The June issue will be Writing in the Canadas, edited by Professor Jane Moss of Colby.

The December issue will be in memory of Professor Edwin J. Kenney, long a member of our editorial board and extraordinary colleague at Colby, who died on December 8, 1992.

The issue devoted to the work of Seamus Heaney has been postponed until March 1994. Essays should be sent to the editor by December 1.

The front cover is a reproduction of Blake’s “Elohim Creating Adam,” the back, of “God Writing upon the Tables of the Covenant.” Reproductions in the text are “Satan Exulting over Eve,” “Job’s Evil Dreams,” and “Lucifer and the Pope in Hell.” All five are discussed in Marjean D. Purinton’s “An Act of Theological Revisioning: William Blake’s Pictorial Prophecy.”
