Gentlemen:

I have these ratings:

In April 24, 1959 I was hired at GS-12, Naval Shipyards, Long Beach as Physicist, was asked not to look elsewhere, was assured the job was for me, while a Secret Clearance was to be obtained. On July 8, 1959 I was advised that I had been found unemployable, that I could not know the reason why, that the records would follow me wherever I went.

I desire to know return mail
II who accuses me.

It is my intention to protest this all the way to the Supreme Court.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard Horden Porter
