

HCL US, 124-126.

1. US reads "says."
2. US reads "did."
3. The translation was never published. The manuscript was unwittingly destroyed by his nieces playing with it. See EAR's letter to Smith, September 13, 1916.
4. A pipe-dream they had of building a stone refuge in the "bower."