

5-5-1859

The Eastern Mail (Vol. 12, No. 43): May 5, 1859

Ephraim Maxham

Daniel Ripley Wing

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.colby.edu/eastern_mail

Part of the Agriculture Commons, American Popular Culture Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, and the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Maxham, Ephraim and Wing, Daniel Ripley, "The Eastern Mail (Vol. 12, No. 43): May 5, 1859" (1859). The Eastern Mail (Waterville, Maine). 614.

https://digitalcommons.colby.edu/eastern_mail/614

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Waterville Materials at Digital Commons @ Colby. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Eastern Mail (Waterville, Maine) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Colby.

ap, (all to 1)

The Eastern Mail.

EPH. MAXHAM, DANIEL WING,
EDITORS.
WATERVILLE, MAY 5, 1859.

AGENTS FOR THE MAIL.
B. M. FETTERHILL & Co., Newspaper Agents, No. 30 State street, Boston, and 110 Nassau street, New York, are Agents for the Eastern Mail, and are authorized to receive advertisements and subscriptions at the same rates as required at this office.
S. B. WILLES (successor to V. B. Palmer), Newspaper Advertising Agent, No. 1 Scollay's Building, Court street, Boston, is authorized to receive advertisements at the same rates as required by the above.

ALL LETTERS AND COMMUNICATIONS, relating either to the business or editorial departments of this paper should be directed to "MAXHAM & WING," or "EASTERN MAIL OFFICE."

THE EASTERN MAIL AND A MAGAZINE!

GOOD READING TO BE HAD CHEAP!

We offer the following liberal terms to subscribers, old and new, for the ensuing year, each invariably in advance.
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00
THE EASTERN MAIL, one year, for $3.00

IMPROVEMENTS.—Our village thus far shows no very striking marks of improvement this spring. Considerable is indicated in the sickening up line, though but few new buildings are promised. Our own mechanics may find quiet occupation for the season, but signs promise nothing to immigrants. Unless Gen. Smith concludes to build on the beautiful site he has purchased, near the Elmwood Hotel, we have no assurance of the erection of any conspicuous buildings. If a dozen men could be occupied for the season on that, it would be a godsend to the architectural craft. Otherwise they must turn their attention to close economy, and their hands to such "odd jobs" as may offer. They already understand a most commendable reliance upon the hope set before them in the promises of growth that is to come to our place in the future. They have done everything but eat and drink it for many long years; and unless some of them get rich enough to bring it about themselves, they are likely to starve upon it for years to come. The capital of our own place makes but weak promise of coming to the rescue. Never, till "the abomination of desolation," spoken of in every page of our town's history, stands in all the holy places where money is invested, will our citizens lay their own hands to the proper work of doing something for themselves. These promises have been long enough broken to the sense, and never till labor and enterprise join hand in hand, and apply themselves to what is within their own reach, will capital come to their aid, and our village show emphatic signs of thrift. These "dead hopes," that yield but a thrice dead faith, must be buried and forgotten, and the interests of our place find new birth in the energies of living, self-relying men, before these old threadbare promises will be realized.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our village, noted and admired by everybody; and yet there is room for almost any degree of improvement. The soil is generally favorable, to both life and rapid growth. The large elm at the corner of the street in the yard of Mr. Wm. Golder, was set there only twenty years ago, at which time Mr. G. brought it from the woods on his shoulder. It is now thirty inches in diameter, and among the few trees that rival the Boutelle elms, in the grounds of Mr. Noyes. There is yet a want of trees on the vacant lot corner of Temple and Front streets. The late Mr. Philbrick had supplied that lot with a fine lot of thrifty maples, some seven or eight years ago, but the wicked hand of some vandal cut them down in the night. We hope the present owner of that property will have courage to replace them, in the charitable trust that the author of that shameful act is dead.

THE OWNERS OF LOTS ON THE EAST SIDE OF FRONT

street, above Union, would improve their property and benefit the public by setting trees there. The soil is well adapted to the elm and maple—and what is better, the owners are both generous and wealthy. Most of the trees set on Main-st. last year are showing good signs of vigor. The few exceptions are the result of accidents from want of protection. A little more care will secure success next time; and the man who plants a tree gives the world something to admire and love after he is forgotten.

We most earnestly invite attention, just at this time, to the matter of making a liberal addition to the trees in our village. The cost is trifling, and the profit great. Examine carefully these set last year, and by all means make sure work if any are dead. Don't give up so commendable a work, when everybody is looking to see you persevere. By-and-by, when the leaves are out, and these grateful tokens of good works are rendering honor to whom honor is due, we intend to report the whole number of ornamental trees in our village, and the number set this year. They are such a physical counterpart of purity of heart—the more we have the more we see God—that it is every man's interest to multiply them; and if we could for once find that every man had seen to it that there should be no vacancy "over against his own house and lands" what a work would have commenced! This work is nearer done in Waterville than in any village in Maine; and though this may be "glorious enough," don't let it stop at that, so long as room remains for another tree.

PREMIUM FIRE WORKS.—Messrs. James

G. Hovey & Co., were the first to erect a Pyrotechnical Laboratory in New England, and are the most experienced in this line. For the accommodation of their extensive trade, they have, during the past season among other improvements, introduced New Portable Piers for fire works, particularly adapted to convenience in packing, distant transportation, and economy in freight. See advertisement.

THE FAITH OF THE LADIES OF THE UNIVERSALIST

Society proved one of the most pleasant and successful of this class of popular entertainments. The net proceeds were $166. This amount is to be devoted to the repair and improvement of the meeting-house. The money was well earned, and gave a full equivalent in social enjoyment and profit—of course the hearty blessing of the contributors goes with it. The audience were at least highly interested in contributing to the enjoyment of the audience.

PETER SINGLAI.—The lecture of this retiree in the temperance field, on Tuesday evening, drew an audience full up to the capacity of the Baptist church. We have never listened to a discourse where we have felt that so much good seed was committed to the right kind of soil. The lecturer's manner of securing the attention of the young portion of his hearers, commanding their reason and fixing it in their memory, is inimitable. He seemed full of the "immense" good, and we commend him to the friends of the cause everywhere with the full confidence that the State Committee have acted wisely in securing his services.

OUR TABLE.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITION OF WATKINS' NOVELS. Scott, being the third volume of T. B. Peterson & Brothers' new and cheap weekly issue of the Waterville Novel, by Sir Walter Scott. Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners—ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every household, where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form, and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons, whatever. To Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, more than all other publishers, are we indebted for this new feature in American literature. The edition embraces the whole of the author's works, and will be contained in 26 volumes, at 25 cents each, one of which will be issued on each succeeding Saturday, until complete. A full set will be forwarded, free of Postage, by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on sending a remittance of five dollars to them, for twenty-six volumes. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL.—This sterling

old periodical, still holds the even tenor of its way. "It is always interesting, never dull. Not a number of it for long is ever taken in hand, and thrown aside for want of sufficient interest to detain the reader—a rare merit, certainly, in a periodical, but one we are quite sure can be claimed for Blackwood." The present number contains a continuation of "A Cruise in Japanese Waters," which increase in interest. "The Luck of Lathmoe, Part 2," which promises to be one of those charming tales or novelettes for which Blackwood is so famous. "A Winter Journey," lively and sportive. "The Turk in Kalyut—1854-1855," "Christianity in India," an able review of Kaye's late work under that title, being a history of the introduction and progress of Christianity in India, from the sixth century down to the present time, with sketches of the early missionaries, and of the English Bishops—Middleton, Heber, and Wilson. "Adam Bede," a commendatory review of Elliott's new religious novel—and three articles on "Parliamentary Reform," one of which contains a notice of M. Chasler's late work on the Fall in the Value of Gold which the writer alleges will, of itself, silently work out a change in the elective franchise, sufficient to satisfy the most liberal radicals.

The four great British Quarterly Reviews and Black

wood's Monthly, are promptly issued by L. Scott & Co. Goldstreet, New York. Terms of subscription—For any one of the four Reviews $3 per annum; any two $5; any three $7; any four $9; any five $11; Blackwood's Magazine $3; Blackwood and three Reviews $9; Blackwood and the four Reviews $10—when sent by mail, the postage to any part of the U. States will be but 24 cents a year for Blackwood; and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY FOR MAY, contains

the following illustrated articles:—Barthram's Dirge, a poem; China, a glance at its past, present, and future; The History of the Great Republic, continued; Seven years in the Western Land; My Lady's Last Dance, a dressing maid's story; Sir Thomas More; The Carmen of New York; The Tyrant Fashion; and Almado's wife; India and her Conquerors; Mexico. The fashions for the month are also pictured forth, with sundry comic devices for those who affect such vanities. A host of readable articles appear besides those we have enumerated, and the number is one of the best we have seen. Published by Oakmont & Co., New York, at 25 cents.

MERRY'S MONTH.—The May number is full of pleasant stories and good reading in a variety of forms. With numerous pretty pictures to delight the eyes of the little folks. The monthly visits of this nice journal must be a great treat to all the boys and girls who enjoy its acquaintance. Published by J. Stearns & Co., New York.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our village, noted and admired by everybody; and yet there is room for almost any degree of improvement. The soil is generally favorable, to both life and rapid growth. The large elm at the corner of the street in the yard of Mr. Wm. Golder, was set there only twenty years ago, at which time Mr. G. brought it from the woods on his shoulder. It is now thirty inches in diameter, and among the few trees that rival the Boutelle elms, in the grounds of Mr. Noyes. There is yet a want of trees on the vacant lot corner of Temple and Front streets. The late Mr. Philbrick had supplied that lot with a fine lot of thrifty maples, some seven or eight years ago, but the wicked hand of some vandal cut them down in the night. We hope the present owner of that property will have courage to replace them, in the charitable trust that the author of that shameful act is dead.

OUR TABLE.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITION OF WATKINS' NOVELS. Scott, being the third volume of T. B. Peterson & Brothers' new and cheap weekly issue of the Waterville Novel, by Sir Walter Scott. Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners—ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every household, where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form, and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons, whatever. To Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, more than all other publishers, are we indebted for this new feature in American literature. The edition embraces the whole of the author's works, and will be contained in 26 volumes, at 25 cents each, one of which will be issued on each succeeding Saturday, until complete. A full set will be forwarded, free of Postage, by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on sending a remittance of five dollars to them, for twenty-six volumes. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL.—This sterling

old periodical, still holds the even tenor of its way. "It is always interesting, never dull. Not a number of it for long is ever taken in hand, and thrown aside for want of sufficient interest to detain the reader—a rare merit, certainly, in a periodical, but one we are quite sure can be claimed for Blackwood." The present number contains a continuation of "A Cruise in Japanese Waters," which increase in interest. "The Luck of Lathmoe, Part 2," which promises to be one of those charming tales or novelettes for which Blackwood is so famous. "A Winter Journey," lively and sportive. "The Turk in Kalyut—1854-1855," "Christianity in India," an able review of Kaye's late work under that title, being a history of the introduction and progress of Christianity in India, from the sixth century down to the present time, with sketches of the early missionaries, and of the English Bishops—Middleton, Heber, and Wilson. "Adam Bede," a commendatory review of Elliott's new religious novel—and three articles on "Parliamentary Reform," one of which contains a notice of M. Chasler's late work on the Fall in the Value of Gold which the writer alleges will, of itself, silently work out a change in the elective franchise, sufficient to satisfy the most liberal radicals.

The four great British Quarterly Reviews and Black

wood's Monthly, are promptly issued by L. Scott & Co. Goldstreet, New York. Terms of subscription—For any one of the four Reviews $3 per annum; any two $5; any three $7; any four $9; any five $11; Blackwood's Magazine $3; Blackwood and three Reviews $9; Blackwood and the four Reviews $10—when sent by mail, the postage to any part of the U. States will be but 24 cents a year for Blackwood; and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY FOR MAY, contains

the following illustrated articles:—Barthram's Dirge, a poem; China, a glance at its past, present, and future; The History of the Great Republic, continued; Seven years in the Western Land; My Lady's Last Dance, a dressing maid's story; Sir Thomas More; The Carmen of New York; The Tyrant Fashion; and Almado's wife; India and her Conquerors; Mexico. The fashions for the month are also pictured forth, with sundry comic devices for those who affect such vanities. A host of readable articles appear besides those we have enumerated, and the number is one of the best we have seen. Published by Oakmont & Co., New York, at 25 cents.

MERRY'S MONTH.—The May number is full of

pleasant stories and good reading in a variety of forms. With numerous pretty pictures to delight the eyes of the little folks. The monthly visits of this nice journal must be a great treat to all the boys and girls who enjoy its acquaintance. Published by J. Stearns & Co., New York.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our village, noted and admired by everybody; and yet there is room for almost any degree of improvement. The soil is generally favorable, to both life and rapid growth. The large elm at the corner of the street in the yard of Mr. Wm. Golder, was set there only twenty years ago, at which time Mr. G. brought it from the woods on his shoulder. It is now thirty inches in diameter, and among the few trees that rival the Boutelle elms, in the grounds of Mr. Noyes. There is yet a want of trees on the vacant lot corner of Temple and Front streets. The late Mr. Philbrick had supplied that lot with a fine lot of thrifty maples, some seven or eight years ago, but the wicked hand of some vandal cut them down in the night. We hope the present owner of that property will have courage to replace them, in the charitable trust that the author of that shameful act is dead.

THE OWNERS OF LOTS ON THE EAST SIDE OF FRONT

street, above Union, would improve their property and benefit the public by setting trees there. The soil is well adapted to the elm and maple—and what is better, the owners are both generous and wealthy. Most of the trees set on Main-st. last year are showing good signs of vigor. The few exceptions are the result of accidents from want of protection. A little more care will secure success next time; and the man who plants a tree gives the world something to admire and love after he is forgotten.

We most earnestly invite attention, just at this time, to the matter of making a liberal addition to the trees in our village. The cost is trifling, and the profit great. Examine carefully these set last year, and by all means make sure work if any are dead. Don't give up so commendable a work, when everybody is looking to see you persevere. By-and-by, when the leaves are out, and these grateful tokens of good works are rendering honor to whom honor is due, we intend to report the whole number of ornamental trees in our village, and the number set this year. They are such a physical counterpart of purity of heart—the more we have the more we see God—that it is every man's interest to multiply them; and if we could for once find that every man had seen to it that there should be no vacancy "over against his own house and lands" what a work would have commenced! This work is nearer done in Waterville than in any village in Maine; and though this may be "glorious enough," don't let it stop at that, so long as room remains for another tree.

PREMIUM FIRE WORKS.—Messrs. James

G. Hovey & Co., were the first to erect a Pyrotechnical Laboratory in New England, and are the most experienced in this line. For the accommodation of their extensive trade, they have, during the past season among other improvements, introduced New Portable Piers for fire works, particularly adapted to convenience in packing, distant transportation, and economy in freight. See advertisement.

THE FAITH OF THE LADIES OF THE UNIVERSALIST

Society proved one of the most pleasant and successful of this class of popular entertainments. The net proceeds were $166. This amount is to be devoted to the repair and improvement of the meeting-house. The money was well earned, and gave a full equivalent in social enjoyment and profit—of course the hearty blessing of the contributors goes with it. The audience were at least highly interested in contributing to the enjoyment of the audience.

PETER SINGLAI.—The lecture of this

retiree in the temperance field, on Tuesday evening, drew an audience full up to the capacity of the Baptist church. We have never listened to a discourse where we have felt that so much good seed was committed to the right kind of soil. The lecturer's manner of securing the attention of the young portion of his hearers, commanding their reason and fixing it in their memory, is inimitable. He seemed full of the "immense" good, and we commend him to the friends of the cause everywhere with the full confidence that the State Committee have acted wisely in securing his services.

OUR TABLE.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITION OF WATKINS' NOVELS. Scott, being the third volume of T. B. Peterson & Brothers' new and cheap weekly issue of the Waterville Novel, by Sir Walter Scott. Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners—ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every household, where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form, and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons, whatever. To Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, more than all other publishers, are we indebted for this new feature in American literature. The edition embraces the whole of the author's works, and will be contained in 26 volumes, at 25 cents each, one of which will be issued on each succeeding Saturday, until complete. A full set will be forwarded, free of Postage, by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on sending a remittance of five dollars to them, for twenty-six volumes. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL.—This sterling

old periodical, still holds the even tenor of its way. "It is always interesting, never dull. Not a number of it for long is ever taken in hand, and thrown aside for want of sufficient interest to detain the reader—a rare merit, certainly, in a periodical, but one we are quite sure can be claimed for Blackwood." The present number contains a continuation of "A Cruise in Japanese Waters," which increase in interest. "The Luck of Lathmoe, Part 2," which promises to be one of those charming tales or novelettes for which Blackwood is so famous. "A Winter Journey," lively and sportive. "The Turk in Kalyut—1854-1855," "Christianity in India," an able review of Kaye's late work under that title, being a history of the introduction and progress of Christianity in India, from the sixth century down to the present time, with sketches of the early missionaries, and of the English Bishops—Middleton, Heber, and Wilson. "Adam Bede," a commendatory review of Elliott's new religious novel—and three articles on "Parliamentary Reform," one of which contains a notice of M. Chasler's late work on the Fall in the Value of Gold which the writer alleges will, of itself, silently work out a change in the elective franchise, sufficient to satisfy the most liberal radicals.

The four great British Quarterly Reviews and Black

wood's Monthly, are promptly issued by L. Scott & Co. Goldstreet, New York. Terms of subscription—For any one of the four Reviews $3 per annum; any two $5; any three $7; any four $9; any five $11; Blackwood's Magazine $3; Blackwood and three Reviews $9; Blackwood and the four Reviews $10—when sent by mail, the postage to any part of the U. States will be but 24 cents a year for Blackwood; and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY FOR MAY, contains

the following illustrated articles:—Barthram's Dirge, a poem; China, a glance at its past, present, and future; The History of the Great Republic, continued; Seven years in the Western Land; My Lady's Last Dance, a dressing maid's story; Sir Thomas More; The Carmen of New York; The Tyrant Fashion; and Almado's wife; India and her Conquerors; Mexico. The fashions for the month are also pictured forth, with sundry comic devices for those who affect such vanities. A host of readable articles appear besides those we have enumerated, and the number is one of the best we have seen. Published by Oakmont & Co., New York, at 25 cents.

MERRY'S MONTH.—The May number is full of

pleasant stories and good reading in a variety of forms. With numerous pretty pictures to delight the eyes of the little folks. The monthly visits of this nice journal must be a great treat to all the boys and girls who enjoy its acquaintance. Published by J. Stearns & Co., New York.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our village, noted and admired by everybody; and yet there is room for almost any degree of improvement. The soil is generally favorable, to both life and rapid growth. The large elm at the corner of the street in the yard of Mr. Wm. Golder, was set there only twenty years ago, at which time Mr. G. brought it from the woods on his shoulder. It is now thirty inches in diameter, and among the few trees that rival the Boutelle elms, in the grounds of Mr. Noyes. There is yet a want of trees on the vacant lot corner of Temple and Front streets. The late Mr. Philbrick had supplied that lot with a fine lot of thrifty maples, some seven or eight years ago, but the wicked hand of some vandal cut them down in the night. We hope the present owner of that property will have courage to replace them, in the charitable trust that the author of that shameful act is dead.

THE OWNERS OF LOTS ON THE EAST SIDE OF FRONT

street, above Union, would improve their property and benefit the public by setting trees there. The soil is well adapted to the elm and maple—and what is better, the owners are both generous and wealthy. Most of the trees set on Main-st. last year are showing good signs of vigor. The few exceptions are the result of accidents from want of protection. A little more care will secure success next time; and the man who plants a tree gives the world something to admire and love after he is forgotten.

OUR TABLE.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITION OF WATKINS' NOVELS. Scott, being the third volume of T. B. Peterson & Brothers' new and cheap weekly issue of the Waterville Novel, by Sir Walter Scott. Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners—ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every household, where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form, and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons, whatever. To Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, more than all other publishers, are we indebted for this new feature in American literature. The edition embraces the whole of the author's works, and will be contained in 26 volumes, at 25 cents each, one of which will be issued on each succeeding Saturday, until complete. A full set will be forwarded, free of Postage, by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on sending a remittance of five dollars to them, for twenty-six volumes. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL.—This sterling

old periodical, still holds the even tenor of its way. "It is always interesting, never dull. Not a number of it for long is ever taken in hand, and thrown aside for want of sufficient interest to detain the reader—a rare merit, certainly, in a periodical, but one we are quite sure can be claimed for Blackwood." The present number contains a continuation of "A Cruise in Japanese Waters," which increase in interest. "The Luck of Lathmoe, Part 2," which promises to be one of those charming tales or novelettes for which Blackwood is so famous. "A Winter Journey," lively and sportive. "The Turk in Kalyut—1854-1855," "Christianity in India," an able review of Kaye's late work under that title, being a history of the introduction and progress of Christianity in India, from the sixth century down to the present time, with sketches of the early missionaries, and of the English Bishops—Middleton, Heber, and Wilson. "Adam Bede," a commendatory review of Elliott's new religious novel—and three articles on "Parliamentary Reform," one of which contains a notice of M. Chasler's late work on the Fall in the Value of Gold which the writer alleges will, of itself, silently work out a change in the elective franchise, sufficient to satisfy the most liberal radicals.

The four great British Quarterly Reviews and Black

wood's Monthly, are promptly issued by L. Scott & Co. Goldstreet, New York. Terms of subscription—For any one of the four Reviews $3 per annum; any two $5; any three $7; any four $9; any five $11; Blackwood's Magazine $3; Blackwood and three Reviews $9; Blackwood and the four Reviews $10—when sent by mail, the postage to any part of the U. States will be but 24 cents a year for Blackwood; and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY FOR MAY, contains

the following illustrated articles:—Barthram's Dirge, a poem; China, a glance at its past, present, and future; The History of the Great Republic, continued; Seven years in the Western Land; My Lady's Last Dance, a dressing maid's story; Sir Thomas More; The Carmen of New York; The Tyrant Fashion; and Almado's wife; India and her Conquerors; Mexico. The fashions for the month are also pictured forth, with sundry comic devices for those who affect such vanities. A host of readable articles appear besides those we have enumerated, and the number is one of the best we have seen. Published by Oakmont & Co., New York, at 25 cents.

MERRY'S MONTH.—The May number is full of

pleasant stories and good reading in a variety of forms. With numerous pretty pictures to delight the eyes of the little folks. The monthly visits of this nice journal must be a great treat to all the boys and girls who enjoy its acquaintance. Published by J. Stearns & Co., New York.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our village, noted and admired by everybody; and yet there is room for almost any degree of improvement. The soil is generally favorable, to both life and rapid growth. The large elm at the corner of the street in the yard of Mr. Wm. Golder, was set there only twenty years ago, at which time Mr. G. brought it from the woods on his shoulder. It is now thirty inches in diameter, and among the few trees that rival the Boutelle elms, in the grounds of Mr. Noyes. There is yet a want of trees on the vacant lot corner of Temple and Front streets. The late Mr. Philbrick had supplied that lot with a fine lot of thrifty maples, some seven or eight years ago, but the wicked hand of some vandal cut them down in the night. We hope the present owner of that property will have courage to replace them, in the charitable trust that the author of that shameful act is dead.

THE OWNERS OF LOTS ON THE EAST SIDE OF FRONT

street, above Union, would improve their property and benefit the public by setting trees there. The soil is well adapted to the elm and maple—and what is better, the owners are both generous and wealthy. Most of the trees set on Main-st. last year are showing good signs of vigor. The few exceptions are the result of accidents from want of protection. A little more care will secure success next time; and the man who plants a tree gives the world something to admire and love after he is forgotten.

We most earnestly invite attention, just at this time, to the matter of making a liberal addition to the trees in our village. The cost is trifling, and the profit great. Examine carefully these set last year, and by all means make sure work if any are dead. Don't give up so commendable a work, when everybody is looking to see you persevere. By-and-by, when the leaves are out, and these grateful tokens of good works are rendering honor to whom honor is due, we intend to report the whole number of ornamental trees in our village, and the number set this year. They are such a physical counterpart of purity of heart—the more we have the more we see God—that it is every man's interest to multiply them; and if we could for once find that every man had seen to it that there should be no vacancy "over against his own house and lands" what a work would have commenced! This work is nearer done in Waterville than in any village in Maine; and though this may be "glorious enough," don't let it stop at that, so long as room remains for another tree.

PREMIUM FIRE WORKS.—Messrs. James

G. Hovey & Co., were the first to erect a Pyrotechnical Laboratory in New England, and are the most experienced in this line. For the accommodation of their extensive trade, they have, during the past season among other improvements, introduced New Portable Piers for fire works, particularly adapted to convenience in packing, distant transportation, and economy in freight. See advertisement.

THE FAITH OF THE LADIES OF THE UNIVERSALIST

Society proved one of the most pleasant and successful of this class of popular entertainments. The net proceeds were $166. This amount is to be devoted to the repair and improvement of the meeting-house. The money was well earned, and gave a full equivalent in social enjoyment and profit—of course the hearty blessing of the contributors goes with it. The audience were at least highly interested in contributing to the enjoyment of the audience.

PETER SINGLAI.—The lecture of this

retiree in the temperance field, on Tuesday evening, drew an audience full up to the capacity of the Baptist church. We have never listened to a discourse where we have felt that so much good seed was committed to the right kind of soil. The lecturer's manner of securing the attention of the young portion of his hearers, commanding their reason and fixing it in their memory, is inimitable. He seemed full of the "immense" good, and we commend him to the friends of the cause everywhere with the full confidence that the State Committee have acted wisely in securing his services.

OUR TABLE.

PETERSON'S CHEAP EDITION OF WATKINS' NOVELS. Scott, being the third volume of T. B. Peterson & Brothers' new and cheap weekly issue of the Waterville Novel, by Sir Walter Scott. Giving truthful delineations of people, character and manners—ever upholding the cause of religion, morality and virtue, they should be welcome at every household, where these precepts are taught. The great barrier, heretofore, to the introduction of these works, has been the high price at which they have been held, but this objection is being now overcome, by the publication of these works of Scott in such a form, and at such a low price as to bring them within the means of all persons, whatever. To Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, more than all other publishers, are we indebted for this new feature in American literature. The edition embraces the whole of the author's works, and will be contained in 26 volumes, at 25 cents each, one of which will be issued on each succeeding Saturday, until complete. A full set will be forwarded, free of Postage, by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on sending a remittance of five dollars to them, for twenty-six volumes. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE FOR APRIL.—This sterling

old periodical, still holds the even tenor of its way. "It is always interesting, never dull. Not a number of it for long is ever taken in hand, and thrown aside for want of sufficient interest to detain the reader—a rare merit, certainly, in a periodical, but one we are quite sure can be claimed for Blackwood." The present number contains a continuation of "A Cruise in Japanese Waters," which increase in interest. "The Luck of Lathmoe, Part 2," which promises to be one of those charming tales or novelettes for which Blackwood is so famous. "A Winter Journey," lively and sportive. "The Turk in Kalyut—1854-1855," "Christianity in India," an able review of Kaye's late work under that title, being a history of the introduction and progress of Christianity in India, from the sixth century down to the present time, with sketches of the early missionaries, and of the English Bishops—Middleton, Heber, and Wilson. "Adam Bede," a commendatory review of Elliott's new religious novel—and three articles on "Parliamentary Reform," one of which contains a notice of M. Chasler's late work on the Fall in the Value of Gold which the writer alleges will, of itself, silently work out a change in the elective franchise, sufficient to satisfy the most liberal radicals.

The four great British Quarterly Reviews and Black

wood's Monthly, are promptly issued by L. Scott & Co. Goldstreet, New York. Terms of subscription—For any one of the four Reviews $3 per annum; any two $5; any three $7; any four $9; any five $11; Blackwood's Magazine $3; Blackwood and three Reviews $9; Blackwood and the four Reviews $10—when sent by mail, the postage to any part of the U. States will be but 24 cents a year for Blackwood; and but 14 cents a year for each of the Reviews.

THE GREAT REPUBLIC MONTHLY FOR MAY, contains

the following illustrated articles:—Barthram's Dirge, a poem; China, a glance at its past, present, and future; The History of the Great Republic, continued; Seven years in the Western Land; My Lady's Last Dance, a dressing maid's story; Sir Thomas More; The Carmen of New York; The Tyrant Fashion; and Almado's wife; India and her Conquerors; Mexico. The fashions for the month are also pictured forth, with sundry comic devices for those who affect such vanities. A host of readable articles appear besides those we have enumerated, and the number is one of the best we have seen. Published by Oakmont & Co., New York, at 25 cents.

MERRY'S MONTH.—The May number is full of

pleasant stories and good reading in a variety of forms. With numerous pretty pictures to delight the eyes of the little folks. The monthly visits of this nice journal must be a great treat to all the boys and girls who enjoy its acquaintance. Published by J. Stearns & Co., New York.

SHADE TREES.—These are the pride of our

village

