begins). Dancing all evening!!!

TAU'S Boast Dixie

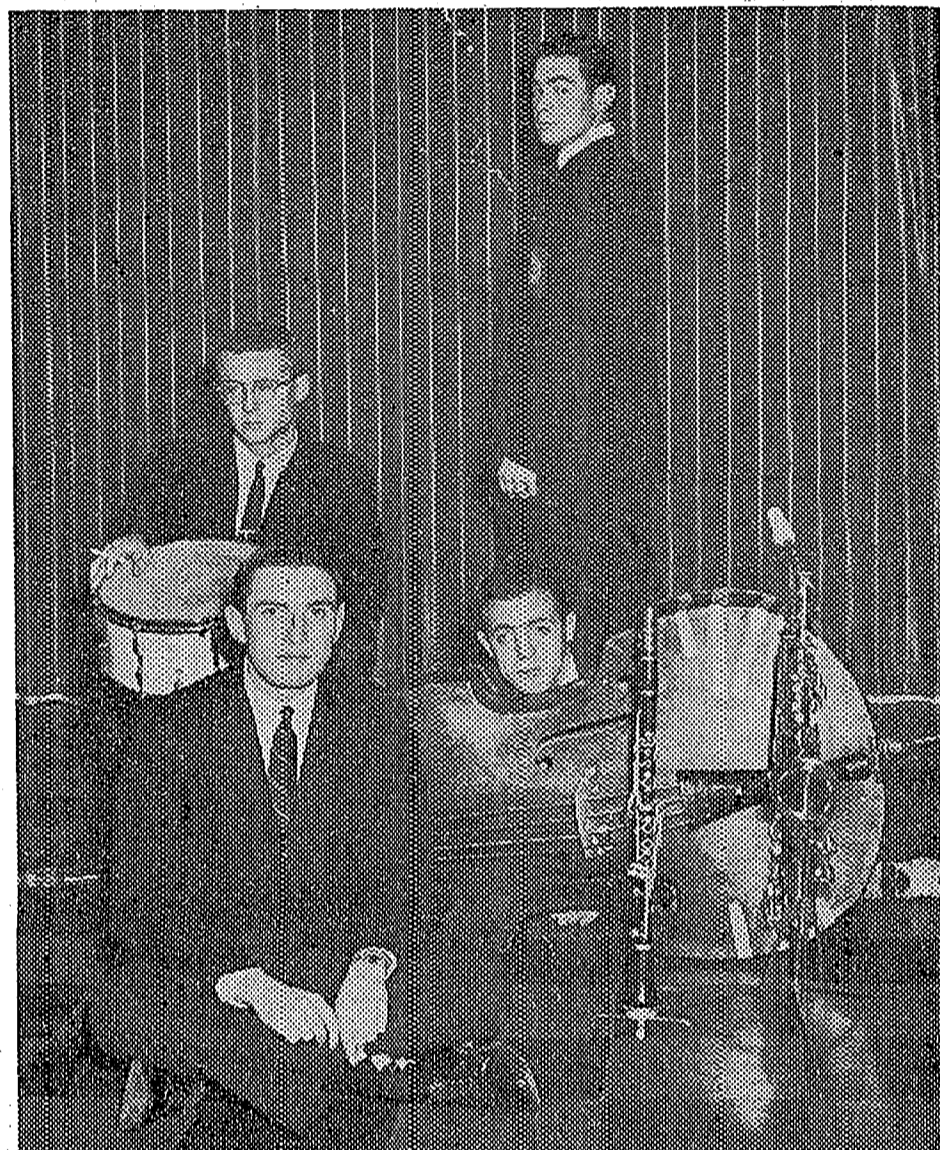

The "Tiny Taus" have one of the finest bands, both Dixieland and dance, at the Tau Delt house all day Saturday. Beginning with an all-star dixieland Jam Session in the afternoon, the University of Maine Swing Band, will continue into the evening with dance music mixed with dixieland. The pledges have worked hard to provide skits of note and are planning a Charleston contest which will be open to all those interested . . . prizes will be awarded. "The Prince," asked about Dick Kelsa's University of Maine Swing Band says: "they swing."

ZETES OFFER DIXIELAND

Zeta Psi, winners of last year's snow sculpture, will have Fred Petra and his boys at the Zeta house Saturday afternoon. The jam session will consist of Dixieland and jazz as played by the above mentioned Waterville group. The evening program will feature Karel Boulin's dance band and these Lewiston boys will be playing as long as there are people dancing . . .

Dropping in on the Lambda's Chi's, we find surprise entertainment in the afternoon. This "surprise" will be followed by a dinner

The age of the large dance bands rocking the crowds at Carnegie Hall has become extinct, and has been replaced by the age of small progressive groups. During the "Golden Age of Swing" around 1939 and 1940, Benny Goodman, the Dorsey brothers, and Glen Miller were the number one attractions on radio, juke boxes and in ballrooms. After the war the demand for the bands took a sharp decline

Tri-Delt Will Give Scholarships

Delta Delta Delta has announced the opening of their 1957 Scholarship award competition. The girls who are eligible may or may not be members of Tri-Delt but they should be well qualified students, showing promise of valuable service in their future communities. The total amount of the awards granted on any one of the 99 campuses included in the competition may not exceed $200. The successful candidates will be notified by May 15, 1957. Scholarships will be forwarded to the winners at the beginning of the term for which the awards are granted. Scholarships may be used for the 1957 Summer Session. Any girl who 23, and the leaders found that it was hard to support fifteen men. Consequently, the musician had to set out on his own and try new innovations in sound with smaller groups. The age of Dave Brubeck, Shorty Rogers, and J. J. and Kai now came into being. The night clubs opened their doors to these progressive groups, and the listening public became ardent fans of "the new sounds."

Meanwhile, the college students around the country found that jazz mixed with "screwdrivers" as did orange juice, and they became infatuated with Dixieland. But yet,

Mule Skiers 'Up' For Carnival Meet

The Colby Winter Carnival Ski Meet will consist of six schools competing for team honors. They are: Colby, Maine, Bowdoin, Bates, University of New Brunswick, and Harvard. The meet began this morning at Sugarloaf with the Slalom and the down hill races. Tomorrow, Saturday, at 10:30, the cross country will start in front of the Chapel. Those competing for Colby will be: Doug Miller, Bud Bates, Bill Chapin, Bob Theve, and Woody Winslow. At 2, the main attraction of the weekend, the jumping events, will be held at the Colby slopes. The old ski jump has been torn down and another new one has been built in its place. This event will mark the opening of the new jump. Colby feels they will be strongest in the Alpine events (Down Hill and Slalom). This past weekend at the E. I. S. A. Meet, held at Farmington, Colby placed third out of six in the Down Hill events. With the great interest growing at Colby for skiing after the building of the Sugarloaf area, Colby should be improved this year, and should show promise for future years in all events.

Colby Cagers In Action Oppose Trinity Huskies

Basketball fans will be presented with an attractive schedule in a Winter Carnival atmosphere this weekend as Trinity and Northeastern invade the fieldhouse for encounters with the Colby varsity.

Trinity has had its difficulties this season, losing eleven straight. The one bright light in an otherwise dreary season is Bill McGowan, who has surpassed the twenty point mark several times this season. Northeastern has also had a losing season, but they recently upset Harvard 66-60. Thus, the Bay Staters might be coming into their own.

On the other hand, Colby, which is having a mediocre season, has compiled many records to date. The Mules lead the nation's small colleges in foul shooting percentage, and Charlie Twigg has sunk more foul shots than any player in the country. John Edes currently ranks sixth in the country in foul shooting percentage, and Dick Campbell, ranks eighth in field goal percentages. Considering the team's 7-8 record so far, this is certainly a formidable array of statistics. The team will also be given a lift by the return of Norm Gignón. "Gig" led last year's powerful freshman team in scoring for the first semester.

Colby recently lost two between semesters encounters to Rhode Island, 93-80, and to Amherst, 80-63. The latter score is not indicative of the difference between the two teams for the Mules had an extremely cold first half before proceeding to outplay the Lord Jeffs in the second half. Proof positive of this lies within the fact that the Mules defeated Springfield by fourteen points who in turn trounced Amherst by twenty.

Colby hopes for the two weekend clashes will depend a great deal on the redoubtable Charlie Twigg. The Colby captain has the highest scoring percentage in the state. Mahaney of Maine has scored more points than Charlie but has played in more games. Larry Cudmore has been setting a torrid pace recently, by scoring 49 points in his last three games and could provide a definite spark to the team in the remaining games.

The outlook is a bright one for the hoopsters. Sophomores have played a vital role in the seasons play and Coach Lee Williams looks to such men as Kopchains, Hunt, Hendricks, Ruvo, Cohen, and Neri to form a solid nucleus in the next two years. A strong freshman quintet should make the picture even brighter.

In state series competition Colby maintains a one-half game lead over Bowdoin with four league encounters remaining. Twin victories this weekend might well provide the lift to spark the team to a strong second half season and retain the state crown which the Mules have held for the last seven years.

The weekend clashes should provide a welcome change of pace from the throbbing beat of tymbalis and calypso music, and will provide the student body with an opportunity to really support a team which has represented Colby so well.

Scoring Champion Mule Sextet Meets Tufts

The Colby hockey team, highest scoring team in the East, is determined and confident of being victorious over a highly respected Tufts club. Led by their inspired coach, Jack Kelly, the Colby sextet has been preparing for this game for ten days. Between semesters, the hockey team held double sessions daily, polishing their plays and improving their skating.

The key to this spirited team centers around Captain Guy Vigue, one of the top scorers in the East and spark of the second line. The powerful cog of the club is the first line of Morrisson, Church, and Keltie. Church, a scrappy player, has utilized his hustle to the fullest and now is the fourth highest scorer in the East with 34 points. Morrisson and Keltie are great opportunists around the net and must be watched very closely. Flanking Guy Vigue on the second line are Howie Cates and Don Megathlin whose aggressiveness and determination have aided to form a formidable line. These first six forwards have at least 10 points apiece, and thus are establishing an estimable reputation in New England hockey circles.

The defense is sparked by the remarkable pair of Greg MacArthur and Don Cote who have won the respect of the opposition. The second defense consists of Jim Fox the most improved player on the team, and Frank McDonnell. The pride of Jack Kelly's club is the goalie, who never knew what hockey was three years ago. Only last year did he learn to skate let alone play the toughest position in hockey. Bob Auriemma has been a pleasant surprise for this team, and has turned in some commendable performances. Slated for occasional action which adds depth to the outfit is the third line of Hall, Bishop, and Coperthwaite. Jack Kelly has instilled into his players his will to win and his great spirit and inspiration. As a result he has produced a fine team in his sophomore year of coaching.

However, Colby will have to be at its best to reckon with the powerful Tufts sextet. Boston, always known for its hockey, has some of its players enrolled at Tufts. Best known perhaps is the flashy duo of Cinto and Nolan. These two boys have gained recognition in Boston and bear watching. Both are clever with their sticks and are great scorers. Tufts beat Williams 5-4, and Colby lost to Williams 6-1, if comparative scores mean anything. Tufts has played top competition in Boston, namely Howard, Northeastern, and Boston University. But the Colby forces led by their inspired coach are determined to win their fourth straight game.

On Saturday at 2 p.m. the freshmen play Bridgton Academy. The freshmen have had their troubles this year and lack last year's strength. The powerful cog of the club is Don Williamson, one of the top goalies in New England. In front of Don is the defense of Don Whitney and John Judge. The forward wave is sparked by the clever, agile Ray Paradis. Hank Lapham and John Whittier round out a formidable first line. The second line is Bob Taitt, Charley Linnehan, and John Knowles. Also slated for action are John Monter, Hank Van Beaver, and Phil Devarenne.

Bridgton is composed of many former high school stars. The most well known is Bob Famiglietti, who is a tricky stickholder. Both varsity and freshman games promise to be interesting and exciting.

for the brothers at the Fairfield Grange . . . consisting of "Lamb chops" (?) . . . The evening will be rounded out by a dance in the house following the Colby - Northeastern basketball game.

The Phi Delt's feature that new South American sensation "Pig the Pig" in the afternoon and will follow up with a dance band in the evening.

KDR will really jump in the afternoon, when Dixieland will rock their house. The jam session will be "jumping" all afternoon followed in the evening by a dance band (in the house). Decorations, and snow sculptures should add together for a great time.

The DU's start their weekend early this year with a Jam Session Friday afternoon (4-7 p.m.) starring Fred Petra and his Boys. Saturday afternoon will be headlined by Philly Ives in his own inimitable brand of entertainment . . . and Saturday evening Burt Cotie, of Lewiston-Auburn way, will drum up smooth dance and some cool Dixieland rhythms.

The DEKE's, otherwise known as the "pillars" of Colby, will be welcoming guests in the afternoon. Al Corey plays in the Deke house Saturday evening. This is the band that played at the Inauguration Ball of Governor Muskie earlier in the year.

Rounding out the fraternities is Sigma Theta Psi featuring Irving "Lord" Burgess, the calypso "king." Burgess comes to Roberts Union Saturday evening under the sponsorship of the Sigma Theta's after his calypso antics at the Women's Union in the afternoon. He is the arranger for all of Harry Belafonte's calypso numbers!!

That's the breakdown of the fraternity going-ons this Saturday—Winter Carnival—and what with the theme "Schuss Die Alpen" a wonderful time should be had by all!!!

WINTER CARNIVAL

in charge of invitations, chaperones and flowers. For the first time this year, and since the Carnival Ball is a formal affair, they wrote invitations by hand to all faculty members and made all the arrangements for the chaperones.

Marilyn Clark, the committee secretary, took faithful notes of all the meetings for future reference. Marilyn often had quite a time trying to record appropriate comments as the meetings were often exciting ones as the committee lengthily "hashed" over the many ideas everyone had to improve Carnival.

Nancy Harmon and Will Clark were in charge of snow sculptures and in the judging of them this afternoon. They worked with Mr. Whalen and the maintenance department who helped fraternities and sororities by piling up the snow, importing it in large trucks, and furnishing shovels and hoses.

Peter Doran, coronation and voting chairman, worked especially hard contacting fraternities, arranging for the pictures to be taken of the queens, and finally stationing himself tirelessly at the foot of the stairs outside the Spa, pouncing on most of Colby's male faction so that they would be sure to vote. Tuesday evening Peter counted the votes and notified the Echo staff so that the newspaper could go to press announcing the Winter Carnival Queen.

Marietta Pane had perhaps the most harassing job. She was in charge of ticket sales and arranging the schedule for selling of bids and tickets at the door. Marietta worked with Art in keeping track of the money, and like Peter, she spent many hours this week pouncing on Colby students outside of the Spa.

Jan Bray and Edo Foresman were in charge of refreshments and the decoration of Dunn and Smith lounge for the intermission. The girls were helped by members of the Outing Club in procuring travel posters, bear rugs and animal heads to create a Swiss chalet effect in the lounges.

Aided by John Dunstan, who took care of the lighting effects, Peter Prew organized and planned the decorations for the Carnival Ball. Pete spent a great deal of time buying materials from Boston and Waterville distributors to build the two mountains on each side of the gym and the chalet on stage to house Elliott Lawrence and his orchestra.

Bob Brolli acquired Lord Burgess for the Carnival weekend and made all arrangements for his appearance tomorrow afternoon in the Women's Union at 4.30.

Doug Davidson was in charge of the ice review, but since the review proved too costly, Doug served as general committee handyman. He sold tickets, helped the publicity chairman, and proved himself one of the most reliable persons to carry out any task.
