WASHINGTON, May 28.—The official Japanese report on the latest Japanese naval disaster is in and the great naval battle in the Korean Straits is made in a sub rosa. It is all that has been heard from the Japanese fleet since the battle of May 27.

The total number of vessels lost to the Japanese, according to Admiral Togo, is 11, and he does not know the condition of any but two of the Japanese ships.

The report states that the Japanese fleet is crowded on the occasion. Another report says there is not a Japanese vessel left.

FOLLY'S KIDNEY CURSE

Will positively curable any case of Kidney or Bladder disease not beyond the reach of medical science.

NO MEDICINE can do more.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

We don't put Scott's Emulsion in the class of advertised cures; it doesn't belong there. We hardly like to use the word "cure" at all, but we are bound to say that it can be used for a great many troubles with great satisfaction. Its special function is to do away with the waste of the body when the ordinary food does not nourish, and this means that it is useful in many cases which are indicated by a want of

An American hero, revered by an admiring public, is to be given a great cause party next month, and not only the friends but the enemies of his cause are gathering to do honor to his memory. This is not the first time that the press has been used to discredit him, but it is the last time it will be used for that purpose. It is a remarkable and historic event, the like of which has not been seen since the last survivor of the War of 1812 died. It is a fitting close of the long career of an American hero, and whose careers have added to the pride and the fame of New England. The death of Mrs. Livermore sadly is to be mourned. The passing of this great woman is a loss to the nation. The record of naval victories, there is no doubt that he was trying to buy his way to success. He was a man of strong will and determination, and he has now discovered the fallacy of his declarations. He has now found the truth, that is to do good by doing well. By his gift to Columbia University, he has made a remarkable and historic contribution to the cause of education. The University is to be congratulated on the fact that it has accepted this gift, and that it has made it a valuable work. It is a fitting close of the long career of an American hero, and whose careers have added to the pride and the fame of New England. The death of Mrs. Livermore sadly is to be mourned.

In a suite of rooms, an edition of the "Filigree Ball" was printed. The next day, when the book was delivered to the house, there was a faint smell of paper and ink, but very soon the scent disappeared. The pages were thin and smooth, and the text was printed in a neat, legible font. The book was bound in a soft leather cover, and the spine was gold-stamped with the title."...

In the kitchen, Mrs. Jeffrey was busy preparing dinner. She had just finished cooking the chicken, and was now slicing the bread. The aroma of freshly baked bread filled the air.

"Ye Gods!" said Mr. Jeffrey, as he walked into the room. "What a mess!" He looked around at the pile of books, papers, and magazines scattered across the table.

"We must get organized," said Mrs. Jeffrey. "Let's make a list of the things we need to do before the party.""...

The next day, Mr. Jeffrey was walking down the street, lost in thought about the party. He was determined to make it a success, but he was worried about the weather. Would it rain on the day of the party? He wished he had a crystal ball to consult."

"I think it's going to rain," said Little Martin, coming up beside him.

"No, it's not," said Mr. Jeffrey. "Look at the sky. It's clear.""...
