TERMS OF ADMISSION.

The requisites for admission to the Freshman Class are, testimonials of good moral character, a thorough acquaintance with English, Latin and Greek Grammar, Cæsar's Commentaries or Sallust, Virgil, Cicero's Select Orations, Latin Prosody, the making of Latin, the Gospels of the Greek Testament, Jacob's Greek Reader, Ancient and modern Geography, Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, Proportions, the doctrine of Roots and Powers and Algebra so far as to be able to solve Equations of the second degree. It is recommended to Students in preparation to read attentively some convenient manual of Greek and Roman History. The Latin Grammar of Andrews and Stoddard will be required, and Sophocles Greek Grammar.

Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the preparatory studies and in the various branches to which the class they propose to enter have attended. Those who are admitted from other Colleges must present certificates of regular dismissal. In all cases, testimonials of good moral character are required.

The stated times for examination are the day before Commencement and the second day of the next term.

Individuals of suitable age and acquisitions are allowed, without becoming candidates for a degree, to pursue a partial Course of study, not less than one year,—as they may desire. They will be required to recite with the regular college classes at least twice a day, will have free access to the Libraries and Lectures, and, on leaving the Institution, will be entitled to full testimonials of their respective attainments.
