THE STUDENT SEEKS AN ANSWER, edited by Professor John A. Clark, is a volume of essays which gives some significant answers to questions on the good life, the good society, world peace, religion, and psychology and science in relation to religion. These papers were all presented to the students at Colby College in the Ingraham Lecture Series, organized to provide searching expositions and discussions of topics in areas chosen by the students themselves.

Sixteen scholars widely recognized as outstandingly able to demonstrate advanced and creative thought on these problems are included:

Brand Blanshard
John Macmurray
Paul A. Schilpp
Gregory Vlastos
Harold A. Larrabee
John B. Noss
Gordon Allport
J. Seelye Bixler
Paul Tillich
John C. Bennett
Dana L. Farnsworth
Edwin E. Aubrey
Raphael Demos
Theodore M. Greene
Scott Buchanan
J. Albert Martin

Three of these—Tillich, Blanshard and Macmurray—have held the Gifford Lectureship.

Recommended for students, youth organizations, churches, parents, philosophers, theologians and teachers.

346 pp.  $5.00

Copies may be obtained from:

COLBY COLLEGE PRESS
WATERVILLE
MAINE