My dear Ford,

I hope you will forgive me for the rather dirty little trick I played on you not that before. I was so extremely proud of my account of your coming here that I did not stop to think of the possible consequences of the thing. Now I can see that it was a very poor sort of joke indeed and I am humbly ashamed of it.

Johnson does not find my reply in "London Town" amongst the weekly papers and you are calling it obscure. But it is all so yellowish that I shall not it for fear of coming out of concealing. — About your Letters letter.

Most sincerely,

E. A. T.

Washington, 4th Nov
10 November 1891.

I sent the Penny to you yesterday.
