CHATTANOOGA, TENN.

Post Office Department, Federal Building.

This department made an inquiry in March 1965 involving Bernard H. Porter, born February 14, 1911 at Houlton, Maine and residing at that time at 2009 Lee High Drive, N.E., Huntsville, Alabama as a result of some allegations of mail fraud that he made against other persons. Our investigation disclosed that these other persons had no previous record of mail fraud and our investigation showed no basis for his allegations. It was learned by our inspectors that Porter rented a home in Huntsville from a and was a peculiar type of person who was not generally liked by the neighbors. He did not ever speak to a neighbor. and the neighbors stated that every night all of the lights in his house would go out at 8:00 P.M. At the time of our investigation he had been employed as an Engineer by Boeing Company in Huntsville since July 7, 1964, and had been employed by the Federal Electric Corporation in Paramus, New Jersey in 1962. No other information appears in our files concerning this individual.
