Announcements and Comments

THE MARCH 2003 ISSUE will be Locating New England: The Mythology of Place, edited by Wes McNair.

The September 2003 issue, edited by Jody Randolph Allen and Douglas Archibald, will be devoted to the work of Michael Longley. Essays and inquiries should be sent to the editor by March 1.

The December 2003 issue, edited by Michael Marlais and David Simon, will be on the Colby College Art Museum. Scholars interested in works in the museum, who would like to contribute to the issue, should contact the editors at the Colby Department of Art by March 1.

The front cover reproduces Painting of a Village Street, Massachusetts, an oil by an unknown nineteenth-century American painter. The back cover reproduces Boylston and Berkeley Street, Boston, an oil by Arthur Clifton Goodwin, 1866-1944. Both are from the American collection of the Colby Museum of Art.
