A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF EDWIN ARLINGTON ROBINSON, 1941-1963

By WILLIAM WHITE

This bibliography of Edwin Arlington Robinson is a supplement to Charles Beecher Hogan's "Edwin Arlington Robinson: New Bibliographical Notes," The Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America (New York), Vol. XXXV, pp. 115-144, Second Quarter 1941, which itself supplements Mr. Hogan's admirable A Bibliography of Edwin Arlington Robinson (New Haven: Yale University Press, 1936). I have followed Mr. Hogan's organization and style, with some slight modifications, particularly in the descriptions of books by Robinson. Although an attempt has been made to be as complete as possible, I certainly do not approach Mr. Hogan's work in this respect. While he says (on p. iii of his Bibliography) that his book is "intended primarily for collectors," the present supplement is meant for scholars and critics who would like to know what has been written on the creator of "Luke Havergal" and "Miniver Cheevy" in the past twenty-two years.
